Paul Bowles on Music Paul Bowles, 2003-09-02 In this wonderfully engaging and informative collection we hear the voice of a different Paul Bowles Writing on a wide range of subjects jazz film music classical music popular music ethnic music he is direct opinionated incisive analytical humorous and passionate Millicent Dillon author of You Are Not I A Portrait of Paul Bowles Song Carol Kimball, 2006-12-01 Book Carol Kimball's comprehensive survey of art song literature has been the principal one volume American source on the topic Now back in print after an absence of several years this newly revised edition includes biographies and discussions of the work of 150 composers of various nationalities as well as articles on styles of various schools of composition Paul Bowles on Music Timothy Mangan, Irene Herrmann, 2003 It's an easy enough job if one has something to say Paul Bowles remarked in a letter to his mother about his first foray into music criticism And Paul Bowles indeed had plenty to say about music Though known chiefly as a writer of novels and stories Paul Bowles 1910-99 thought of himself first and foremost as a composer The Virginia Quarterly Review, 2004 Writing Tangier Ralph M. Coury, Robert Kevin Lacey, 2009 Writing Tangier discusses an array of topics relating to the literature on Tangier from the seventeenth century to the present Major questions include Why has Tangier come to play an important role in contemporary world literary history as a signifier in the literary imagination what is the nature of the intertextual output produced through Paul Bowles translations of the oral tales of a circle of uneducated storytellers including Mohammed Mrabet and Larbi Layachi and the text For Bread Alone brought to Bowles by the literate Mohamed Choukri how do academics artists and writers who have been based in the city or who have written about it assess the various socio economic political and cultural factors that have shaped its cultural production and the relationship of this production to the celebrated hybrid aspects of its identity does the success of the literature of Tangier reflect a truly new multicultural cosmopolitanism or does it stem from the fact that this literature is congenial to Westerners that it is understood in terms that they themselves define and that much of it including productions in Arabic prepared with the expectation of translation has even been written to measure for them Bibliographic Guide to Music New York Public Library. Music Division, 2004 Notes Music Library Association, 2005 Directory Modern Language Association of America, 2003 Unsettled Scores Sally Bick, 2019-12-20 The Hollywood careers of Aaron Copland and Hanns Eisler brought the composers and their high art sensibility into direct conflict with the premier producer of America's potent mass culture Drawn by Hollywood's potential to reach and edify the public Copland and Eisler expertly wove sophisticated musical ideas into Hollywood and each in their own distinctive way left an indelible mark on movie history Sally Bick's dual study of Copland and Eisler pairs interpretations of their writings on film composing with a close examination of their first Hollywood projects Copland's music for Of Mice and Men and Eisler's score for Hangmen Also Die Bick illuminates the different ways the composers treated a film score as means of expressing their political ideas on society capitalism and the human condition She also delves into Copland's and Eisler's often conflicted attempts to adapt their music to fit Hollywood's commercial demands an enterprise that took place even as they wrote hostile critiques of the film industry Seeing the Beat Generation Raj Chandarlapaty, 2019-05-20 Beat generation writers dismantled mainstream America They wrote under the influence of psychedelic drugs they crossed and navigated multicultural boundaries and questioned the American dream and they explored homosexuality feminism and hyper masculinity redefining America's marital and familial codes Teaching such a history can be daunting but film adaptations of Beat literature have proven to engage students This book looks closely at the film adaptations of works by such authors as Jack Kerouac Neal Cassady Allen Ginsberg William S Burroughs Gary Snyder Carolyn Cassady Amiri Baraka and Lawrence Ferlinghetti as they relate to American history and literary studies Aaron Copland Howard Pollack, 2015-09-01 A candid and fascinating portrait of the American composer The son of Russian Jewish immigrants Aaron Copland 1900 1990 became one of America's most beloved and esteemed composers His work which includes Fanfare for the Common Man A Lincoln Portrait and Appalachian Spring has been honored by a huge following of devoted listeners But the full richness of Copland's life and accomplishments has never until now been documented or understood Howard Pollack's meticulously researched and engrossing biography explores the symphony of Copland's life his childhood in Brooklyn his homosexuality Paris in the early 1920s the Alfred Stieglitz circle his experimentation with jazz the communist witch trials Hollywood in the forties public disappointment with his later intellectual work and his struggle with Alzheimer's disease Furthermore Pollack presents informed discussions of Copland's music explaining and clarifying its newness and originality its aesthetic and social aspects its distinctive and enduring personality Not only a success in its own right but a valuable model of what biography can and probably should be Kirkus Reviews Peggy Glanville-Hicks Suzanne Robinson, 2019-06-16 As both composer and critic Peggy Glanville Hicks contributed to the astonishing cultural ferment of the mid twentieth century Her forceful voice as a writer and commentator helped shape professional and public opinion on the state of American composing The seventy musical works she composed ranged from celebrated operas like Nausicaa to intimate jewel like compositions created for friends Her circle included figures like Virgil Thomson Paul Bowles John Cage and Yehudi Menuhin Drawing on interviews archival research and fifty four years of extraordinary pocket diaries Suzanne Robinson places Glanville Hicks within the history of American music and composers P G H forged alliances with power brokers and artists that gained her entrance to core American cultural entities such as the League of Composers New York Herald Tribune and the Harkness Ballet Yet her impeccably cultivated public image concealed a private life marked by unhappy love affairs stubborn poverty and the painstaking creation of her artistic works Evocative and intricate Peggy Glanville Hicks clears away decades of myth and storytelling to provide a portrait of a remarkable figure and her times Neoclassical Music in America R. James Tobin, 2014-07-02 From the 1920s to the 1950s neoclassicism was one of the dominant movements in American music Today this music is largely in eclipse mostly absent in performance and