Savory Memories:

Savory Memories L. Elisabeth Beattie, 1998 Among the most pervasive of stereotypes imposed upon southern highlanders is that they were white opposed slavery and supported the Union before and during the Civil War but the historical record suggests far different realities John C Inscoe has spent much of his scholarly career exploring the social economic and political significance of slavery and slaveholding in the mountain South and the complex nature of the region s wartime loyalties and the brutal guerrilla warfare and home front traumas that stemmed from those divisions The essays here embrace both facts and fictions related to those issues often conveyed through intimate vignettes that focus on individuals families and communities keeping the human dimension at the forefront of his insights and analysis Drawing on the memories memoirs and other testimony of slaves and free blacks slaveholders and abolitionists guerrilla warriors invading armies and the highland civilians they encountered Inscoe considers this multiplicity of perspectives and what is revealed about highlanders dual and overlapping identities as both a part of and distinct from the South as a whole He devotes attention to how the truths derived from these contemporary voices were exploited distorted reshaped reinforced or ignored by later generations of novelists journalists filmmakers dramatists and even historians with differing agendas over the course of the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries His cast of characters includes John Henry Frederick Law Olmsted and John Brown Andrew Johnson and Zebulon Vance and those who later interpreted their stories John Fox and John Ehle Thomas Wolfe and Charles Frazier Emma Bell Miles and Harry Caudill Carter Woodson and W J Cash Horace Kephart and John C Campbell even William Faulkner and Flannery O Connor Their work and that of many others have contributed much to either our understanding or misunderstanding of nineteenth century Appalachia and its place in the American imagination

Lincoln's Life Donald Winkler,2001-10-01 The tumultuous experiences Abraham Lincoln had with the women in his life have long been known but here the stories have been brought together and filled out with newly discovered accounts in a fresh new way that shows their effect on Lincoln's personality, ambition and spirit. The death of his mother when he was nine years old gave him a feeling of abandonment. The discovery that his mother's ancestry and reputation were scandalous and that he may have been illegitimate. The unexpected death of his beloved sister Sarah. The untimely death of Ann Rutledge, probably the only woman with whom Lincoln shared a deep, wonderful love. His sudden and unexpected marriage to Mary Todd, a marriage that was Lincoln's greatest tragedy. Not overlooked are the positive impacts of women on Lincoln and he on them, especially his stepmother, the first person to treat him with respect. This in-depth book reveals the effect that women had on Abraham Lincoln's life and career.

Conversations with Kentucky Writers,1996

Bernardine's Shanghai Salon Susan Blumberg-Kason,2023-11-07 Bernardine Szold Fritz arrived in Shanghai in 1929 to marry her fourth husband. Only thirty-three years old, she found herself in a time and place like no other. Political intrigue and scandal lurked on every street corner. Art Deco cinemas showed the latest Hollywood flicks while dancehall owners and jazz musicians turned Shanghai into Asia's top nightlife destination. Yet from the night of their wedding, Bernardine's new husband did not live up to his promises. Instead of feeling sorry for herself or leaving Shanghai, Bernardine decided to make a place for herself. Like other Jewish women before her, she started a salon in her home, drawing famous names from the world of politics, the arts, and the intelligentsia. She introduced Emily Hahn, the charismatic opium-smoking writer for The New Yorker, to the flamboyant hotelier Sir Victor Sassoon and legendary poet Sinmay Zau. And when Hollywood stars Anna May Wong, Charlie Chaplin, and Claudette Colbert passed through Shanghai, Bernardine organized gatherings to introduce them to their Shanghai contemporaries. When Bernardine's salon could not accommodate all who wanted to attend, she founded the International Arts Theater to produce avant-garde plays, ballets, lectures, and visual arts exhibits, often pushing audiences beyond their comfort zones. As civil war brewed and World War II soon followed, Bernardine's devotion to the arts and the people of Shanghai brought joy to the city just before it would change forever.

Food and Everyday Life on Kentucky Family Farms, 1920-1950 John van Willigen, Anne van Willigen,2021-12-14 The foods Kentuckians love to eat today—biscuits and gravy, country ham and eggs, soup beans and cornbread, fried chicken and shucky beans, and fried apple pie and boiled custard—all were staples on the Kentucky family farms in the early twentieth century. Each of these dishes has evolved as part of the farming lifestyle of a particular time and place utilizing available ingredients and complementing busy daily schedules Though the way of life associated with these farms in the first half of the twentieth century has mostly disappeared the foodways have become a key part of Kentucky s cultural identity In Food and Everyday Life on Kentucky Family Farms 1920 1950 John van Willigen and Anne van Willigen examine the foodways the practices knowledge and traditions found in a community regarding the planting preparation consumption and preservation of Kentucky family farms in the first half of the last century This was an era marked by significant changes in the farming industry and un rural communities including the introduction of the New Deal market quota system the creation of the University of Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service the expansion of basic infrastructures into rural areas the increased availability of new technologies and the massive migration from rural to urban areas The result was a revolutionary change from family based subsistence farming to market based agricultural production which altered not only farmers relationships to food in Kentucky but the social relations within the state s rural communities Based on interviews conducted by the University of Kentucky s Family Farm Project and supplemented by archival research photographs and recipes Food and Everyday Life on Kentucky Family Farms 1920 1950 recalls a vanishing way of life in rural Kentucky By documenting the lives and experiences of Kentucky farmers the book ensures that traditional folk and foodways in Kentucky s most important industry will be remembered The George Gershwin Reader Robert Wyatt, John Andrew Johnson, 2007 A collection of articles biographical reminiscences reviews musical analyses and letters relating to the life and music of George Gershwin Dare to Live Passionately Joe D. Ng, 2017-11-21. Hi, I'm Xian Wen, and to whoever's reading this right now, we have probably not met. In fact, it is precisely the beauty of being able to reach out to you with this humble little nugget of a book, whoever and wherever you are, that got me lured into the whole business of writing. This book is close to my heart for it conveys my many intimate thoughts. To me, every memory and every idea is worth sharing beyond ourselves as they only live on and flourish when expressed and exchanged. I hope this book offers a light-hearted stopover to all my readers, a safe place to imagine and wonder away from the everyday stresses of life. If it could leave you a happier person than you found it, then that to me would be a wish fulfilled.

The Best of Two Lives Doris R. Ayyoub, 2016-09-12. The Best of Two Lives is a love story as well as family history. It is shaped as a journey beginning with the cultural foundations of Jordan and the United States. Weaving threads of family stories, Doris introduces us to compelling characters and describes ways of life that might be forgotten if not for projects such as this. Ibrahim's early years are detailed as he lived in a mixed Muslim-Christian community in Jordan, and Doris tells of growing up as a small-town conservative Christian in Oregon. One of the fundamental messages is that despite superficial differences at the root, Arab lives and concerns in the Middle East are relatable just as those of Americans in the United States. Doris never shrinks from showing negative attributes that she couldn't be blamed for wanting to hide, and that differentiates her book from a purely family history. There's something here to help us see our own families more clearly and honestly and to understand them with compassion.
