

An aerial photograph of a wide, winding river in a dry, brown landscape. The river is a deep blue-grey color, contrasting with the surrounding arid terrain. The river meanders from the top right towards the bottom left, with several sharp turns. The landscape is cracked and textured, suggesting a lack of water.

Saving The Planet How To Shape An Environmentally Sustainable Global Economy:

Saving the Planet Lester Russell Brown, Christopher Flavin, Sandra Postel, 1991 Describes an environmental research team's plan for a global economy      Biosphere 2000 Donald G. Kaufman, Cecilia M. Franz, 2000      Environmental Regulation in Transforming Economies: The Case of Poland Piotr Jasinski, Helen Lawton-Smith, 2018-12-17 First published in 1999 the book is based on papers given at the final workshop of a research project into the evolution of environmental regulation in Poland undertaken as part of the UK's ERSC Global Environmental Change Programme Other invited papers focused on the development of regulatory policy in transforming economies and in the UK Furthermore the book highlights the weakness of internal political processes in Poland and the important role played by foreign sponsored pressures whilst examining the divergence between the way environmental charges are supposed to operate and the ways in which they are implemented and enforced Topics covered include the links between privatisation and the environment the saline water problem in Upper Silesia enforcement of and compliance with environmental charges air pollution in Krakow and the structure of the Polish environmental administration system      Leaders from the 1960s David De Leon, 1994-06-22 The throngs at Woodstock Jane Fonda in Hanoi I Have a Dream burning draft cards fire in the streets these images of the 1960s are still very much alive today What happened to the people and principles that dominated that decade Which leaders from those turbulent years had the most lasting effect on our lives today How well have the principles for which those leaders fought so strongly withstood the test of time This thought provoking biographical dictionary allows the reader to study the leaders both conservative and liberal their ideals and their enduring influence With major sections on racial democracy peace and freedom sexuality and gender the environment radical culture and visions of alternative societies Leaders from the 1960s includes entries on a wide selection of nationally prominent activists of the 1960s In addition to those who dominated only the sixties the volume includes earlier activists who came into prominence in the 1960s and activists of the era who came into prominence since the 1960s Each entry provides a biographical sketch but the focus of the entries is on the person's basic concepts or the essence of his or her work and the public response it generated Included are extensive bibliographies on the individuals and the period      John A Collected Essays 1 John S Avery, 2016-02-06 This book contains a collection of essays and articles by John Scales Avery discussing the severe problems and challenges which the world faces during the 21st century Human civilization and the biosphere are threatened by catastrophic climate change Unless rapid steps are taken to replace fossil fuels by 100% renewable energy we risk passing a tipping point beyond which uncontrollable feedback loops could produce a 6th extinction event comparable to those observed in the geological record Another serious threat to human civilization and the biosphere is the danger of a catastrophic thermonuclear war Over a long period of time there is an ever increasing risk that such a war will occur by accident or miscalculation Thirdly there is threat of an extremely serious and widespread famine produced by the climate change rapidly growing populations and the end of the fossil fuel era We must urgently address all three challenges

Ethics of Consumption David A. Crocker, Toby Linden, 2000-01-01 Scholars in diverse fields now agree on the importance of investigating the impact of consumption practices on the global environment quality of life and international justice In this comprehensive collection of essays most of which appear for the first time eminent scholars from many disciplines philosophy economics sociology political science demography theology history and social psychology examine the causes nature and consequences of present day consumption patterns in the United States and throughout the world Specifically the essays evaluate the impact of consumption practices on our own lives our institutions other people and the environment The contributors give explicit attention to the principles relevant for a consumption ethic as well as to the policies and practices that such an ethic permits or requires These engaging jargon free essays frame the problem of consumption in a variety of ways challenging readers to see the issue from new perspectives For scholars and students from across the disciplines as well as for environmental and consumer activists this volume will serve as the touchstone for discussions of consumption and global stewardship

Unsafety Shigeo Atsugi, 2016-11-15 This is the first book to examine the linkages among natural and organizational accidents and disasters in the modern era and clarifies the mechanisms involved and the significance of emerging problems from the aging of vital infrastructure for the supply of water gas oil and electricity to the breakdown of pensions healthcare and other social systems The book demonstrates how we might check the underlying civilizational collapse and then explore translational systems approaches toward resilient management and policy for sustainability In Unsafety the author focuses on the kinds of unnatural disasters and organizational accidents that arise as repercussions of natural hazards Japan serves as an example where earthquakes tsunamis and typhoons are common with the Fukushima nuclear disaster as an outstanding case of this link between natural disasters and organizational accidents Natural and human made disasters happen worldwide and cause misery through loss of life destruction of livelihoods as in agriculture fisheries and the manufacturing industry and interruption of urban life Unsafety from a disaster in one place increases uncertainty elsewhere presenting urgent issues in all nations for individuals organizations regions and the state The author explains that one factor in the Fukushima catastrophe which followed in the wake of the earthquake and tsunami in 2011 was the latent deterioration and aging of systems at all levels from the physical to the social leading through a chain reaction to unsought and unforeseen consequences Here the aging of the nuclear reactor system the breakdown of safety management and inappropriate instructions from the regulatory authorities combined to create the three fold disaster in which technological organizational and governmental dysfunction have been diagnosed as reflecting a systems pathology infecting all levels

