Him With His Foot In His Mouth and Other Stories

Saul Bellow, 2016-04-18 Five of Saul Bellow's most moving richly textured and exquisitely plotted short stories make up this volume each providing a history of personality and self awakening The title story Him with His Foot in His Mouth follows a musicologist narrator who for years has scattered wounding witticisms from the depths of my nature that hoard of strange formulations As the story unfolds he tries to discover what led him into a deep legal financial hole while he awaits extradition from a refuge in British Columbia What Kind of Day Did You Have follows a divorced suburban woman and her lovers would be and actual through a frantic day in their lives Their needs and passions as well as their comic conflicts are matters of life and death In Zetland By a Character Witness and in A Silver Dish Bellow returns with his unequaled command of eloquent recollected detail to a bygone Chicago Zetland is a brilliant portrait of an artist as a young boy and a man precocious and eccentric A Silver Dish is a memorable story of a raffish willful father and his affectionate son Cousins the final story in the volume explores the mysteries of family feeling mysteries that defy both logic and the worthiness of their objects as Ijah Brodsky successful in the larger world is drawn into an encounter with criminal and naively idealistic forces This collection represents a turning point in the bountiful career of Saul Bellow a felicitous rendering of the human condition in all its absurd complexity
