Crime Prevention in the Urban Community

Kōichi Miyazawa, Setsuo Miyazawa, 1995-04-30 One of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology ISC held at Chuo University Tokyo It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world This makes an interchange of ideas between Western Eastern and Third World criminologists particularly important General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency The existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort

Everyone a Sheriff Martin Alan Greenberg, 2021-10-19 In Everyone a Sheriff the word sheriff serves as a metaphor for programs involving citizens in social control initiatives Partnership between community members and their local police force is at the heart of any effective strategy aimed at reducing urban crime and insecurity Ordinary community residents represent a vast untapped resource in the fight against crime disorder and fear The real story of citizens long association with the policing function is revealed The book highlights include an in depth examination of volunteerism primarily at the law enforcement level the importance of preparing youth and minorities for careers in policing and homeland security the need for transitioning police and citizen volunteers from serving not only as peacekeepers but becoming peacemakers a realistic view of various pitfalls when regular and volunteer police are thrust into patterns of co existence when fighting crime out on the street or seeking solutions to crime numerous examples of current police sponsored citizen academies police cadet and junior deputy programs histories of the invention of police and citizen supported neighborhood crime watch programs The only way to successfully cross the divide between the police and public is to give meaning to the phrase the police are the people and the people are the police
