Pathways Of Change In Africa:

Pathways of Change in Africa Ian Scoones, 2002 In the literature of sustainable development many have argued for the encouragement of mixed farming involving the integration of livestock and crops on one farm to meet the needs of small scale African farming systems Scoones and Wolmer both with the Environment Group at the Institute of Development Studies U of Sussex argue that behind this argument is the implicit or explicit assumption that mixed farming represents a stage in a normative evolutionary process towards an ideal They suggest that this view is mistaken and that mixed farming is only one of a range of possible pathways of change in agricultural systems They present case studies from Ethiopia Mali and Zimbabwe and analyze how social actors have varying access to resources This variance is often due to institutional arrangements that are too often ignored in discussions of mixed farming and therefore fail to take into account situations that could help development efforts to be more effectively targeted Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Biological Invasions in South Africa Brian W. van Wilgen,John Measey,David M. Richardson,John R. Wilson,Tsungai A. Zengeya,2020-03-10 This open access volume presents a comprehensive account of all aspects of biological invasions in South Africa where research has been conducted over more than three decades and where bold initiatives have been implemented in attempts to control invasions and to reduce their ecological economic and social effects It covers a broad range of themes including history policy development and implementation the status of invasions of animals and plants in terrestrial marine and freshwater environments the development of a robust ecological theory around biological invasions the effectiveness of management interventions and scenarios for the future The South African situation stands out because of the remarkable diversity of the country and the wide range of problems encountered in its varied ecosystems which has resulted in a disproportionate investment into both research and management The South African experience holds many lessons for other parts of the world and this book should be of immense value to researchers students managers and policy makers who deal with biological invasions and ecosystem management and conservation in most other regions

Livestock: A Pathway out of Poverty , The Palgrave Handbook of Democracy, Governance and Justice in Africa
Aderomola Adeola, Makau W. Mutua, 2022-10-03 There is an emerging consensus that what is projected as democratic governance and justice in Africa requires a re calibration in particular in relation to the constitutive demos human rights the realisation of commitments at various governance levels and the convergence between these ideations The post colonial narrative on democracy has unveiled some crevices in rule of law political equality political participation political culture and freedom of the press Aside from the fact that these notions are threatened by some existing institutional structures these notions are increasingly being negotiated across political spaces Evident in the prevalent narrative is an imperative for Africa to assert its place on the global scene of democratic governance and justice However if this will be accomplished it is important to understand some of the issues that need to be worked through in this transition 2019 Annual trends and outlook report: Gender equality in rural Africa: From commitments to outcomes Agnes Quisumbing, Ruth Suseela Meinzen-Dick, Jemimah Njuki, 2019-10-31 Gender sensitive policy and programming have an integral role to play in fostering inclusive agricultural growth to meet the commitments of African countries to the Malabo Declaration goals The 2019 Annual Trends and Outlook Report from ReSAKSS applies a gender lens to key issues that must be addressed to fully achieve these goals Chapters examine the intersections between gender and 1 the context and institutions within which rural people operate 2 the natural resources that men and women depend on for agriculture sources of vulnerability and resilience to shocks 3 assets and income and 4 livelihood strategies and well being The report serves as the official M E report for the Comprehensive Africa Agriculture Development Programme CAADP tracking progress on over 30 CAADP indicators

Liber Amicorum Marius Paul Olivier, Letlhokwa George Mpedi, Evance Kalula, 2020-12-10 Though some may categorise this work as a memorial publication this book of friends is truly a celebratory publication by colleagues from Africa and beyond who had the privilege to know Edwell and Mathias personally It is a tribute to the life and work of two individuals that each made a unique contribution to social justice law and its development As evidenced by the Tributes and Lists of Publications contained herein both Edwell and Nyenti as they were colloquially known were productive scholars but they leave a legacy that extends beyond the academic realm to that of friendship and shared humanity

Livestock, a pathway out of poverty: ILRI's strategy to 2010 , Institutional Arrangements for Conservation, Development and Tourism in Eastern and Southern Africa René van der Duim, Machiel Lamers, Jakomijn van Wijk, 2014-11-16 This book presents an overview of different institutional arrangements for tourism biodiversity conservation and rural poverty reduction in eastern and southern Africa These approaches range from conservancies in Namibia community based organizations in Botswana conservation enterprises in Kenya private game reserves in South Africa to sport hunting in Uganda and transfrontier conservation areas The book presents a comparative analysis of these arrangements and highlights that most arrangements emerged in the 1990s through either a decentralized or centralized change trajectory that was sponsored by donors They aim to address some of the challenges of the fortress types of conservation by combining principles of community based natural resource management with a neoliberal approach to conservation evident in the use of tourism as the main mechanism for accruing benefits from wildlife The book illustrates the empirical relevance of these novel arrangements by presenting their growth in numbers and discuss how these arrangements differ in their form With respect to the conservation and development impacts of these arrangements we show that they have secured large amounts of land for conservation but also generated governance challenges and disputes on tourism benefit sharing affecting the stability of these arrangements to generate socioeconomic and conservation benefits

African Economic Development Emmanuel Nnadozie, Afeikhena Jerome, 2019-05-08 In a sweeping survey of African economies leading scholars offer the latest research into the biggest current influences on African growth and development taking account of relevant institutional contexts as well as significant or unique problems that have slowed Africa's progress

Culture, Entertainment and Health Promotion in Africa Kimani Njogu, 2005 This book brings together multiple voices and positions from Africa These voices assembled during a 2003 Soap Summit held in Nairobi are powerful and varied and suggest ways in which issues of health could be tackled in an entertaining manner The summit organised by Population Communications International Africa highlighted the critical role that the arts can play in ensuring better health especially among the youth It resulted from the recognition that young people in Africa are faced with a myriad of problems and complications as they struggle to deal with growth and identity formation within a globalising social and economic setup They are in dire need of information on their own sexuality and how to deal with it and are getting conflicting signals from the mass media as well as their immediate environment The youth are under intense pressure from their peers to engage in premarital sex which is in most cases unprotected The HIV AIDS epidemic presents frightening challenges and all health programs should look for ways of dealing with it Of great concern is the vulnerability of women and girls in Africa due to rising poverty gender violence lack of access to youth friendly reproductive health facilities and lack of a conducive infrastructure especially in informal settlements and in the rural areas The myriad problems presented by the pandemic require a multi sectoral approach This book brings together a number of strategies being undertaken in Africa that combine entertainment and education in a positive way The voices from the Soap Summit are interspersed with those of the Editor to create a dialogue on entertainment education that contributes to the discussion on the way social change might be undertaken

Medical Geology of Africa Theophilus Clavell Davies, 2024-06-14 Medical Geology of Africa explores the connection between geological materials processes and the health of humans and animals The book fosters an improved understanding of the ways in which the geological environment impacts the geographical distribution of health problems and how they contribute to better diagnoses and therapy Africa s unique geoenvironmental condition gives added relevance to such studies underlining the need for geoscience and public health students and practitioners to understand new principles and applications Chapters in the book provide extended enquiry based investigations and examples that employ real geochemical datasets epidemiological records public health statistics and visualizations Provides a summary of current research on Medical Geology of Africa Identifies gaps in knowledge of the role of the geo environment in deciphering unknown aetiologies Assembles the most recent literature on current thematic issues and prescribes directions of future research
