LaCroix, Richard H. McAdams, Martha Craven Nussbaum, 2017 Writers of fiction have always confronted topics of crime and punishment This age old fascination with crime on the part of both authors and readers is not surprising given that criminal justice touches on so many political and psychological themes essential to literature and comes equipped with a trial process that contains its own dramatic structure This volume explores this profound and enduring literary engagement with crime investigation and criminal justice The collected essays explore three themes that connect the world of law with that of fiction First defining and punishing crime is one of the fundamental purposes of government along with the protection of victims by the prevention of crime And yet criminal punishment remains one of the most abused and terrifying forms of political power Second crime is intensely psychological and therefore an important subject by which a writer can develop and explore character A third connection between criminal justice and fiction involves the inherently dramatic nature of the legal system itself particularly the trial Moreover the ongoing public conversation about crime and punishment suggests that the time is ripe for collaboration between law and literature in this troubled domain The essays in this collection span a wide array of genres including tragic drama science fiction lyric poetry autobiography and mystery novels The works discussed include works as old as fifth century BCE Greek tragedy and as recent as contemporary novels memoirs and mystery novels The cumulative result is arresting there are killer wives and crimes against trees a government bureaucrat who sends political adversaries to their death for treason before falling to the same fate himself a convicted murderer who doesn't die when hanged a psychopathological collector whose quite sane kidnapping victim nevertheless also collects Justice Thomas reading and misreading of Bigger Thomas a man who forgives his son's murderer and one who cannot forgive his wife's non-existent adultery fictional detectives who draw on historical analysis to solve murders These essays begin a conversation and they illustrate the great depth and power of crime in literature A Touch of Genius Dvir Abramovich, 2018-09-01 These brilliant writers through their works never fail to exert their power in spades and soar to heights of grace and excellence in confronting the great existential dramas of life In a collection of passionate sparkling essays one of Australia's leading literary critics presents a fresh and exciting ode to Jewish fiction Rescuing some brilliant texts from the dustbin of oblivion or from culture's short memory Abramovich writing with affection and authority offers gems of critical appreciation and in depth discussion of masterpieces and iconic authors such as Nobel Prize Winner S Y Agnon Israel s most celebrated living author Amos Oz the mesmerising Paul Celan the incomparable David Grossman the extraordinary Susan Fromberg Schaeffer the Israeli Agatha Christie and the early pioneers of Hebrew letters Sharing his lifetime joy of reading and engagement with the written word and showcasing his scholarly erudition Abramovich effortlessly muses on the nature of writing and takes readers on an intellectual and philosophical journey through grand thematic landscapes such as memory the Holocaust identity man s relationship with God imagination family marriage death and suffering A celebration and a tribute to old favourites this delightful volume of reflections and meditations is sure to ignite a fire in discerning readers minds and motivate them to go back to those classics with a renewed sense of excitement Certain to become a valuable and entertaining guide for anyone who loves Israeli and Jewish fiction this work will provide inspiration and reason aplenty to turn off the computer or TV and start reading again

Signatures of Struggle Oded Nir, 2018-09-26 Signatures of Struggle offers a unique perspective on Israeli literature bringing Marxist cultural critique to bear on a field from which it has hitherto been absent Oded Nir moves beyond the dominant interpretive horizon of Israeli literary criticism the relation of literature to national ideology Rather than reproducing the usual narrative in which fiction resists the nation s goals Nir demonstrates how in each historical moment literary engagement with national ideology is a means to think through social tensions or contradictions internal to Israeli society to solve in imagination problems that threaten the social order Focusing on moments of transformation Nir argues that the 1950s crisis of realism was the result of the failure rather than the success of the collective transformative project of the haluzim the settler vanguard of Zionism In the 1980s the postmodern turn expressed a crisis of social imagination whose origin was the incorporation of Palestinians into the Israeli economy after the 1967 war Finally he shows that the ways in which history is imaginatively reworked in contemporary Israeli fiction can only be understood through the context of 1950s and 1980s literature Authors analyzed include Yigal Mossinsohn Nathan Shaham Hanoch Bartov Yehudit Hendel Orly Castel Bloom Yehudit Katzir David Grossman Yehoshua Kenaz and Batya Gur The Routledge Encyclopedia of Jewish Writers
