Early Imagery Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22 Cézanne's Early Imagery by Mary Tompkins Lewis explores the lesser known but significant early works of Paul Cézanne bringing to light the rich cultural and artistic context of his first decade as a painter. While Cézanne's biographers have long emphasized his tumultuous early life marked by his friendship with Emile Zola, his rebellious nature and his passionate yet crude persona, the actual paintings from this period have often been overshadowed. Lewis addresses this gap in Cézanne scholarship by examining how his early works reflect deep connections to both popular and artistic traditions, revealing a more nuanced and deliberate painter than previously recognized. Through detailed analysis of Cézanne's early subject pictures, Lewis moves beyond the conventional view of the artist as an impulsive romantic. Instead, she argues that his early paintings are stylistically and iconographically coherent, shaped by both his engagement with the old masters and his awareness of contemporary cultural currents. Highlighting the contributions of previous scholars such as Roger Fry and Meyer Schapiro, Lewis builds on their groundwork to offer a comprehensive reappraisal of Cézanne's early compositions. Ultimately, this study provides a deeper understanding of the young painter's creative process and the intellectual depth behind his bold, defiant imagery, enriching our appreciation of his role in modern art. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1989.

Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers, 2023-11-07 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans. Walker Evans (1903-75) was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways. He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression, but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War. In Walker Evans, renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs. Delving into a lavish selection of Evans's work, Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures, locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle. Alpers demonstrates that Evans's practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot, as well as his keen eye and his distant, straight-on view of visual objects. Illustrating the vital role of Evans's dual love of text and images, Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs. She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists, from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner, underscoring how Evans's travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba, along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes, informed his quintessentially American photographic style. A magisterial account of a great twentieth-century artist, Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world, to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects, how he saw his photographs, and how we can see his images as if for the first time.

the brilliant work and restless life of Paul Cezanne the most influential painter of his time whose vision revolutionized the role of the painter The Invisible Masterpiece Hans Belting, 2001-09 The invisible masterpiece then is an unattainable ideal an ideal that has both bewitched and bewildered artists The Invisible Masterpiece is an unusual reconstruction of the history of the work of art since 1800 in which Hans Belting explores and explains the dreams and fears the triumphs and failures of modernity's painters and sculptors BOOK JACKET Colour and Culture John Gage, 2024-10-24 What does the language of colour tell us Where does one colour begin and another end Is it a radiant visual stimulus an intangible function of light or a material substance to be moulded and arrayed Colour is fundamental to art yet so diverse that it has hardly ever been studied in a comprehensive way Art historian John Gage considers every conceivable aspect of the subject in this groundbreaking analysis of colour in Western culture from the ancient Greeks to the late twentieth century Gage describes the first theories of colour articulated by Greek philosophers and subsequent attempts by the Romans and their Renaissance disciples to organize it systematically or endow it with symbolic power He unfolds its religious significance and its use in heraldry as well as how Renaissance artists approached colour with the help of alchemists He explores the analysis of the spectrum undertaken by Newton and continued in the nineteenth century by artists such as Seurat traces the influence of Goethe's colour theory and considers the extraordinary theories and practices that attempted to unite colour and music or make colour into an entirely abstract language of its own The first ever undertaking to suggest answers to many perennial questions about the role of colour in Western art and thought this study throws fresh light on the hidden meanings of many familiar masterpieces Cézanne and Poussin Richard Verdi, National Gallery of Scotland, 1990 Paul Cézanne; The Basel Sketchbooks L.
