Dudziak, 2003-10-28 Table of contents A New Social Contract in a Latin American Education Context D. Streck, 2010-12-20 A New Social Contract in a Latin American Education Context is committed to what has become known as perspective of the South understanding the South not as a geographical reference but as a vindication of the existence of ways of knowing and of living which struggle for their survival and for a legitimate place in a world where the respect for difference is balanced with the right for equality The metaphor of the new social contract stands for the desire to envision another world which paradoxically cannot but spring out of the entrails of the existing one Could the same contract under which the colonial orders were erected serve as a tool for decolonizing relations knowledge and power Consequently what kind of education could effectively help structure a new social contract These are some of the questions Streck addresses

Sacrifice and Modern War Writing Alex Houen, 2024-09-05 Sacrifice and Modern War Writing presents the most extensive study to date of twentieth and twenty-first century war writing Examining works by over 110 authors Alex Houen surveys how war writing explores sacrifice in relation to major modern and contemporary conflicts from the First World War to the War on Terror Various conceptions of sacrifice are examined including Christian Jewish Islamic and secular The discussion ranges across literary portrayals of multiple sacrificial practices including ancient rituals of child sacrifice martyrdom scapegoating and suicide bombing Houen builds an innovative interdisciplinary approach to how war sacrifice and their representations interrelate and a wide range of Anglophone literature is discussed including novels memoirs short stories essays manifestoes elegies ballads and lyric poetry Whereas critics and theorists have tended to emphasize that war's reality exceeds any attempt to represent it Houen contends that political religious and cultural frames of sacrifice have continued to play a significant part in shaping how war's reality is shaped and experienced Those frames are inextricably tied to modes of representation which include symbolism and mimesis Sacrifice and Modern War Writing explores how sacrificial killing in war is itself riddled with symbolic transfigurations and mimetic exchanges and it builds a fresh approach by arguing that the figurative and imaginative aspects of literary writing ironically become its very means of engaging closely with the reality of war's sacrifices That approach also develops by using the literary analyses to critique and revise various prominent theories of sacrifice and war

The Faces of Terrorism Neil J. Smelser, 2010-10-24 Terrorism is the most clear and present danger we confront today yet no phenomenon is more poorly understood by policymakers the media and the general public The Faces of Terrorism is the first serious interdisciplinary examination of terrorism in all its facets What gives rise to it who are its proponents and how do they think and how and why does it work Neil Smelser begins by tackling the fundamental problem of defining what exactly terrorism is He shows why a precise definition has eluded us until now and he proposes one that takes into account the full complexities of this unconventional and politically charged brand of violence He explores the root causes and conditions of terrorism and examines the ideologies that inspire and fuel it throughout the world Smelser looks closely at the terrorists themselves their recruitment their motivations the groups they form their intended audiences and their uses of the media in pursuing their agendas He studies the target societies as well unraveling the complicated social and psychological impacts of having to cope with the ever-present threat of a terrorist strike and responding when one occurs He explains what it means to live under constant threat of terrorism and addresses the thorny domestic and foreign policy challenges this poses Throughout Smelser draws from the latest findings in sociology political science anthropology economics psychology psychiatry and history The Faces of Terrorism provides the breadth of scope necessary to understand and ultimately eliminate this most pressing global threat The Story of What Is Broken Is Whole Aurora Levins Morales, 2024-10-04 The Story of What Is Broken Is Whole collects for the first time fifty years of writing by Puerto Rican Jewish feminist and radical thinker Aurora Levins Morales Combining well known excerpts from her books with out of print and harder to find ephemeral works and unpublished pieces this collection weaves together stories of bodies ecologies Indigeneity illness travel sexuality and more As Levins Morales reflects on her use of storytelling as a tool for change she gathers the threads of lives and places sacrificed to greed and extraction while centering care for our individual bodyminds and those of our kin communities and movements This comprehensive and essential collection provides an unprecedented window into the breadth and depth of the work of one of the most significant thinkers of our time

Imperial Overstretch Roger Burbach, Jim Tarbell, 2013-07-04 George W Bush has fundamentally changed America's place in the world In some neo conservative circles the word empire is back in fashion and a great republic that broke away from the British empire is now supposed to be proud of its new imperial role This book explains how the neo conservatives and the petro military complex have hijacked US foreign policy It examines the price that Americans will have to pay for this new era of unlimited US military might a never ending fear of terrorism mushrooming defence and security spending the erosion of civil liberties at home and the deaths abroad of tens of thousands of civilians and military combatants At the heart of this disturbing and timely book is the ultimate question Previous empires have foundered on the rock of imperial overstretch the costs of trying to run and protect empires eventually outstripping the capacity and willingness of the citizenry to pay for them Is the US in danger of going down that road Who around George Dubya Bush is pushing him along that path Youthsapes Sunaina Maira, Elisabeth Soep, 2013-07-20 Young people it seems are both everywhere and nowhere The media are crowded with images of youth as deviant or fashionable personifying a society's anxieties and hopes about its own transformation However theories of globalization nationalism and citizenship tend to focus on adult actors Youthsapes sets youth at the heart of globalization by exploring the meanings young people have created for themselves through their engagements with popular cultures national ideologies and global markets The term youthscape places local youth practices within the context of ongoing shifts in national and global forces Using this framework the book revitalizes discussions about youth cultures and social movements while simultaneously reflecting on the uses of youth as an academic and political category Tracing young people's movements across physical and imagined spaces the authors examine various cases of young people as they participate in social relations use and invent technology earn spend need and despise money comprise target markets while producing their own original media and create their own understandings of citizenship The essays examine young Thai women working in the transnational beauty industry former child soldiers in Sierra Leone Latino youth using graphic art in political organizing a Sri Lankan refugee's fan relationship with Jackie Chan and Somali high school students in the United States and Canada Drawing on methodologies and frameworks from multiple fields such as anthropology sociology and film studies the volume is useful to those studying and teaching issues of youth culture popular culture globalization social movements education and media By focusing on the intersection between globalization studies and youth culture the authors offer a vital contribution to the development of a new interdisciplinary approach to youth culture studies     Alternative

Richardson, 2010-11-05 Muslims have featured in many of the more significant news stories of the past few years yet shockingly very few of these stories have been about anything other than the war on terror This urgently relevant book examines the role and representations of Muslims in the news media particularly within a climate of threat fear and misunderstanding Written by both academic authorities and media practitioners Muslims and the News Media is designed as a comprehensive and critical textbook and is set in both the British and international context Bringing together a range of insightful perspectives on the subject into a coherent whole the book clearly establishes the links between context content production and audiences thus reflecting the entire cycle of the communication process It reveals both the ways in which meaning is produced and reproduced in the news media and the ways in which audiences themselves both Muslim and non Muslim use or consume this media Significant too and discussed here is the role of Muslims themselves in the processes of news production Clarifying the circumstances and politics surrounding the representation of Muslims across a range of journalistic genres Muslims and the News Media provides crucial insights into the representation and misrepresentation of Islam and Muslims today
