Leadership, Institutions and Enforcement Slobodan Tomić,2019-03-08 This book presents an analysis of five anticorruption agencies ACAs from Serbia Macedonia and Croatia exploring the impact of organisational factors and leadership on their enforcement patterns during the first decade of the transitional reforms 2001 2012 Contrary to the conventional theory of agency insulation the analysis reveals that the ACAs de facto autonomy was not crucially shaped by their statutory independence but rather by the reputational management of their leaders The book draws on a mixture of qualitative and quantitative analysis to document these reputational strategies and how they shaped the ACAs de facto autonomy The findings also suggest that that the ACAs organisational model defined by the delegated mandate and powers preventative vs suppressive represented a key variable that mediated under which conditions high de facto autonomy can be achieved The book offers contributions to the study of anticorruption policy and ethics regulation as well as the wider inquiry into drivers of agency independence particularly in transitional contexts Turnaround Leadership for Higher
