Globalization Janice K. Currie, Janice Newson, 1998-08-18 In this volume the contributors consider globalization as combining a market ideology with a corresponding material set of practices drawn from the world of business. Issues of managerialism, privatization and accountability are central values in business and have become central for universities and their administrators as well. The selections in the book help to illustrate the editors' contentions that globalization presents clear disadvantages as well as benefits and that its effect on higher education is neither likely to be uniform nor the outcomes inevitable.

The Limits of Government Regulation James F. Gatti, 2013-10-22 market forces

Sacred Cows and Common Sense Tim Bale, 1999 Using Labour's postwar welfare policy it shows that we need to break down distinctions between the symbolic and the substantial in politics that cultural theory has potential as a way of understanding party political culture and that welfare policy has played a crucial but self-defeating role in Labour's efforts to manage itself, win hearts and minds and govern competently. It concludes by arguing that New Labour's attempts to rethink welfare is largely rhetorical if one recalls what Labour did in office rather than promised in opposition. Rather than a serious attempt to confront social realities the rethink represents a continuation of past practice and a way of signalling the government's soundness to the market.

The Gaucho Genre Josefina Ludmer, 2002-07-08 Explores the early genre in which the voice of the cowboy of the pampas was used in tales and poetry of various Latin American authors which shows the relationship of literature to the state.

Taking Out North Korea's Super Missile: (The Axis of Evil & West Coast 11/26) James Novak, A rogue Chinese missile field commander duped Axis of Evil member nations into a joint attack on the United States with a North Korean super missile. When the commander pressed the launch button a seven nation 60 megaton nuclear warhead was blasted into a flight path that was meant to end on California's fragile San Andreas Fault. Fortunately for the United States its Central Intelligence Agency learned of the pending missile attack and was able to respond with Operation Nonferrous, the only viable quick reaction plan it had available.

TAKING OUT NORTH KOREA'S SUPER MISSILE The Axis of Evil West Coast 11/26 describes in complete detail all of the events that occurred before and after the launch button was depressed at the Lop Nor China missile complex on November 26. It is must read material for anybody deeply concerned about rapidly unfolding spiraling out of control type of world events that can lead to nuclear war. It is must read material also for those in love, those who have lost loved ones esp an infant and for those special couples blessed with true conjugal love.