Planning Sustainability Michael Kenny, James Meadowcroft, 2002-01-31 Environmental sustainability has become one of the most salient issues on the policy agenda of nation states This book argues that planning is seldom credited by advocates of environmental politics The authors leading scholars in the field explore the relationship between environmental sustainability one of the most important innovations in recent political discourse and planning an idea which has slipped from public attention recently Privileged Goods Jack P. Manno, 2019-05-30 What are the obstacles in the way of effectively solving the environmental crises of our time What can we do to overcome them These may be two of the most important questions heading into the 21st century Organized human societies have the ability to completely change the world While we have excelled at building destroying and rebuilding we have Living is Risky Felix M Berardo, 2006-07 It has been suggested that the best hope for achieving a longer and healthier life lies in voluntary efforts derived from personal choices This means that individual change must be directed toward the modification of lifestyles and the choices associated with them Every lifestyle is a complex of related attitudes habits and other behaviors that in essence constitute a death style Each death style in turn carries with it various degrees of risk taking Our survival potential both in terms of quality and longevity is significantly enhanced or diminished by certain attitudes and habits and their associated risks This dimension of survivor education is a central focus of this book While it largely concentrates on individual culpability the societal context is also emphasized Indeed threats to our welfare often come from institutional or corporate activities that are beyond our control

Industrial Pollution Prevention Thomas T. Shen, 2013-06-29 Pollution prevention is the current environmental strategy to minimize pollution problems It is a management strategy to establish a society oriented approach towards sustainable development This book is for those who are interested in and responsible for pollution prevention in governments academia industrial plants and consulting services The book will help readers in understanding the principles and practices of industrial pollution prevention It also provides readers with forms worksheets and checklists which will be useful in everyday practice and reading suggestions that support the pollution prevention effort Population, Consumption, and the Environment Harold Coward, 1995-11-16 This book concentrates on the different ways in which the major world religions view the problems of overpopulation and excess resource consumption and how they approach possible solutions After examining the natural background and the human context the book moves on to consider both religious and secular approaches It analyzes how a particular religion's scriptures comment on the nature of people the environment people's place in the environment and their roles and responsibilities The historical dimension is derived from reviewing a particular religion's record in teaching about these issues often demonstrating how broader issues are addressed Practical lessons are learned from religious guidelines that deal with current problems and offer solutions The authors consider Aboriginal spirituality Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism and Chinese religions The secular approaches include secular ethics North South relations market forces the status of women and international law Advanced Manufacturing Processes Hitesh Vasudev, Chander Prakash, Mohammad Khalid, Kavindra Kesari, 2025-01-31 The increasing demand for advanced manufacturing processes is making an impact on the Earth's resources and its industrial practices are producing negative impacts on the environment such as carbon footprints energy resources waste etc The trend of advanced manufacturing coincides with the acceleration of innovations in sustainable techniques Advanced Manufacturing Processes Integration of Sustainable Approaches focuses on sustainability materials the 6 Rs reuse recycle redesign remanufacture reduce and recover lifecycle engineering and life cycle assessment It discusses sustainability in manufacturing and the impact on plant performance while keeping in mind IR 4 0 and highlights issues related to materials recovery and a circular economy The book also presents the use of new sustainable materials in processes and their impact on the environment and plant performance Case studies are offered to enable the reader to get a comparison of the manufacturing processes based on individual sustainability All aspects related to the implementation and adoption of sustainable advanced manufacturing approaches are encapsulated in this book along with their applications which makes this a useful book for industry academic teaching research scholars and experts dealing with sustainability related issues

On the Edge of Scarcity Michael N. Dobkowski, Isidor Wallimann, 2002-02-01 Modernization and Industrialization have presented the human race with many problems inflicting deprivation poverty war and premature death on millions of people Until recently however solutions were achievable Drawn from the much acclaimed Coming Age of Scarcity and adapted here for general classroom use this work will be an ideal introduction to courses in population environment and resources genocide studies and social conflict As we enter the twenty first century several components converge namely population land for cultivation energy resources and environmental carrying capacity Michael N Dobkowski and Isidor Wallimann establish a realistic projection of the disastrous future that awaits humankind as surplus populations collide with dwindling resources Scholars from a variety of disciplines investigate the problems and suggest ways to maximize individual and collective survival discussing cause and effect scenarios concerning industrialization biophysical limits exponential population growth and genocide