even from accounts of music history in spite of and initially because of its adherence to an expanded tonality No previous book has focused on the nature and scope of this musical tradition Neoclassical Music in America Voices of Clarity and Restraint makes clear what neoclassicism was how it emerged in America and what happened to it Music reviewer and scholar R James Tobin argues that efforts to define musical neoclassicism as a style largely fail because of the stylistic diversity of the music that fall within its scope However neoclassicists as different from one another as the influential Igor Stravinsky and Paul Hindemith did have a classical aesthetic in common the basic characteristics of which extend to other neoclassicists This study focuses in particular on a group of interrelated neoclassical American composers who came to full maturity in the 1940s These included Harvard professor Walter Piston who had studied in France in the 1920s Harold Shapero the most traditional of the group Irving Fine and Arthur Berger his colleagues at Brandeis Lukas Foss later an experimentalist composer whose origins lay in neoclassicism of the 1940s Alexei Haieff and Ingolf Dahl both close associates of Stravinsky and others Tobin surveys the careers of these figures drawing especially on early reviews of performances before offering his own critical assessment of individual works Adventurous collectors of recordings performing musicians concert and broadcasting programmers as well as music and cultural historians and those interested in musical aesthetics will find much of interest here Dates of composition approximate duration of individual works and discographies add to the work s reference value The Blood Poets: Millennial blues : from Apocalypse now to The matrix Jake Horsley,1999 This thought provoking and insightful study of 40 years of American violent cinema ties together the multiple disciplines of psychology criminology censorship and anthropology The study is divided into two volumes Volume 1 American Chaos From Touch of Evil to The Terminator and Volume 2 Millennial Blues From Apocalypse Now to The Matrix Horsley raises a new dialogue between scholars and movie buffs as readers struggle to find their own answers to the connection between the need to portray and the need to watch violent films The Cambridge Companion to Women in Music since 1900 Laura Hamer,2021-05-06 This Companion explores women s work in music since 1900 across a broad range of musical genres and professions including the classical tradition popular music and music technology The crucial contribution of women to music education and the music industries features alongside their activity as composers and performers The book considers the gendered nature of the musical profession in areas including access to training gendered criticism sexualization and notions of gender appropriate roles or instruments It covers a wide range of women musicians such as Marin Alsop Grace Williams Billie Holiday Joni Mitchell and Adele Each thematic section concludes with a contribution from a practitioner in her own words reflecting upon the impact of gender on her own career Chapters include suggestions for further reading on each of the topics covered providing an invaluable resource for students of Feminist Musicology Women in Music and Music and Gender Billboard ,1946-10-19 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music

Michael K. Walonen, 2016-02-17 In his study of the Tangier expatriate community Michael K Walonen analyzes the representations of French and Spanish Colonial North Africa by Paul Bowles Jane Bowles William Burroughs Brion Gysin and Alfred Chester during the end of the colonial era and the earliest days of post independence The conceptualizations of space in these authors descriptions of Tangier Walonen shows share common components an attention to the transformative potential of the conflict sweeping the region a record of the power relations that divided space along lines of gender and ethnicity including the spatial impact of the widespread sexual commerce between Westerners and natives a vision of the Maghreb as a land that can be dominated or imposed on as a kind of frontier space an expression of anxieties about the specters of Cold War antagonisms and an embrace of the underlying logic of the market to the culture of the Maghreb Counterbalancing the depictions of Tangier by Westerners who sought to reconcile their nostalgia for the colonial order with their support of native demands for independent governance is Walonen's extended analysis of the contrasting sense of place found in the writings of native Moroccan authors such as Mohammed Choukri Tahar Ben Jelloun and Anouar Majid In its focus on Tangier and the larger Maghreb as a lived environment situated at a particular spatial and temporal crossroads Walonen's study makes an important contribution to the fields of urban transatlantic and postcolonial studies The Music of Peggy Glanville-Hicks Victoria Rogers, 2017-07-05

Peggy Glanville Hicks 1912 1990 is an Australian composer whose full significance has only recently been appreciated Born in Melbourne Australia she transcended the gendered expectations of her upbringing and went on to become a fine composer and a highly influential figure in the vibrant musical life of New York after the Second World War Following early composition studies with Fritz Hart in Melbourne Glanville Hicks moved to London where she studied with Ralph Vaughan Williams then to Paris where she was taught by the great pedagogue Nadia Boulanger Her migration to the USA in 1941 shaped the musical direction of her late works After a brief neoclassical phase she joined the small group of American composers who were using non Western musics as their inspirational well spring including Colin McPhee Alan Hovhaness Lou Harrison and Paul Bowles During this period she also forged an illustrious career as a music journalist and arts administrator working tirelessly to promote new music and the careers of young composers In the late 1950s she retreated to Greece to write the big works most notably the operas which lie at the heart of her creative output Her compositional career ended prematurely and tragically in 1967 following surgery the previous year for a life threatening brain tumour Against all medical expectations she went on to live for a further 24 years returning to Australia in 1975 amidst a dawning recognition that one of the country s most significant composers had returned Glanville Hicks s career as a composer is impressive by any measure She produced over 70 finely crafted works including operas ballets concertos instrumental chamber pieces songs and choral works The story of her life has been told in the biographies This book traces the development of her musical language from the English pastoral style of the early works through the neoclassicism of the middle period to the melody rhythm concept of the late works The Book Review Digest ,2004
