La poésie française du premier XVIIe siècle : 1598-1630 Henri Lafay, 1975-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérotée d'un livre paru au XXe siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine Amphion Orator Michael Taormina, 2021-02-15 This new approach to Malherbe's odes interweaves political cultural rhetorical and literary history to show how they constitute a unified sequence whose ambition is to forge a new national community in the aftermath of the Wars of Religion dislodging Malherbe from his moribund critical reception as a grammarian and technician and recovering the brilliance of a poetic genius whose political mythmaking stems from an impassioned patriotism Music and the Language of Love Catherine Gordon-Seifert, 2011-04-07 Simple songs or airs in which a male poetic voice either seduces or excoriates a female object were an influential vocal genre of the French Baroque era In this comprehensive and interdisciplinary study Catherine Gordon Seifert analyzes the style of airs which was based on rhetorical devices of lyric poetry and explores the function and meaning of airs in French society particularly the salons She shows how airs deployed in both text and music an encoded language that was in sensuous contrast to polite society's cultivation of chaste love strict gender roles and restrained discourse Powerful Connections Peter William Shoemaker, 2007 Powerful Connections The Poetics of Patronage in the Age of Louis XIII explores the role of patronage in shaping French literary culture between 1614 and 1661 a period that witnessed both the rise of the early modern state under Richelieu and the beginnings of modern literary culture in the salons and academies It includes readings of texts by authors such as Jean Louis Guez de Balzac Theophile de Viau Charles Sorel and Pierre Corneille that reveal the personal side of political power and its impact upon literary practice The Princeton Handbook of Multicultural Poetries Terry V.F. Brogan, 2021-04-13 Drawn from the acclaimed New Princeton Encyclopedia of Poetry and Poetics the articles in this concise new reference book provide a complete survey of the poetic history and practice in every major national literature or cultural tradition in the world As with the parent volume which has sold over 10 000 copies since it was first published in 1993 the intended audience is general readers journalists students teachers and researchers The editor's principle of selection was balance and his goal was to embrace in a structured and reasoned way the diversity of poetry as it is known across the globe today In compiling material on 106 cultures in 92 national literatures the book gives full coverage to Indo European poetries all the major Celtic Slavic

Germanic and Romance languages as well as other obscure ones such as Hittite the ancient middle Eastern poetries Hebrew Persian Sumerian and Assyro Babylonian subcontinental Indian poetries the widest linguistic diversity Asian and Pacific poetries Chinese Japanese Korean Vietnamese Mongolian and half a dozen others continental American poetries all the modern Western cultures and native Indian in North Central and South American regions and African poetries ancient and emergent oral and written

Retrospectives Neil Kenny, 2017-12-02 Terence Cave's work has made a major contribution to the rethinking of the relationship between literature history and culture over the last half century Retrospectives brings together substantially revised versions of studies written since 1970 together they constitute a searching methodological investigation of the practice of reading past texts How do our ways of reading such texts compare with those practised in the periods when they were written How do we distinguish between what a text meant in its own time and what it has come to mean over time And how might reading provide access to past experiences The book's epicentre is early modern French culture but it extends to that culture's ancient Greek and Roman models its European contexts and the afterlives of some of its themes from Pascal via George Eliot to Angela Carter

Gedichte, franz Claire Gaudiani, 1981

The Cambridge History of French Literature William Burgwinkle, Nicholas Hammond, Emma Wilson, 2011-02-24 From Occitan poetry to Francophone writing produced in the Caribbean and North Africa from intellectual history to current films and from medieval manuscripts to bandes dessinées this History covers French literature from its beginnings to the present day With equal attention to all genres historical periods and registers this is the most comprehensive guide to literature written in French ever produced in English and the first in decades to offer such an array of topics and perspectives Contributors attend to issues of orality history peripheries visual culture alterity sexuality religion politics autobiography and testimony The result is a collection that despite the wide variety of topics and perspectives presents a unified view of the richness of French speaking cultures This History gives support to the idea that French writing will continue to prosper in the twenty first century as it adapts adds to and refocuses the rich legacy of its past

The Shape of Change, 2021-11-01 In The Shape of Change Anne L Birberick and Russell Ganim bring together essays by fourteen established scholars who dedicate their studies to David Rubin as they explore the ways in which artistic endeavor shapes and is shaped by literary memory The volume is divided into two sections The first section Continuity and Discontinuity offers essays by Jody Enders Timothy Reiss Twyla Meding Marie Odile Sweetser Robert Corum Jr and the editors themselves and considers the ways in which seventeenth century authors draw upon generic conventions or diverse artistic media to create works that reflect the aesthetic and moral values of their time The second section entitled La Fontaine focuses primarily on Jean de La Fontaine's masterpiece Les Fables Here the problem of imitation and innovation as it relates to genre influence and literary reputation is examined in essays by Jules Brody Richard Danner Judd Hubert Catherine Gris Michael Vincent Nicholas Cronk and Ralph Albanese Jr The Shape of Change serves as a fine scholarly contribution to the studies of French seventeenth century literature and La Fontaine The essays are thoughtful as well as thought provoking and the volume s critical diversity is nicely balanced by its thematic coherence In its ability to stimulate new thinking this collection of essays will be of interest to both students and scholars of early modern France
