Paul Cuffe Black America And The African Return:

Paul Cuffe: Black America and the African Return Sheldon H. Harris, 1972 The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed African-American Business Leaders and Entrepreneurs Rachel Kranz, 2004 For as long as there have been blacks in the Americas there have been African American entrepreneurs The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Biographical Dictionary of African Americans, Revised Edition Rachel Kranz, 2021-01-01 For centuries African Americans have made important contributions to American culture From Crispus Attucks whose death marked the start of the Revolutionary War to Oprah Winfrey perhaps the most recognizable and influential TV personality today black men and women have played an integral part in American history This greatly expanded and updated edition of our best selling volume The Biographical Dictionary of Black Americans Revised Edition profiles more than 250 of America's important influential and fascinating black figures past and present in all fields including the arts entertainment politics science sports the military literature education the media religion and many more African-American Odyssey Albert S. Broussard, 1998 This book illuminates the professional career and private lives of J McCants Stewart a Reconstruction era lawyer minister politician and political activist and his descendants over three generations providing an epic account of an African American family in America Adapted from book jacket Islam, Black Nationalism and Slavery Adib Rashad, 1995 Slavery and the Making of America James Oliver Horton, Lois E. Horton, 2005 The history of slavery is central to understanding the history of the United States Slavery and the Making of America offers a richly illustrated vividly written history that illuminates the human side of this inhumane institution presenting it largely through stories of the slaves themselves Readers will discover a wide ranging and sharply nuanced look at American slavery from the first Africans brought to British colonies in the early seventeenth century to the end of Reconstruction The authors document the horrors of slavery particularly in the deep South and describe the slaves valiant struggles to free themselves from bondage There are dramatic tales of escape by slaves such as William and Ellen Craft and Dred Scott's doomed attempt to win his freedom through the Supreme Court We see how slavery engendered violence in our nation from bloody confrontations that broke out in American cities over fugitive slaves to the cataclysm of the Civil War The book is also filled with stories of remarkable African Americans like Sergeant William H Carney who won the Congressional Medal of Honor for his bravery at the crucial assault on Fort Wagner during the Civil War and Benjamin Pap Singleton a former slave who led freed African Americans to a new life on the American frontier Filled with absorbing and inspirational accounts highlighted by more than one hundred pictures and illustrations Slavery and the Making of America is a gripping account of the struggles of African Americans against the iniquity of slavery

African American Lives Henry Louis Gates Jr., Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2004-04-29 African American Lives offers up to date authoritative biographies of some 600 noteworthy African Americans These 1 000 3 000 word biographies selected from over five thousand entries in the forthcoming eight volume African American National Biography illuminate African American history through the immediacy of individual experience From Esteban the earliest known African to set foot in North America in 1528 right up to the continuing careers of Venus and Serena Williams these stories of the renowned and the near forgotten give us a new view of American history Our past is revealed from personal perspectives that in turn inspire move entertain and even infuriate the reader Subjects include slaves and abolitionists writers politicians and business people musicians and dancers artists and athletes victims of injustice and the lawyers journalists and civil rights leaders who gave them a voice Their experiences and accomplishments combine to expose the complexity of race as an overriding issue in America s past and present African American Lives features frequent cross references among related entries over 300 illustrations and a general index supplemented by indexes organized by chronology occupation or area of renown and winners of particular honors such as the Spingarn Medal Nobel Prize and Pulitzer Prize

Militarism, Imperialism, and Racial Accommodation (c) ,1992 1993 Mid South Sociological Association Book Award Robert E Park has long been recognized as one of the most influential thinkers in early American sociology yet virtually all of his works appearing before 1913 were published in popular magazines and were dismissed as nonsociological muckraking In Militarism Imperialism and Racial Accommodation An Analysis and Interpretation of the Early Writings of Robert E Park Stanford M Lyman examines and reprints many of these little known works including Park s essays on German military organization his expos s of the atrocities committed by Belgium s Leopold II in the Congo State his studies of the black community in Winston Salem North Carolina and of Booker T Washington s agricultural education program at Tuskegee Alabama Lyman shows clearly that Park s essays written outside the academy formulated a far more complex perspective on modern modes of evil than any proposed by his contemporaries thereby influencing sociological debates for decades to come By writing his essays on topical subjects and by publishing them for a public audience Park dramatized his profound belief that the struggle to achieve racial accommodation and to establish a true and lasting democracy is a concern for all

