Deborah Mawer, 2014-12-04 French concert music and jazz often enjoyed a special creative exchange across the period 1900-65. French modernist composers were particularly receptive to early African American jazz during the interwar years and American jazz musicians, especially those concerned with modal jazz in the 1950s and early 1960s, exhibited a distinct affinity with French musical impressionism. However, despite a general if contested interest in the cultural interplay of classical music and jazz, few writers have probed the specific French music jazz relationship in depth. In this book, Deborah Mawer sets such musical interplay within its historical, cultural, and critical analytical contexts, offering a detailed yet accessible account of both French and American perspectives. Blending intertextuality with more precise borrowing techniques, Mawer presents case studies on the musical interactions of a wide range of composers and performers, including Debussy, Satie, Milhaud, Ravel, Jack Hylton, George Russell, Bill Evans, and Dave Brubeck.      Young People's Guide to Classical Music, Helen Bauer, 2009-11

Music is a powerful art. We sing it, we dance to it, and we listen to it because it moves us as little else can. Classical music, in particular, has fascinated people for hundreds of years. The works of such composers as Bach, Mozart, and Beethoven have proven so appealing that generations of listeners have returned to them again and again. Young People's Guide to Classical Music invites you to join these listeners.      Tradition and Style in the Works of Darius Milhaud 1912-1939, Barbara L.

Kelly, 2017-07-05 Described by Maurice Ravel as one of the most considerable talents in French music of his generation, Darius Milhaud remains a largely neglected composer. This book reappraises his contribution, focusing on the emergence of the composer's style until his Jewish background forced his exile to the United States on the eve of World War II. The period 1912-1939 spans the crucial years that mark the development of Milhaud's mature style. It was also during this time that he published his most important writings on contemporary music and its relationship to the past. Barbara Kelly discusses the extent to which Milhaud's complex views on the idea of a French national musical heritage relate to his own practice and considers how his works reflect the balance between innovation and tradition. Drawing comparisons with contemporaries such as Debussy, Satie, Schoenberg, Stravinsky, and Poulenc, the book argues that the rhythmic vitality of Milhaud's style and his modal approach within a polytonal context mark him out as an original and distinctive composer.      Twentieth-century Music Theory and Practice, Edward Pearsall, 2012 Twentieth Century Music Theory and Practice introduces a number of tools for analyzing a wide range of twentieth-century musical styles and genres. It includes discussions of harmony, scales, rhythm, contour, post-tonal music, set theory, the twelve-tone method, and modernism. Recent developments involving atonal voice leading, K-nets, nonlinearity, and neo-Riemannian transformations are also engaged. While many of the theoretical tools for analyzing twentieth-century music have been devised to analyze atonal music, they may also provide insight into a much broader array of styles. This text capitalizes on this idea by using the theoretical devices associated with atonality to explore music inclusive of a large number of schools and contains examples by such stylistically diverse composers as Paul Hindemith.

George Crumb Ellen Taffe Zwillich Steve Reich Michael Torke Philip Glass Alexander Scriabin Ernest Bloch Igor Stravinsky Bela Bartok Sergei Prokofiev Arnold Schoenberg Claude Debussy Gyorgy Ligeti and Leonard Bernstein This textbook also provides a number of analytical compositional and written exercises The aural skills supplement and online aural skills trainer on the companion website allow students to use theoretical concepts as the foundation for analytical listening Access additional resources and online material here <http://www.twentiethcenturymusictheoryandpractice.net> and <https://www.motivichearing.com>
