Department of Education,2002 Elementary Children's Literature Nancy A. Anderson,2002 Written in a personable tone this concise literature methods text is filled with classroom applications and teaching strategies for future teachers and parents of preschool and elementary children Organized around genres this student friendly text presents the basic children s literature course content Each genre chapter contains extensive up to date bibliographies most with annotations of books in print and a few exceptional out of print books and for each genre there is a list of evaluation criteria This exceptional textbook not only includes books about minorities in each chapter but it also features works by minority authors and illustrators Uniquely Elementary Children s Literature offers instructional and curriculum tie ins that are woven within the text and in literature response boxes at strategic places in each chapter Book illustrations are included at the beginning of each chapter as well as throughout the narrative American Book Publishing Record ,2001 The Earth Made New Paul Goble,2009-04-16 Weaving together the legends of the Plains Indian tribes this beautifully illustrated story celebrates a new Earth after the flood and narrates the making of the buffaloes mountains Thunderbirds and other creations of additional illustrations and stories and a new Foreword The Image Taker Edward S. Curtis,2009-05-16 The photographs and stories of Edward S Curtis speak though time of a bygone age The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult

Books ,2000 Unsettling Narratives Clare Bradford,2007 Children s books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children s Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children s literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures The Publishers Weekly ,1999 Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12 Bookpeople Sharron L. McElmeel,1992-06-15 Fifteen units focus on authors who speak about their ethnic heritage through their books and those who write or illustrate multicultural materials Each unit includes a full size photograph and a brief biography containing bits of background information that will fascinate students Activities that reinforce the multicultural theme and bibliographies of related books and films are also featured Ideal for the media center and the integrated curriculum Grades 1-6 Who's who in America ,2003

Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2002-02 Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda,1998 With a slender design and appealing art Cullinan and Galda present a thought provoking discussion on how children can read to respond read to learn and read to enjoy This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children s books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues Numerous teaching ideas many of which are contributed by classroom teachers provide practical applications This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature based curriculum
