Museums in Arabia Karen Exell, Sarina Wakefield, 2016-05-12 Museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the Arabian Peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones. Alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation. With contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Yemen and the UAE. It focuses on the themes of politics, public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region. The interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each state's socio-cultural context, individual government agendas and political realities. Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies, this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology. It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies, cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East. The Statesman's Yearbook 2025 Palgrave Macmillan, 2025-01-10 Now in its 161st edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world. The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011. This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies. Collecting Asian Art Markéta Hánová, Yuka Kadoi, Simone Wille, 2024-02-29 Rather than centering on the well known collections in Western European and North American museums, Collecting Asian Art turns to museum collections of Asian art in Central Europe which emerged from the late 19th century onwards. Highlighting the dimensions of Central European connectedness, this volume explores how these collections evolved and changed under changing cultural and political conditions from the pre-World War I to the post-World War II periods. With a primary focus on collections of East Asian South Asian and West Asian art in Vienna Prague Berlin Warsaw Krak w Budapest and Ljubljana it outlines the transregional connections and networks that gradually developed Collecting Asian Art locates Asian art across the twentieth century in Central Europe via discourse and ideology and discusses key collections and the way individual collectors built their networks It thus explores transregional connections that developed through collecting activities and strategies in the prewar interwar and postwar eras Contributors also examine the personal connections between a group of Indologists from postwar Prague and modernist Indian artists from the early 1950s to the 1980s and also discuss the systematic archiving of East Asian art collections in Slovenia A concluding conversation looks at colonisation and decolonisation from a broader perspective by approaching it through recent art historical discussions on the global dimensions of modernism By defining the region through its external relationships and its entanglements with regions across Asia rather than as a self contained unit the contributions in this volume outline how these transregional connections and networks evolved and changed over time thus highlighting their singularity in comparison to developments in Western Europe Based on recent research Collecting Asian Art reveals neglected sources while reinterpreting well known ones

Deacon, 2024-09-19 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women's professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully

Veils, Nudity, and Tattoos Thorsten Botz-Bornstein, 2015-08-27 At first sight tattoos, nudity and veils do not seem to have much in common except for the fact that all three have become more frequent, more visible and more dominant in connection with aesthetic presentations of women over the past thirty years No longer restricted to biker and sailor culture tattoos have been sanctioned by the mainstream of liberal societies Nudity has become more visible than ever on European beaches or on the internet The increased use of the veil by women in Muslim and non Muslim countries has developed in parallel with the aforementioned phenomena and is just as striking Through the means of conceptual analysis Veils, Nudity and Tattoos The New Feminine Aesthetics reveals that these three phenomena can be both private and public humiliating and empowering and backward and progressive This unorthodox approach is traced by the three's similar social and psychological patterns and by doing so Veils, Nudity and Tattoos hopes to sketch the image of a woman who is not only sexually emancipated and confident but also more and more aware of her cultural heritage
