Patterns Of Modernity Beyond The West:

Patterns of Modernity: Beyond the West Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 1987      Patterns of Western Modernity: Beyond the West Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 1987      Patterns of Modernity: Beyond the West Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 1987      Liberal World Order and Its Critics Adrian Pabst, 2018-12-07 Liberals blame the retreat of the liberal world order on populists at home and authoritarian leaders abroad Only liberalism so they claim can defend the rules based international system against demagoguery corruption and nationalism This provocative book contends that the liberal world order is illiberal and undemocratic intolerant about the cultural values of ordinary people in the West and elsewhere while concentrating power in the hands of unaccountable Western elites and Western dominated institutions Under the influence of contemporary liberalism the international system is fuelling economic injustice social fragmentation and a worldwide culture war between globalists and nativists Liberals far from defending rules have broken international law and imposed their version of market fundamentalism and democracy promotion by military means Liberal civilisation has fuelled resentment across the world by imposing a narrow worldview that pits cultures against one another To avoid a descent into a violent culture clash this book proposes radical ideas for international order that take the form of cultural commonwealths social bonds and crossborder cultural ties on which international trust and cooperation depends The book s defence of an older order against both liberals and nationalists will speak to all readers trying to understand our age of anger This book will be of key interest to scholars students and readers of liberalism political theory and democracy and more broadly to comparative politics and international relations      New Methodological Perspectives in Islamic Studies , 2023-05-25 This volume draws attention to and moves beyond the traditional methodological frames that have governed knowledge production in the academic study of Islam Departing from Orientalist and largely textual studies the chapters collected herein revolve around three main themes gender the political and what has come to be known as lived Islam The first involves ascertaining how to read gender and gender issues into traditional sources The second encourages an attunement to the often delicate intersection between the spheres of religion and politics The final provides a corrective to our traditional over emphasis on the interpretation of texts and a preoccupation with studying mainly male elites Taken as a whole this volume encourages a multi methodological approach to the study of Islam Contributors include Abbas Aghdassi Aaron W Hughes Eva Kepplinger Taira Amin Bet l Avc Ali Abedi Renani and Seyyed Ebrahim Sarparast Sadat Meral Durmu and Bahattin Ak it Walid Ghali Isabella Crespi and Martina Crescenti Brian Arly Jacobsen Pernille Friis Jensen Kirstine Sinclair and Niels Valdemar Vinding Magdalena Pyci ska Zahraa McDonald Emin Poljarevic Abdessamad Belhaj      Global Governance in Transformation Leonid Grigoryev, Adrian Pabst, 2019-09-03 This book analyzes the state of global governance in the current geopolitical environment It evaluates the main challenges and discusses potential opportunities for compromise in international cooperation The book s analysis is based on the universal criteria of global political stability and the UN framework of sustainable development By examining various global problems including global economic inequality legal and political aspects of access to resources international trade and climate change as well as the attendant global economic and political confrontations between key global actors the book identifies a growing crisis and the pressing need to transform the current system of global governance In turn it discusses various instruments measures and international regulation mechanisms that can foster international cooperation in order to overcome global problems Addressing a broad range of topics e g the international environmental regime global financial problems issues in connection with the energy transition and the role of BRICS countries in global governance the book will appeal to scholars in international relations economics and law as well as policy makers in government offices and international organizations

Political Modernization in the Gulf Shahid Jamal Ansari, 1998 The entire Gulf is passing through a transitional phase The member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC are witnessing change in varying degrees The change has become too evident from the 1960s It was oil more than any other factor which was responsible for a rapid transition Control over oil production and marketing have led to the strengthening of governmental role as owner and distributor of oil income The regions tribal society is being transformed into a modern society Political modernization is a recent phenomenon if the nature and extent of structural and informal transformations are taken into account Three broadly defined phases of political change can be discerned in the Arabian Peninsula the traditional the neo traditional and the modernizing or post traditional The modernizing phase was initiated by radical policies of socio economic development including the necessary restructuring of replacement of regimes and a redefinition or expansion of the scope and role of the state However the pace and direction of change is not clear enough The coming few decades are crucial in this regard

Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity Stavit Sinai, 2019-03-28 Sociology emerging in the 19th century as the study of national societies is the intellectual product of its time power relations and social imaginaries As a discursive practice that was enmeshed in the meta narratives of modernity the discipline of sociology bears the inherent capacity to shape socially shared concepts and construct collective identities This book examines the relationships between sociology and projects of national identity construction and presents a critique of Shmuel N Eisenstadt the prominent Israeli sociologist known as the father of Israeli sociology The book focuses on Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel as a case of knowledge construction within an ideological system and examines the relationships between his various sociological analyses of Israeli society and the Zionist imaginary namely the deeply entrenched political myths and historiographical narratives that constitute Israel s hegemonic national identity By emphasizing the interrelation between textuality identity and loaded language the volume seeks to demythologize Eisenstadt s sociology of Israel Three major concepts in Eisenstadt s scholarship are specifically thematized integration civilization and modernities In each of these foci the author shows how Eisenstadt s sociological conjectures reproduce dominant Zionist historiographical representations of the past rationalize prevalent social hierarchies reify the boundaries of a national collective Self and render legitimacy to Israel's governing ethnocentric tendencies underlying the premises of the Zionist settler colonial project Sociological Knowledge and Collective Identity will appeal to those interested in the interconnectedness of sociology and political memory as well as in a radical postcolonial reconstruction of sociology

