Schwarzer Tee Mit Drei Stueck Zucker:

Schwarzer Tee mit drei Stück Zucker Renan Demirkan, 1991 Eine junge Türkin die hochschwanger in einem deutschen Krankenhaus liegt erinnert sich an ihre frühe Kindheit in Anatolien und an ihre Jugend in Westdeutschland Postmoderne Literatur in deutscher Sprache, 2016-08-22 Der Band enthält 15 Artikel zur Frage nach postmodernen Schreibweisen in der deutschsprachigen Literatur Anders als viele eher theoretisierende Beiträge auf diesem Gebiet besteht die Mehrzahl der hier versammelten Aufsätze aus konkreten Textanalysen Es gibt Beiträge zur bundesdeutschen Literatur aus den letzten vier Jahrzehnten zur Literatur der DDR der Schweiz und in Österreich zu feministischer und interkultureller Literatur Die Leitfrage ist fast allen Beiträgen lautet Gibt es ein postmodernes Schreiben das ein kritisches politisches und ethisches Engagement nicht ausschließt und das an Vorstellungen von subjektiver Authentizität festhält The Health Humanities in German Studies Stephanie M. Hilger, 2024-05-16 The first full length study to bring together the fields of Health Humanities and German studies this book features contributions from a range of key scholars and provides an overview of the latest work being done at the intersection of these two disciplines In addition to surveying the current critical terrain in unparalleled depth it also explores future directions that these fields may take Organized around seven sections representing key areas of focus for both disciplines this book provides important new insights into the intersections between Health Humanities German Studies and other fields of inquiry that have been gaining prominence over the past decade in academic and public discourse In their contributions the authors engage with disability studies critical race studies gender embodiment studies trauma studies as well as animal environmental studies Heimat - A German Dream Elizabeth Boa, Rachel Palfreyman, 2000-09-21 The discourse of Heimat meaning homeland or roots has been a medium of debate on German identity between region and nation for at least a century Four phases parallel Germany's discontinuous history Heimat literature as a response to modernization and to regional tensions before the First World War the inter war period when Heimat divided into racist ideology left wing opposition and inner resistance to the Third Reich a post war dialectic between escapist 1950s Heimat films and right wing claims to the lost lands in the East to which anti Heimat theatre and films in the 1960s and 1970s were a response with the urban Heimat in GDR films adding a socialist twist regionalism and green politics in the 1980s and German identity beyond Cold War divisions A key point of reference in current debates on German history Heimat looks likely to continue in postmodern and multicultural mode Rewriting Germany from the Margins Petra Fachinger, 2001 The margins in Petra Fachinger's work are occupied largely by second generation migrant writers from Spain Italy and Turkey German Jewish writers of diverse ethnic origins and writers born in the GDR She demonstrates that during the 1980s and 1990s writers from various cultural backgrounds engaged in oppositional discourse to construct their own version of Germany and write back to the German canon While most studies of texts by minority writers in Germany favour content over form Fachinger focuses on identifying counter discursive strategies and applies postcolonial theory concerned with textual resistance to the German situation In doing so this study effectively relates marginal writing in Germany to similar forms of writing in other national and cultural contexts The oppositional impulse whether manifested in counter canonical discourse postcolonial picaresque hybridity rewriting of genre or grotesque realism is prompted by the exclusionary politics of the dominant culture The discursive strategies used by the authors discussed to rewrite Germany expose the assumptions that underlie German public discourse and destabilise notions of Germanness Jewishness and Turkishness Fachinger s reading of texts by marginal writers in Germany all of whom endeavour to resist marginalisation while simultaneously experiencing or even celebrating the margin as a site of empowerment was motivated by the absence of comparative studies of such writing Rewriting Germany from the Margins demonstrates the necessity and usefulness of comparative approaches to minority discourses across national and cultural borders
