Maltby,1987 Walter Camp Julie Des Jardins,2015-09-08 Americans are obsessed with football yet they know little about the man who shaped the game to make it uniquely technical physical and man making at once Walter Camp the Father of American Football was the foremost authority on American athletics and arguably the greatest amateur American athlete of his time In Walter Camp Football and the Modern Man Julie Des Jardins chronicles the life of the clock company executive and self made athlete who remade football and redefined the ideal man As a student at Yale University Camp was a varsity letterman who led the earliest efforts to codify the rules and organization of football including the line of scrimmage and downs to make it distinct from English rugby He also invented the All America Football Team and wrote some of the first football fiction guides and sports page coverage making him the foremost popularizer of the game Within a decade American football was an obsession on college campuses of the Northeast By the turn of the century it was a bona fide national pastime Since the Civil War college men of good breeding had not a physical skirmish to harden them They had grown soft Americans feared both in body and attitude Camp saw football as the antidote to the degeneration of these young men When massive numbers of college football players enlisted to fight in World War I Camp held them up as proof that football turned men effective and courageous His influence over the game however was not always viewed as beneficial Under his watch dozens of college and high school players were killed or maimed on the gridiron President Theodore Roosevelt urged him to reform football to prevent administrators from banning it but Camp was ambivalent about removing the very physicality that made the game man making in his eyes The criticism targeted at him over the aggressiveness of football still haunts the game today In this fast paced biography Julie Des Jardins shows how the gentleman athlete was as much the arbiter of football as he was the arbiter of modern manhood Though eventually football took on meanings that Camp never intended his impact on the professional and college game is simply unsurpassed The African American Woman Golfer M. Mikell Johnson,2007-12-30 The African American Woman Golfer Her Legacy gives a brief historical overview of African American women in golf and examines the sport to uncover all African American women who have been involved in golf over the past 75 years M Mikell Johnson shows how these women who were seemingly far removed from the white male privileged world of the country club broke both color and gender barriers to become golfers This book traces the history of how African American women got involved in golf Title VI and Title IX alleviated some of the racial and financial burdens for some young women in high school and college athletics allowing them to participate in all sports regardless of race creed or gender Women s clubs also provided a stable foundation for female athletes in male dominated sports The misinformation social apathy financial encumbrances and finally the role of the media in both promoting and preventing black women s opportunities in golf are discussed The African American Woman Golfer Her Legacy identifies over 300 women and their lives in golf The author also profiles prominent golfers such as Althea Gibson who crossed the LPGA color line Helen Webb Harris who created the first club for black women golfers and Ann Gregory who broke the USGA whites only clause in women s golf Notable Native Americans Sharon Malinowski,George H. J. Abrams,1995 Offers biographical information on over two hundred fifty notable Native Americans in fields such as politics law journalism science medicine art literature athletics education and entertainment Native American Son Kate Buford,2010-10-26 The first comprehensive biography of the legendary figure who defined excellence in American sports Jim Thorpe arguably the greatest all around athlete the United States has ever seen With clarity and a fine eye for detail Kate Buford traces the pivotal moments of Thorpe s incomparable career growing up in the tumultuous Indian Territory of Oklahoma leading the Carlisle Indian Industrial School football team coached by the renowned Pop Warner to victories against the country s finest college teams winning gold medals in the 1912 Olympics pentathlon and decathlon defining the burgeoning sport of professional football and helping to create what would become the National Football League and playing long often successful and previously unexamined years in professional baseball But at the same time Buford vividly depicts the difficulties Thorpe faced as a Native American and a Native American celebrity at that early in the twentieth century We also see the infamous loss of his Olympic medals stripped from him because he had previously played professional baseball an event that would haunt Thorpe for the rest of his life We see his struggles with alcoholism and personal misfortune losing his first child and moving from one failed marriage to the next coming to distrust many of the hands extended to him Finally we learn the details of his vigorous advocacy for Native American rights while he chased a Hollywood career and the truth behind the supposed reinstatement of his Olympic record in 1982 Here is the story long overdue and brilliantly told of a complex iconoclastic profoundly talented man whose life encompassed both tragic limitations and truly extraordinary achievements The Olympics at the Millennium Kay Schaffer,Sidonie Smith,2000 Exploring the cultural politics of the Olympic Games these essays investigate such topics as the emergence of women athletes as cultural commodities the orchestrated spectacles of the opening and closing ceremonies and the Gay Games Unforgettable events and decisions are also discussed Black Firsts Jessie Carney Smith,2012-12-01 Achievement engenders pride and the most significant accomplishments involving people places and events in black history are gathered in Black Firsts 4 000 Ground Breaking and Pioneering Events America, History and Life ,1982 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Howard Hawks Howard Hawks,2006 Interviews with the director of Scarface Only Angels Have Wings His Girl Friday Sergeant York Bringing Up Baby The Big Sleep Red River Gentlemen Prefer Blondes and Rio Bravo Black Enterprise ,1994-09 BLACK