The Transformation of Islamic Law in Global Financial Markets Jonathan Ercanbrack, 2015 This contextual analysis of Islamic financial law challenges our understanding of both Islamic law and global financial markets

Comparing Modernities Eliezer Ben-Rafael, Yitzhak Sternberg, 2005-06-01 The authors of this volume explore the tensions and dilemmas that impact pluralism and homogeneity in modern societies This is the first work in this field in which the frame of discussion is a comparative civilizational analysis It focuses on issues that are at the heart of the contemporary human experience and culture The contributors to this book renowned scholars from all over the world tackle these issues by referring to different temporal and spatial settings This book is in homage to Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt We honor his ground breaking work in the comparative study of modernities and civilizations Contributors are Jeffrey C Alexander Erik Allardt S d Arjomand Johann P Arnason Eliezer Ben Rafael Raymond Boudon Michael Confino Ralf Dahrendorf Gerard Delanty Shmuel N Eisenstadt Han Entzinger Bernhard Giesen Roland Goetschell Ulf Hannerz Dani le Hervieu L ger J rgen Kocka Donald N Levine Menachem Magidor Alberto Martinelli T K Oommen Shalini Randeria Luis Roniger W G Runciman Dominique Schnapper Hayim Tadmor Stanley J Tambiah Wolfgang Schluchter David Shulman Sammy Smooha Piotr Stzompka Edward A Tiryakan Alain Touraine Zvi Werblowsky and Bj rn Wittrock

Patterns of Western Modernity Shmuel Noah Eisenstadt, 1987

Communicating in the Third Space Karin Ikas, Gerhard Wagner, 2008-10-05 Communicating in the Third Space aims to clarify Homi K Bhabha's theory of the third space of enunciation by reconstructing its philosophical sociological geographical and political meaning with attention to the special advantages and ambiguities that arise as it is applied in practical as well as theoretical contexts The idea of third space conceives the encounter of two distinct and unequal social groups as taking place in a special third space of enunciation where culture is disseminated and displaced from the interacting groups making way for the invention of a hybrid identity whereby these two groups conceive themselves to partake in a common identity relating to shared space and common dialogue The essays collected in Communicating in the Third Space including a preface by Bhabha himself brilliantly introduce readers to this exciting topic in Cultural and Post Colonial theory and offers insightful elaboration and critique of the meaning and relevance of life in the third space With a preface by Homi K Bhabha

Comparative Civilizations and Multiple Modernities Shmuel N. Eisenstadt, 2022-11-07 This collection of essays provides an analysis of the dynamics of Civilizations The processes of globalization and of world history are described from a comparative sociological point of view in a Weberian tradition These essays were written between 1974 and 2002 by one of the most eminent sociologists of today The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004129931

Comparative civilizations and multiple modernities : [a collection of essays]. 2(2003) Shemu'el Noah Aizenshtadt, 2003

Genres of Modernity Dirk

Wiemann,2008 Genres of Modernity maps the conjunctures of critical theory and literary production in contemporary India The volume situates a sample of representative novels in the discursive environment of the ongoing critical debate on modernity in India and offers for the first time a rigorous attempt to hold together the stimulating impulses of postcolonial theory subaltern studies and the boom of Indian fiction in English Combining close readings of literary texts from Salman Rushdie to Kiran Nagarkar with a wide range of philosophical sociological and historiographic reflections Genres of Modernity is of interest not only for students of postcolonial literatures but for academics in the fields of Cultural Studies at large BOOK JACKET

Brazil - Emerging Forever? Victor Krasilshchikov,2021-11-05 This book discusses the social and economic problems currently faced by Brazil as one of the largest emerging countries It examines the prospects of Brazilian development from an interdisciplinary perspective and studies both socio economic and political variables The book embraces the large period of Brazil s development in the 20th and the first decades of the 21st Century The peculiar attention is drawn to the short period of prosperity under the left centrist governments as a continuation of the previous conservative modernisation model which produced an increased dependency on China and a premature deindustrialisation of the economy Assessing Brazilian statistics on households incomes and consumption the book subsequently discusses the lack of strong social actors as the main problem in today s Brazil In closing it examines probable scenarios for the country s development and compares the situation to other emerging countries including the Asian giants China and India The book addresses the needs of researchers in the fields of political science economics and sociology who are seeking a better understanding of emerging countries and the Brazilian case in particular Patterns of Thought in Africa and the West

Robin Horton,1997-07-13 Robin Horton s critical and creative writings on African religious thought have influenced anthropologists philosophers and all those interested in the comparative study of religion and thought This selection of some of his classic papers with a new introduction and postscript by the author traces Horton s theoretical ideas over thirty years In attempting to understand African religious thought he also tackles broader issues in the history and sociology of thought such as secularisation and modernisation Part I is a critical assessment of two established interpretive approaches the Symbolist and the Theological Part II proposes an alternative Intellectualist approach that emphasises the structural and processual similarities between religious and scientific thinking The postscript appraises the Intellectualist approach in the light of theorising about religion and world views The Future That Failed Johann P. Arnason,2005-08-02 This outstanding book analyses the Soviet model as a distinctive pattern of modernity examining its historical background and institutional structure and challenging many of the assumptions and judgements made about the Soviet road Transcultural

Modernities Elisabeth Bekers,Sissy Helff,Daniela Merolla,2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds
