Stevens,2020-06-15 In History of the Pauline Corpus in Texts Transmissions and Trajectories Chris S Stevens examines the Greek manuscripts of the Pauline texts from P46 to Claromontanus Previous research is often hindered by the lack of a systematic analysis and an indelicate linguistic methodology This book offers an entirely new analysis of the early life of the Pauline corpus Departing from traditional approaches this text critical work is the first to use Systemic Functional Linguistics which enables both the comparison and ranking of textual differences across multiple manuscripts Furthermore the analysis is synchronically oriented so it is non evaluative The results indicate a highly uniform textual transmission during the early centuries The systematic analysis challenges previous research regarding text types Christological scribal alterations and textual trajectories

Petroelje,2022-09-08 Benjamin J Petroelje argues that how one reads Ephesians is a function of deeper questions about how to read the Pauline book Petroelje suggests the contemporary consensus that Ephesians depicts development of away from the real Paul is largely a construct of modern criticism rooted in shifting strategies about how to read a letter collection that developed in the 19th century Using Ephesians 3 1 13 as a point of analysis Petroelje theorizes that the text s image of Paul not only anticipates recent revisionist interpretations of Paul s Jewish identity and gentile gospel but also holds together tensions in the collection itself surrounding these questions By analysing ancient letter collections beside their own hermeneutical priorities and applying this method to the late antique and modern reception of the corpus Paulinum Petroelje is able to historicize the origins of the split of Paul s corpus revealing the constructed nature of the critical consensus on Ephesians and the effect that such modern reading strategies have on interpreting the letter Urging a return to reading Ephesians alongside Pauline co texts Petroelje advocates for Ephesians as a crucial source for the study of Paul whether Paul wrote it or not Bertha the Swiss Trader's Daughter Eleni Trataris Cotton,2017-08-17 It is 1915 and the Great War changes everything Born of two cultures black and white the Deuss sisters live lives of privilege in Nyasaland now Malawi a magnificent country where people walk in fear of slave traders where big game is hunted and affluent colonials drink cocktails at sundown It ends suddenly when catastrophic events tear their family apart Bertha and her sisters are left unprotected in a male dominated racist society Rejecting despair they forge a new path for themselves with courage and determination But is this enough to open society s closed doors to build a new life find love and defy what society expects lone girls of mixed race to do This is fact fiction meticulously researched a novel and adventure story which is based on real peoples lives people who experienced the depths of tragedy yet also the heights of joy during their lives on an unforgettably beautiful and wild continent It is a slice of history a window into an enthralling exciting and doomed world that is gone forever

The Pauline Letters David Oliver Smith,2022-06-17 In The Pauline Letters A Rhetorical Analysis David Oliver Smith unveils his revolutionary discovery that the apostle Paul divided his letters into structured literary units as he wrote them These literary units are based upon repeated words phrases and abstract concepts and are invariably patterned into chiasmic parallel or hybrid structures Using his technique of rhetorical analysis Smith sets out each literary unit in the seven undisputed letters of Paul After the structures of the literary units have been exposed the units reveal interpolations that disrupt Paul s original structure When the interpolations revealed by this technique are compared with interpolations heretofore proposed by Pauline scholars there are some surprising results Smith also uses his technique to analyze the Deutero Pauline letters to determine whether any of those letters exhibit the same literary attributes as the undisputed letters
