Pauline At The Beach:

PAULINE AT THE BEACH Éric Rohmer, 1983 New York Magazine ,1983-08-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Music in Cinema Michel Chion, 2021-10-12 Michel Chion is renowned for his explorations of the significance of frequently overlooked elements of cinema particularly the role of sound In this inventive and inviting book Chion considers how cinema has deployed music He shows how music and film not only complement but also transform each other The first section of the book examines film music in historical perspective and the second section addresses the theoretical implications of the crossover between art forms Chion discusses a vast variety of films across eras genres and continents embracing all the different genres of music that filmmakers have used to tell their stories Beginning with live accompaniment of silent films in early movie houses the book analyzes Al Jolson s performance in The Jazz Singer the zither in The Third Man Godard s patchwork sound editing the synthesizer welcoming the flying saucer in Close Encounters of the Third Kind and the Kinshasa orchestra in Felicit among many more Chion considers both original scores and incorporation of preexisting works including the use and reuse of particular composers across cinematic traditions the introduction of popular music such as jazz and rock and directors attraction to atonal and dissonant music as well as musique concrète of which he is a composer Wide ranging and original Music in Cinema offers a welcoming overview for students and general readers as well as refreshingly new and valuable perspectives for film scholars The Film Cheat Murray Pomerance, 2020-10-15 Murray Pomerance venerated film scholar is the first to take on the cheat in film where cheating constitutes a collection of production performance and structuring maneuvers intended to foster the impression of a screen reality that does not exist as presented This usually calls for a suspension of disbelief in the viewer but that rests on the assumption that disbelief is problematic for viewership and that we must find some way to suspend or disconnect it in order to allow for the entertainment of the fiction in its own terms The Film Cheat explores forty five aspects of the cheat analyzing classic films such as Singin in the Rain and Chinatown to more contemporary films like The Revenant and Baby Driver with Pomerance engaging his encyclopedic knowledge of film history to point out numerous instances of suspensions of disbeliefs Whether or not Gene Kelly is actually dancin in the rain or if Elliott is really flying on his bicycle carrying E T these cheats are what make movie magic Elegantly weaving the narrative for one to dip into at random or to read from cover to cover Pomerance turns things upside down so that the audience actually finds pleasure in the cheat itself pleasure in the disbelief To see the elegant fake the supremely accomplished simulacrum is a pleasure in its own right indeed one of the fundamental pleasures of cinema New York Magazine ,1983-08-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Eric Rohmer Éric Rohmer,2013 The 1969 film Ma Nuit chez Maud catapulted its shy academic film director Eric Rohmer 1920 2010 into the limelight selling over a million tickets in France and earning a nomination for an Academy Award Ma Nuit chez Maud remains his most famous film the highlight of an impressive range of films examining the sexual romantic and artistic mores of contemporary France the temptations of desire the small joys of everyday life and sometimes the vicissitudes of history and politics Yet Rohmer was already forty years old when Maud was released and had already had a career as the editor of Cahiers du Cinéma a position he lost in a political takeover in 1963 The interviews in this book offer a range of insights into the theoretical critical and practical circumstances of Rohmer s remarkably coherent body of films but also allow Rohmer to act as his own critic providing us with an array of readings concerning his interest in setting season color and narrative Alongside the application of a theoretical rigor to his own films Rohmer s interviews also discuss directors as varied as Godard Carné Renoir and Hitchcock and the relations of film to painting architecture and music This book reproduces little known interviews such as a debate Rohmer undertakes with Women and Film concerning feminism alongside detailed discussions from Cahiers and Positif many produced in English here for the first time

Balzac Reframed Zahra Tavassoli Zea,2019-11-14 This book examines the theoretical affiliations between the most notable proponent of literary realism Honor de Balzac and two understated but key representatives of the French New Wave Éric Rohmer and Jacques Rivette It argues that their film criticism which gradually led to the establishment of a common aesthetic vision of cinema the politique des auteurs owes more to Balzac and the nineteenth century novel than to any intellectual trend of the immediate post war period By considering the films of Rohmer and Rivette as an extension of their writings essays film reviews scriptwriting novels and interviews this volume analyses the changing and sometimes opposed ways in which they applied Balzacian principles and themes to their cinematic practice Essentially it understands the exchange between art forms past traditions and contemporaneous currents as the overlooked yet common thread that links these three authors through their own re appropriations of classical and romantic aesthetics in their explorations of modern French society In doing so this study provides further nuance to the conservative versus progressist rupture that is generally assumed between the two directors and offers an innovative reading of The Human Comedy in the light of post war ideas on authorship film adaptation classicism and modernism

The Cinematic Influence Peter C. Pugsley,Ben McCann,2022-12-29 Exploring the multiple aesthetic and cultural links between French and Japanese cinema The Cinematic Influence is packed with vivid examples and case studies of films by Akira Kurosawa Jean Luc Godard Hirokazu Koreeda Claire Denis Naomi Kawase Michel Gondry and many others It illustrates the vast array of cinematic connections that mark a long history of mutual influence and reverence between filmmakers in France and Japan The book provides new insights into the ways that national cinemas resist Hollywood to maintain and strengthen their own cultural practices and how these national cinemas perform the task of informing and enlightening other cultures about what it means to be French or Japanese This book also deepens our understandings of film s role as a viable cultural and economic player in individual nations Importantly the reader will see that film operates as a form of cultural exchange between France and Japan and more broadly Europe and Asia This is the first major book to investigate the crossover between these two diverse national cinemas by tracking their history of shared narrative and stylistic techniques

Modern European cinema and love Richard Rushton, 2023-05-23 Modern European cinema and love examines nine European directors whose films contain stories about romantic love and marriage The directors are Jean Renoir Ingmar Bergman Alain Resnais Michelangelo Antonioni Agn s Varda Fran ois Truffaut Federico Fellini Jean Luc Godard and ric Rohmer The book approaches questions of love and marriage from a philosophical perspective applying the ideas of authors such as Stanley Cavell Leo Bersani Luce Irigaray and Alain Badiou while also tracing key concepts from Freudian psychoanalysis Each of the filmmakers engages deeply with notions of modern love and marriage often in positive ways but also in ways that question the institutions of love marriage and the couple

Rohmer is one of the most popular French directors of the second half of the 20th century one of the members of the famous Nouvelle Vague that reconstituted French cinema based on the theoretical principles articulated in the Cahiers du Cinéma from whose editorship he was fired when the conservative Catholic opposed its turn toward politicization Like some of his colleagues Rohmer is extremely interested in both the history and the philosophy of film Brother of the noted French philosopher René Schérer he begins his career as a film critic In his films deep moral conflicts as well as the search for one's own identity emerge from the intricacies of seemingly superficial everyday life interactions particularly between a man and a woman Hösle's book puts Rohmer in the context of a long French tradition of reflected eroticism with Marivaux Musset Stendhal and Jean Renoir as crucial figures and shows how Rohmer both recognizes the inner logic of eroticism and subjects it to moral demands that he inherits from his Catholic background For Rohmer the tension between the two can usually only be solved by some unexpected event that can be interpreted as an equivalent of grace
