Big Girls Don't Cry - The Wild and Wicked World of Paula Yates' Mother Helene Thornton, 2016-03-15 Helene

Thornton has lived a life of unequalled passion and heartache. In her fascinating memoirs she gives the definitive account of her daughter Paula Yates really was. From frail lonely schoolgirl to voluptuous star of the stage and screen, wife, mother, lover, author and artist in this dramatic autobiography. After a tough childhood in bleak post-war Blackpool where she suffered from bouts of debilitating sickness at the hands of cruel bullies and from the impact of her mother's mental illness, Helene blossomed into a renowned beauty and went on to win Miss Blackpool 1954 where she first encountered TV producer and presenter Jess Yates. Joining the famous dancing troupe the Bluebell Girls, Helene toured Europe where she broke hearts and honed her dancing and acting skills before being reunited with Jess and embarking on a whirlwind and frequently steamy romance. After mere months, however, the fairy tale marriage took a sinister and violent turn with Helene discovering one too many of Jess' secrets and was forced to leave her husband with baby Paula in tow as she battled life as a single mother roaming Britain and then Europe in search of happiness and fulfillment. Writing candidly about the difficult mother-daughter relationship, Helene reveals her anguish at Paula's unsettled infancy and early signs of mental illness. She sets the record straight about one of Britain's best-loved but least understood stars, fondly recalling Paula's joy on meeting Bob Geldof and writing of the childhood incidents that formed her relationships with family, friends and associates and the press. For the first time she discusses the circumstances that lead to the revelation that Paula's true father was Hughie Green and discloses the identities of some of her most cherished lovers. Explosive, moving, frank but above all honest, Big Girls Don't Cry is a no-holds-barred account of the exciting highs and gut-wrenching lows of a life lived to a full Electronically Yours Martyn

Ware, 2022-08-25 This is a music autobiography to remember. This is the story of Martyn Ware. The Human League and Heaven 17 were among some of the most pioneering bands of the 1980s with Ware having played an integral role in each of their numerous successes. A young lad from the heart of post-war Sheffield, Ware formed The Human League a few years out of school in his early twenties. Described by David Bowie as the future of music, it wasn't long before the band became known for their innovative and infectious catchy singles such as Being Boiled, touring with the likes of Siouxsie and the Banshees and Iggy Pop before Ware's departure. Heaven 17 followed suit with their soon-to-be classic albums Penthouse from his austere upbringing in various council houses and close teenage friendship with former bandmate Phil Oakey to the white-hot experimentation in the Synth Britannia era and his production career which allowed him to work with some of the world's greatest singers including Tina Turner. But it's not just his life inside the industry which is compelling; a proud socialist, Martyn writes poignantly about politics, how it can be a soulful personal moral duty and its role in his music creation and Britain today. With charming meditations on culture, humour, travel and sport, Martyn also shares his love of 60s films, explains why Venice is the most beautiful city in the world and reveals how Sheffield Wednesday has forever been his first and eternal passion. A huge page-turner and always warmly told, Electronically Yours sees Martyn talk candidly for the very first time.
