and Painting In Quebec William J. Berg,2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec s landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Quebecois Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms A New Approach to Global Studies from the Perspective of Small Nations Kiyonobu Date,Jean-François Laniel,2023-12-13 With emphasis on East Asian and North American examples notably Japan and Quebec Date Laniel and their contributors take a new approach to the understanding of small nations and their role in the international system Small nations by their very nature raise significant questions about what a nation is Some small nations are sovereign states with relatively small populations and limited territory others are nations within larger sovereign states with distinctive cultures governance structures or other features that differentiate them from their parent state By focussing on non European nations in particular the contributors to this volume challenge our conceptions of what a small nation is and how it operates within the international system They focus in particular on the nation within a nation state of Quebec and on Japan supplemented by further examples from East Asia By interrogating what these examples have to show us about the typology and character of small nations they offer a critique of superpower and draw out the potential of small nation studies A valuable resource for students and scholars of international relations and theories of the nation and nation state The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non

Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent. The first text on Canadian anglophone translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies Canadiana, 1981 Identité et modernité dans l'art au Québec Louise Vigneault, 2011-08-29T00:00:00-04:00 Le livre de Louise Vigneault apporte des réponses toujours ingénieuses convaincantes et originales. Le lecteur aura du plaisir à la suivre dans le détail de ses arguments toujours bien documentés rigoureux et clairement exposés. Il en ressort une histoire de l'art et des artistes hantée par des problèmes théoriques voire même philosophiques toujours d'une grande actualité. Extrait de la préface L'envol des signes Gilles Lapointe, Université de Montréal. Centre d'études québécoises, 1996 Artscanada, 1982 Quebec Identity Jocelyn Maclure, 2003-07-04 In articulating an alternative narrative Maclure reframes the debate detaching the question of Quebec's identity from the question of sovereignty versus federalism and linking it closely to Quebec's cultural diversity and to the consolidation of its democratic sphere. In so doing he rethinks the conditions of authenticity leaves space for First Nations self-determination and takes account of globalization. This edition has been expanded for English Canadians with additional references as well as a glossary of names institutions and concepts Abstract Painting in Canada Roald Nasgaard, Art Gallery of Nova Scotia, 2008 In the tradition of the distinguished Douglas McIntyre art program this lavishly illustrated and superbly printed book is a rich readable history of abstract painting in Canada. The story begins in the 1920s with the sometimes eccentric but remarkable work rooted in symbolism and theosophy of pioneers such as Kathleen Munn Bertram Brooker and Lawren Harris. Two decades later the Automatistes Canada's first truly independent avant-garde art movement burst onto the scene in Montreal. After the Second World War the urge to abstraction spread across Canada manifesting itself in significant regional movements. Vancouver painters retained a British flavour while in Toronto the Painters Eleven looked south to New York. Montreal's Plasticiens launched their own razor-edged interpretation of the European tradition of geometric abstraction. In the sixties and seventies the Prairies were influenced by Clement Greenberg's post-painterly abstraction while Halifax became a hub of conceptual art and concrete painting. The book continues through the eighties and nineties during which critics largely denounced painting and concludes in the twenty-first century with abstract painting alive and well again in the studios of Canada's young artists. A monumental tome containing 200 color reproductions it mines a rich vein of art history ripe for international discovery Canadian Who's who Kieran Simpson, 1980 RACAR, Revue D'art Canadienne, 1985 The Dalhousie Review, 1979 Writings 1973-1983 on Works 1969-1979 Michael Asher, Museum of Contemporary
