Updike Mary Karr Mario Puzo Nick Hornby Chuck Close Eric Clapton George Clinton Sonny Rollins Samuel L. Jackson Johnny Cash Isabella Rossellini Divine Uta Hagen Carol Shields Adaptation in Visual Culture Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2017-12-06 This book gathers together essays written by leading scholars of adaptation studies to explore the full range of practices and issues currently of concern in the field. The chapters demonstrate how content and messaging are shared across an increasing number of platforms whose interrelationships have become as intriguing as they are complex. Recognizing that a signature feature of contemporary culture is the convergence of different forms of media, the contributors of this book argue that adaptation studies has emerged as a key discipline that unlike traditional literary and art criticism is capable of identifying and analyzing the relations between source texts and adaptations created from them. Adaptation scholars have come to understand that these relations not only play out in individual case histories but are also institutional, and this collection shows how adaptation plays a key role in the functioning of cinema, television, art, and print media. The volume is essential reading for all those interested both in adaptation studies and also in the complex forms of intermediality that define contemporary culture in the 21st century. BeBOP and NOTHINGNESS: Jazz and Pop at the End of the Century Francis Davis, 2012-02-22 An informative and insightful collection of essays from Francis Davis. Davis prefers artists who push at the avant garde edges who refuse to accept the status quo. This collection of influential writings again focuses on these hard-to-categorize heroes from Miles Davis, Dizzy Gillespie, Michael Jackson, and Barbra Streisand to Art Pepper, Tony Bennett, Les Paul, Don Byron, and many more. Scorsese and Religion Christopher B. Barnett, Clark J. Elliston, 2019-09-16 Scorsese and Religion concerns the religious vision of the great American filmmaker Martin Scorsese. Not only will this volume explore the foundation of Scorsese's interest in religion, namely his relation to the Catholic Church, but it will also highlight the religious breadth of Scorsese's corpus. Ultimately, this book demonstrates that Scorsese's cinematic representation of reality brings together various religious influences: Catholicism, existentialism, Buddhism, etc., and topics such as violence, morality, nihilism, and so on. The overarching claim is that Scorsese, who indeed once claimed that his whole life had been movies, and religion cannot be properly understood without reflecting on the ways in which his religious interests are expressed in and through his art. Questions for the Movie Answer Man Roger Ebert, 1997-06 What was in the briefcase in Pulp Fiction? Why don't movie actors wear seat belts? Was Fargo really based on a true story? Pulitzer Prize-winning film critic Roger Ebert answers these and hundreds more. Using wit, insight, and dozens of other experts, he resolves some of the most common questions about the movies and some of the most bizarre. The Off-Hollywood Film Guide Tom Wiener, 2002-08-13 The Off-Hollywood Film Guide cuts through the clutter of the thousands of films currently available on video and DVD by specifically catering to independent and foreign film enthusiasts. In addition to a list of essential must-see films, this guide includes hundreds of entries, each with brief commentary and a list of pertinent details such as release date, cast, director, awards, garnered special DVD features, and double feature suggestions.
