distinct from and often alternative to typical theatrical cinema Unlike commercial cinema non theatrical cinema was multi purpose in its uses and multi sited in where it could be shown targeted at particular audiences and in some manner sponsored Relying on contemporary print sources and ephemera of the era to articulate how non theatrical cinema was practiced and understood in the US during the 1910s historian Gregory A Waller charts a heterogeneous fragmentary and rich field that cannot be explained in terms of a master narrative concerning origin or institutionalization progress or decline Uncovering how and where films were put to use beyond the movie theater this book complicates and expands our understanding of the history of American cinema underscoring the myriad roles and everyday presence of moving pictures during the early twentieth century Movies and Money David Puttnam,2011-08-03 From David Puttnam producer of such modern film classics as Chariots of Fire The Killing Fields Midnight Express and The Mission and the only European to have run a major Hollywood studio an insightful and provocative history that explains the personalities and events which shaped film s transformation from a technological curiosity into one of the world s most powerful cultural and economic forces From the early rivalry between its inventors to the power brokering and political influence of today s mega stars from Zukor and Laemmle to Ovitz and Eisner from the serendipitous discovery of Los Angeles flagstaff no good wired Cecil B De Mille want authority to rent barn for 75 a month in place called hollywood to the exploitation and depredation of Europe s film culture in the name of the marketplace Puttnam captures the urgency and wonder that swept through a young industry and set it spinning on an axis of money and power Movies and Money chronicles the unprecedented collision between art and commerce and incisively analyzes its implications in today s global arena Puttnam s engaging history is also an impassioned polemic From the moment Thomas Edison stole the first crude attempt at a movie camera from the French scientist tienne Jules Marey Hollywood and Europe have existed the author claims in a state of undeclared hostility hostility that has occasionally erupted into open battle for control of the century s most powerful artistic medium And this battle he contends will ultimately determine the nature of Europe s cultural identity He also argues forcefully for the intelligent application of the language and techniques of cinema to education urging filmmakers to make films that challenge and inspire as well as entertain Ten years after his abrupt departure from Columbia Puttnam re enters the debate about cinema with characteristic audacity with the irreverence of an iconoclast and the canniness of a seasoned player Movies and Money is a book that will change our understanding of the history and future of film The Jewish Woman ,1921 A Jewish Feminine Mystique? Hasia Diner,Shira Kohn,Rachel Kranson,2010-09-10 In The Feminine Mystique Jewish raised Betty Friedan struck out against a postwar American culture that pressured women to play the role of subservient housewives However Friedan never acknowledged that many American women refused to retreat from public life during these years Now A Jewish Feminine Mystique examines how Jewish women sought opportunities and created images that defied the stereotypes and prescriptive ideology of the feminine mystique As workers with or without pay social justice activists community builders entertainers and businesswomen most Jewish women championed responsibilities outside their homes Jewishness played a role in shaping their choices shattering Friedan's assumptions about how middle class women lived in the postwar years Focusing on ordinary Jewish women as well as prominent figures such as Judy Holliday Jennie Grossinger and Herman Wouk's fictional Marjorie Morningstar leading scholars explore the wide canvas upon which American Jewish women made their mark after the Second World War Heritage Galleries and Auctioneers Vintage Movie Poster Auction #607 Ivy Press,2004-10
