Sense Of Art:

The Sense of Art Ralph A. Smith, 2014-10-29 Ralph A Smith provides a theory of aesthetic education that addresses the need to revitalize the capacity for genuine judgment in society reaffirm the ideal of excellence in culture and reorder our thoughts about teaching the arts in schools The book presents an image of the curriculum as itinerary preparing the young to traverse the world of art with adroitness and sensitivity Making Sense of Art Sandra R. Davalos, 1999 Visual arts activities for children with developmental disorders grouped under each of the five senses into expressive and craft activities

Beauty and the End of Art Sonia Sedivy, 2016-04-21 Beauty and the End of Art shows how a resurgence of interest in beauty and a sense of ending in Western art are challenging us to rethink art beauty and their relationship By arguing that Wittgenstein's later work and contemporary theory of perception offer just what we need for a unified approach to art and beauty Sonia Sedivy provides new answers to these contemporary challenges These new accounts also provide support for the Wittgensteinian realism and theory of perception that make them possible Wittgenstein's subtle form of realism explains artworks in terms of norm governed practices that have their own varied constitutive norms and values Wittgensteinian realism also suggests that diverse beauties become available and compelling in different cultural eras and bring a shared higher order value into view With this framework in place Sedivy argues that perception is a form of engagement with the world that draws on our conceptual capacities This approach explains how perceptual experience and the perceptible presence of the world are of value helping to account for the diversity of beauties that are available in different historical contexts and why the many faces of beauty allow us to experience the value of the world's perceptible presence Carefully examining contemporary debates about art aesthetics and perception Beauty and the End of Art presents an original approach Insights from such diverse thinkers as Immanuel Kant Hans Georg Gadamer and Arthur Danto Alexander Nehamas Elaine Scarry and Dave Hickey are woven together to reveal how they make good sense if we bring contemporary theory of perception and Wittgensteinian realism into the conversation Essentials of Art Therapy Education and Practice Bruce L. Moon, 2003 This expanded new edition reflects the author's efforts to explore the crucial components of the education of the creative arts therapist The text reflects significant developments in the profession of art therapy important modifications in the educational standards of the American Art Therapy Association and profound changes in health care The book is an expression of the author's belief that the most essential element of art therapy is art as the core of the profession It is art making that undergirds the profession and is also the key element that art therapists bring to the client therapist and educator student relationships Central too to the author's approach is the manner in which mentor and beginning art therapist come together in their efforts to learn and grow The concern for authentic engagement in the training relationship enhances the beginner's ability to use the self to help clients learn to use art and artistic expression to identify and integrate new insights in their lives Topics presented include The Image Making Art Beginner's Chaos Journey Metaphor in Education
