Developing Countries Jacques V. Dinavo,1995-03-21 This work concludes that privatization promotes economic development and democracy in developing countries Several governments have opted for privatization to maximize consumer choice to promote competition and to improve the quality and efficiency of goods and services Many governments in Asia Africa and Latin America are cautiously turning state owned enterprises over to the private sector because of the benefits coming with a free market economy and free enterprise spirit The case of Zaire shows the failure of state owned enterprises to meet national economic social and political goals The case of the Cameroon shows privatization at work in a developing country Public Management Reform in the Gulf Cooperation Council and Beyond Mhamed Biygautane,2023-05-16 This book offers an understanding of the current state of public management in the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC region highlighting the region s institutional and human capital constraints Drawing on case studies from GCC states and beyond the book provides a policy oriented analysis of these challenges and a set of recommendations on how to address them Public Management Reform in the Gulf Cooperation Council and Beyond utilizes several theoretical frameworks to explore three themes first how the quality of government and efficiency of its bureaucratic machinery can offer a business friendly environment for the private sector second how public private partnerships can foster stronger collaboration and exchange of knowledge and expertise between the public and private sectors and finally how the existing human capital constraints may be addressed through the effective implementation of talent management knowledge management and training programs A comparative approach is taken throughout the book contrasting the performance of GCC states with other Middle East and North Africa MENA countries or the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development OECD member countries in key governance public sector performance and business competitiveness indicators to identify what the GCC states need to do to enhance the quality of government and the capacity to deliver services more efficiently This book will appeal to academics practitioners policymakers and private sector consultants as well as those interested more broadly in the Middle
