Child tells the story of Deborah's eccentric upbringing and her quest in midlife long after her parents' death to uncover the truth about her mother and their complex relationship. No longer under the spell of her maternal goddess but still caught in a wrenching cycle of love and longing, Deborah must finally confront the reality of her mother's legacy and finally claim her own. Saturday's Child Margaret Morris, Laura Ames, 2013-01-16 This story covers 47 years of physical, sexual and spiritual abuse yet the author leaves the reader with a feeling of hope and spirituality. It also gives a personal glimpse into two other lives: one who was able to express the family secret and receive counseling, return to college and receive a degree and certification in family counseling; and one young lady who could not receive help even though she tried and has been institutionalized. The book tells of the difficulties of being a victim and the success in becoming a whole and emotionally well and productive individual. Saturday's Children Maxwell Anderson, 1927 Constructing the Child Viewer Carmen Luke, 1990-12-11 Beginning from a poststructuralist position, Constructing the Child Viewer examines three decades of U.S. research on television and children. The book concludes that historical concepts of the child television viewer are products of discourse and cannot be taken to reflect objective scientific truths about the child viewer. Widely disseminated constructs of the passive viewer, the active viewer, the interactive viewer, and the media-literate viewer are seen as problematic. Nearly all academic studies published from 1948 to 1979 on the subject are included in this volume. Each receives close textual analysis, making this a useful bibliographic resource and reference book. Methodologically and theoretically, this is the first text of its kind to read the history of research on television and children as an archaeology of knowledge. Constructing the Child Viewer is an extensive bibliographical resource, a preliminary introduction to Foucault's discourse theory, and an experimental application of that theory to one major strand of the discourse of mass communications research. Students of educational psychology, sociology, and communications media will find this work invaluable. Bad Girls and Other Perils Mike Strobel, 2010-11-08 Come and walk the offbeat world of Mike Strobel's popular column in the Toronto Sun. Meet legendary panhandler Shaky Lady, the secretive swinger Sexy Boots, and the notorious Bicycle Bandit. Each column in this collection is a mini-world, tight and bright. Saturday's Child; 36 Women Talk about Their Jobs, 1973 Women from such fields as the arts, communication, science, business, and government discuss their jobs, job requirements, and job selection. Library of Advertising Axel Petrus Johnson, 1911 Way beyond Words Alan Gilbert, 2012-03-30 After years of decline, poetry is once again regaining its rightful place in the field of popular art and entertainment. This growth has been spurred on by the advent of social networking, which has made it possible for groups of poets to emerge, led by poets who are confident and at ease with their art. One among these is author Alan Gilbert. Way beyond Words: Poetry on Reflection is Gilbert's fourth book of poetry, a collection of poems covering a myriad of feelings and emotions. Gilbert has been influenced by the romantic poets as well as more contemporary writers such as Phillip Larkin. He has developed a unique way of exploring evocative poetry in his range and style. Rejecting the obscure language that has deterred readers in the past in favour of poetry that speaks to the soul Gilbert has created artful poems that hold an immediate powerful appeal and evoke intense feelings Examining topics from love lost to a brightly shooting star the poetry in Way beyond Words seeks to inspire all to explore the wide range of human emotions Shoe and Leather Reporter ,1929 Reaching the public, trade-marks Axel Petrus Johnson,1913

Shoe and Leather Journal ,1904 The Dart and Midland Figaro ,1886 Parenting Children with Learning Disabilities Jane Utley Adelizzi,Diane B. Goss,2001-04-30 In a straightforward and empathetic tone Adelizzi and Goss sensitively offer support to parents of children with learning disabilities who wish to see their children grow to their full potential While juggling the complex expectations imposed upon them parents often combat confusion anger fear sadness and frustration This book will help diffuse these overwhelming feelings empowering parents with the ability to provide the academic and personal support their children need to thrive Adelizzi and Goss who contribute to a unique and highly successful collegiate program for adults with LD ADD demystify the very fuzzy world of LD terminology and theory and clarify the complicated process of diagnosis and treatment They shed light on the way children and adolescents with learning disabilities function in the home environment in social relationships and at school Parents will find new understanding and hope as the authors with the collective voice of parents and children who deal with LD every day lead them through the maze of issues they must confront National Jeweler ,1923