Planning for Sustainability Stephen M. Wheeler, 2013-07-18 How can human communities sustain a long term existence on a small planet This challenge grows ever more urgent as the threat of global warming increases Planning for Sustainability presents a wide ranging intellectually well grounded and accessible introduction to the concept of planning for more sustainable and livable communities The text explores topics such as how more compact and walkable cities and towns might be created how local ecosystems can be restored how social inequalities might be reduced how greenhouse gas emissions might be lowered and how more sustainable forms of economic development can be brought about The second edition has been extensively revised and updated throughout including an improved structure with chapters now organized under three sections the nature of sustainable planning issues central to sustainable planning and scales of sustainable planning New material includes greater discussion of climate change urban food systems the relationships between public health and the urban environment and international development Building on past schools of planning theory Planning for Sustainability lays out a sustainability planning framework that pays special attention to the rapidly evolving institutions and power structures of a globalizing world By considering in turn each scale of planning international national regional municipal neighborhood and site and building the book illustrates how sustainability initiatives at different levels can interrelate Only by weaving together planning initiatives and institutions at different scales and by integrating efforts across disciplines can we move towards long term human and ecological well being      Social Work and Divinity Daniel Lee,Robert O'Gorman,Frederick L Ahearn Jr,2013-10-11 The milestone text integrating the disciplines of social work and divinity In everyday life spirituality and the practice of effective social work are inseparable As a result professionals and social service administrators have in recent years felt a stronger obligation to attend to the spiritual needs of clients Social Work and Divinity examines the potential of integrating the disciplines of social work with divinity to achieve positive results in practice while answering spiritual concerns Internationally respected scholars from diverse religious and ethnic backgrounds discuss the academic as well as the practical issues involved in the establishment and growth of dual degree programs Social Work and Divinity comprehensively explores both the theoretical and the practical foundations of joint professional education and practice for social work and divinity dual degree programs The book provides suggestions that will guide educators practitioners administrators and students to develop spiritually sensitive approaches to counseling people Emerging human needs are explored along with the challenges inherent in the multiple roles a counselor must adopt when developing an interdisciplinary approach Well reasoned insightful thoroughly referenced empirically reinforced with tables this is an essential text sure to become a choice educational reference Social Work and Divinity discusses the role of religion and spirituality in clinical social work the challenges for students integrating the curriculums of social work and divinity the collaboration to respond to the broader demands of emerging human needs the empirical evidence advocating the benefits of dual degree programs the challenges for educational institutions adopting dual degree programs in social work and divinity the formation of a professional identity in dual degree training and supervision the issues of teaching about organized religion in social work practical advice on integrating religion and social work the role of faith and spirituality in social work education Social Work and Divinity is a milestone textbook for graduate schools of social work and divinity and an essential resource for students and faculty involved in each discipline or in dual degree programs      Nature, Technology, and Society Victor Ferkiss,1994-11 Traces cultural attitudes toward the environment and technology across the span of human civilization While all human societies have enlisted technologies to control nature the last hundred years have witnessed the technological exploitation and destruction of natural resources on an unprecedented scale As environmental groups and the scientific community sound the alarm about deforestation global warming and ozone depletion the obvious question arises how did we get where we are today In Nature Technology and Society Victor Ferkiss sets out to answer this central question arguing that we cannot escape from our present environmental predicament unless we understand the ideas which have created it Ferkiss asks the basic questions concerning humans and their relationship to the environment He traces cultural attitudes towards the environment from early mankind to the present day This fascinating book is distinctive both in its comprehensiveness and in its attempt to place side by side influential thinkers and movements with varied views on these issues

Where on Earth Are We Going? Maurice Strong, 2010-11-05 A surprising call to action from a key business and environmental player at the dawn of the millenium From the Report to the Shareholders Earth Inc dated January 1 2030 that begins Where on Earth Are We Going world hunger ecological and environmental disaster global warming massive shifts in weather systems the re emergence of diseases long thought controlled and political turmoil in a world where a barrel of water is more expensive than a barrel of oil Hard headed practical impassioned this is a call to action by a key business and environmental leader at the end of the twentieth century that cannot be ignored To explain how he came by his beliefs Maurice Strong chronicles his poverty stricken beginnings as a child in the prairies during the Depression to his appointment as President of Power Corporation at 29 his appointment as Undersecretary of the United Nations at 40 and on the domestic front as Chairman of Ontario Hydro

Philosophical Perspectives on Power and Domination , 2021-09-20 The essays in this volume explore in detail many of the ways power structures our daily personal political and intellectual lives and evaluate the workings of power using a variety of theoretical paradigms from Hobbesian liberalism to Foucauldian feminist postmodernism Taken as a whole the book aims towards an end to unjust and destructive uses of power and the flowering of an encouraging educated empowerment for all human beings in a pluralistic world Section I offers a progressive chain of arguments that moves from the acceptance of domination through the rejection of domination and finally to a new vision of power based on equality and mutual respect Section II explores the questions how is the philosophical self that is our very understanding of who we are implicated in the web of power and domination Section III responds to political realism as it explores morally ideal solutions to the global problems of poverty war and hunger Section IV discusses ways in which our thought and practice in both public and private life are bound up in hierarchies of domination
