The Dominion and the Rising Sun John D. Meehan, 2004 The Dominion and the Rising Sun is the first major study of Canada's diplomatic arrival in Japan and by extension East Asia It examines the political economic and cultural relations forged during this seminal period between the foremost power in Asia and the young dominion tentatively establishing itself in world affairs An overview of Canada's initial foray into Pacific affairs it begins with the opening in 1929 of the Canadian legation in Tokyo Canada's third such office overseas and concludes with the outbreak of hostilities in 1941 Primarily a diplomatic history the book also explores the impact of traders interest groups and missionaries on Canadian attitudes toward Japan during the interwar years More fundamentally it examines Canada's diplomatic coming of age closely revealing its important Pacific dimension a fact overlooked by historians until now as well as the disjunct between Canada's commitment to peace and its trade with an aggressor Meehan suggests that Canada's initially benign view of Japan its reluctance to adopt positions in advance of its Anglo American allies and its lucrative Pacific trade led to a credibility gap in its policies towards East Asia The Dominion and the Rising Sun charts Canada's relationship with Japan and is essential reading for those interested in Canadian history international relations and Asia Pacific studies

Challenge the Strong Wind David Webster, 2020-03-01 In 1975 Indonesian forces overran East Timor just days after it declared independence from Portugal Canadian officials knew the invasion was coming and endorsed Indonesian rule in the ensuing occupation Challenge the Strong Wind recounts the evolution of Canadian government policy toward East Timor from 1975 to its 1999 independence vote During this time Canadian civil society groups and NGOs worked in support of Timorese independence activists by promoting an alternative Canadian foreign policy that focused on self determination and human rights After following the lead of key pro Indonesian allies in the 1970s and 80s Ottawa eventually yielded to pressure from these NGOs and pushed like minded countries to join it in supporting Timorese self rule David Webster draws on previously untapped government and non government archival sources to demonstrate that a clear eyed view of international history must include both state and non state perspectives The East Timor conflict serves as a model of multilevel dialogue citizen diplomacy and novel approaches to resolving complex disputes