A Companion to African American History Alton Hornsby, Jr., 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American History is a collection of original and authoritative essays arranged thematically and topically covering a wide range of subjects from the seventeenth century to the present day. Analyzes the major sources and the most influential books and articles in the field. Includes discussions of globalization, region, migration, gender, class, and social forces that make up the broad cultural fabric of African American history. Quakers and Native Americans, 2019-03-25. Quakers and Native Americans examines the history of interactions between Quakers and Native Americans. American Indians. Fourteen scholarly essays cover the period from the 1650s to the twentieth century. American Indians often guided the Quakers by word and example, demanding that they give content to their celebrated commitment to peace. As a consequence, the Quakers' relations with American Indians has helped define their sense of mission and propelled their rise to influence in the U.S. Quakers have influenced Native American history as colonists, government advisors, and educators, eventually promoting boarding schools, assimilation, and the suppression of indigenous cultures. The final two essays in this collection provide Quaker and American Indian perspectives on this history, bringing the story up to the present day. Contributors include Ray Batchelor, Lori Daggar, John Echohawk, Stephanie Gamble, Lawrence M. Hauptman, Allison Hrabar, Thomas J. Lappas, Carol Nackenoff, Paula Palmer, Ellen M. Ross, Jean R. Soderlund, Mary Beth Start, Tara Strauch, Marie Balsley, Taylor Elizabeth Thompson, and Scott M. Wert. A Hideous Monster of the Mind, Bruce Dain, 2009-07-01. The intellectual history of race, one of the most pernicious and enduring ideas in American history, has remained segregated into studies of black or white traditions. Bruce Dain breaks this separatist pattern with an integrated account of the emergence of modern racial consciousness in the United States from the Revolution to the Civil War. Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century, Peter Adamson, Chike Jeffers, 2025-03-07. In this latest installment of the series A History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps, Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers delve into the fascinating world of Africana Philosophy. Africana Philosophy from Ancient Egypt to the Nineteenth Century is the first of two volumes in the History of Philosophy Without Any Gaps series to bring readers the story of Africana philosophy. This diverse topic is defined as philosophy emerging from and distinctively related to Africa or the African diaspora. The story starts at the very beginning by asking what it would mean to engage philosophically with evidence left by prehistoric peoples of Africa and proceeds to discuss the philosophical traditions of ancient Egypt, late ancient and early modern Ethiopia, and Islamic philosophy in West Africa. A number of chapters then explore the idea of philosophy in African oral traditions, considering the methodological debates that have raged between African philosophers like John Mbiti, Paulin Hountondji, and Henry Odera Oruka. Peter Adamson and Chike Jeffers also consider philosophical responses to the situation brought about by the transatlantic slave trade and the early colonization of Africa. Starting from early figures like Anton Wilhelm Amo and Phillis Wheatley and the ideas that drove the Haitian Revolution, extensive discussion is then given to Africana philosophy of the nineteenth century. The incendiary ideas of David Walker, the nuanced rhetoric of Frederick Douglass, and the clashing approaches of Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois are among the highlights here. Significant attention is given to female thinkers like Maria W. Stewart, Sojourner

Truth Anna Julia Cooper and Ida B Wells The coverage is also geographically diverse with chapters on figures who worked not only in Africa and the United States but also Brazil Canada Britain France and the Caribbean An African Republic Marie Tyler-McGraw,2009-11 The nineteenth century American Colonization Society ACS project of persuading all American free blacks to emigrate to the ACS colony of Liberia could never be accomplished Few free blacks volunteered and greater numbers would have overwhelmed the meager resources of the ACS Given that reality who supported African colonization and why No Black Boston George A. Levesque,2018-01-12 Between the Revolution and the Civil War non slave black Americans existed in the no man s land between slavery and freedom The two generations defined by these two titanic struggles for national survival saw black Bostonians struggle to make real the quintessential values of individual freedom and equality promised by the Revolution Levesque s richly detailed study fills a significant void in our understanding of the formative years of black life in urban America Black culture Levesque argues was both more and less than separation and integration Poised between an occasionally benevolent sometimes hostile frequently indifferent white world and their own community black Americans were in effect suspended between two cultures The Struggles of John Brown Russwurm Winston James,John Brown Russwurm,2010-08-30 John Brown Russwurm 1799 1851 was an educator abolitionist editor government official emigrationist and colonizationist in the Pan African movement His life was one of firsts first African American graduate of Maine s Bowdoin College co founder of Freedom s Journal America s first newspaper to be owned operated and edited by African Americans and following his emigration to Africa first black governor of the Maryland section of Liberia Despite his accomplishments Russwurm struggled internally with the perennial Pan Africanist dilemma of whether to go to Africa or stay and fight in the United States and his ordeal was the first of its kind to be experienced and resolved before the public eye The Cambridge History of America and the World Kristin Hoganson,Jay Sexton,2022-03-03 The second volume of The Cambridge History of America and the World examines how the United States rose to great power status in the nineteenth century and how the rest of the world has shaped the United States Mixing top down and bottom up perspectives insider and outsider views cultural social political military environmental legal technological and other veins of analysis it places the United States Indigenous nations and their peoples in the context of a rapidly integrating world Specific topics addressed in the volume include nation and empire building inter Indigenous relations settler colonialism slavery and statecraft the Mexican American War global integration the antislavery international the global dimensions of the Civil War overseas empire building state formation international law global capitalism border crossing movement politics technology health the environment immigration policy missionary endeavors mobility tourism expatriation cultural production colonial intimacies borderlands the liberal North Atlantic US African relations Islamic world encounters the US island empire the greater Caribbean world and transimperial entanglements Crafting Equality Celeste Michelle Condit,John Louis Lucaites,2012-12-10 Philosophers and historians often treat fundamental concepts like equality as if they existed only as fixed ideas found solely in the canonical texts of civilization In Crafting Equality Celeste Michelle Condit and John Louis Lucaites argue that the meaning of at least one key word equality has been forged in the day to day pragmatics of public discourse Drawing upon little studied speeches newspapers magazines and other public discourse Condit and Lucaites survey the shifting meaning of equality from 1760 to the present as a process of interaction and negotiation among different social groups in American politics and culture They make a powerful case for the critical role of black Americans in actively shaping what equality has come to mean in our political conversation by chronicling the development of an African American rhetorical community The story they tell supports a vision of equality that embraces both heterogeneity and homogeneity as necessary for maintaining the balance between liberty and property A compelling revision of an important aspect of America's history Crafting Equality will interest anyone wanting to better understand the role public discourse plays in affecting the major social and political issues of our times It will also interest readers concerned with the relationship between politics and culture in America's increasingly multi cultural society

Native Apostles Edward E. Andrews, 2013-04-01 As Protestantism expanded across the Atlantic most evangelists were not Anglo Americans but were members of the groups that missionaries were trying to convert Native Apostles reveals the way Native Americans Africans and black slaves redefined Christianity and addressed the challenges of slavery dispossession and European settlement
