Give Me Liberty Martin Harry Greenberg, Mark Tier, 2003-01-01 WHEN IN THE COURSE OF FUTURE EVENTS Liberty is a recurring theme in science fiction Here's a volume of explorations of this theme some even arguing that freedom can be best served by doing away with government entirely As Thomas Jefferson wrote Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty And in the future eternal vigilance against our own government will be even more important than vigilance against hostile outsiders A stellar roster of science fiction writers consider how a government free society could operate how the Soviet Union might have fallen apart even earlier because of an apparently harmless device how a low tech society might throw off the influence of more advanced intruders how the right to own weapons is fundamental to freedom and much more In the future liberty may be even more threatened than in our present and this volume suggests very unusual ways of defending it At the publisher's request this title is sold without DRM Digital Rights Management Praise for Martin Harry Greenberg Greenberg's choices are impeccable Booklist Provocative and well planned Kirkus Reviews Sheer enjoyability A fine mix of stories provokes everything from meditation to laughter Library Journal GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME

kind of society you want to live in depends upon what you politically believe Each political party has embraced a Worldview of how society should be structured and how people should interact Each party is striving to create a world structured by their Worldview The goal of politics is to place individuals in positions of control over society who will create or preserve that structure That is the same goal as war to place people in charge of society who will create a structure for society that will result in the establishment of the kind of society the victors want to live in For some people how they live is worth fighting for For many how they live is worth dying for Politics is war You are the foot soldier So what do you believe The Political Primer will help you to determine what it is you politically believe and which Worldview you already embrace You will soon realize politics is not about what other people think or what other people believe Politics is about what you think and what you believe Here are three of the facts that politicians and elected officials do not want you to know 1 Politics is not complicated 2 Only four basic political philosophies exist 3 Politics is entirely about you Fundamental political concepts introduced in Part One are used to develop four political philosophies There are only four Part Two uses both trivial and controversial issues to illustrate the application of the political concepts of Part One Part Three will illustrate the power of the political concepts presented and will further clarify how politics is utilized to change the structure of society The Epilog is both a commentary and a test The test is not to determine whether you agree or disagree with the Author s commentary The test is to determine for yourself whether you now understand why you agree or disagree The Political Primer will have accomplished its goal if you know why You will have become politically astute There are four possible future worlds Which one do you want to build
