

POLICING SHANGHAI

1927-1937

FREDERIC WAKEMAN, JR.

Policing Shanghai 1927 1937

Judith M. Brown, Rosemary Foot

Policing Shanghai 1927-1937:

Policing Shanghai, 1927-1937 Frederic Wakeman, 1995 This detailed study of the modern Chinese police force shows how the Nationalist forces under General Chiang Kai shek set about to return Shanghai to Chinese rule competing with the consular police forces of France Japan and the International Settlement

Policing Shanghai, 1927-1937 Frederic E. Wakeman, 1995-01-01 Prewar Shanghai casinos brothels Green Gang racketeers narcotics syndicates gun runners underground Communist assassins Comintern secret agents Frederic Wakeman's masterful study of the most colorful and corrupt city in the world at the time provides a panoramic view of the confrontation and collaboration between the Nationalist secret police and the Shanghai underworld In detailing the life and politics of China's largest urban center during the Guomindang era Wakeman covers an array of topics the puritanical social controls implemented by the police the regional differences that surfaced among Shanghai's Chinese the influence of imperialism and Western trained officials Parts of this book read like a spy novel with secret police torture assassination and power struggles among the French International Settlement and Japanese consular police within Shanghai Chiang Kai shek wanted to prove that the Chinese could rule Shanghai and the country by themselves rather than be exploited and dominated by foreign powers His efforts to reclaim the crime ridden city failed partly because of the outbreak of war with Japan in 1937 but also because the Nationalist police force was itself corrupted by the city Wakeman's exhaustively researched study is a major contribution to the study of the Nationalist regime and to modern Chinese urban history It also shows that twentieth century China has not been characterized by discontinuity because autocratic government whether Nationalist or Communist has prevailed

The Origins of Leftwing Cinema in China,

1932-37 Vivian Shen, 2013-01-11 This book takes a cultural studies approach to analyze and account for the ways in which related to film literature cultural production ideology social change and modernity were raised in the leftwing film movement of the 1930s Port Cities in Asia and Europe Arndt Graf, Chua Beng Huat, 2008-11-20 With the demise of European socialist economies and the marketization of Asian communist countries a new global capitalism has reshaped the configuration of the world economy with speed a determining factor to all transactions of information finance goods and services and people Sea ports that were significant for a slower but no less global economy have been undergoing transformation to stay economically and culturally relevant Some manage to reinvent themselves as tourist cities some face decline if they do not manage to transform This volume looks at a number of port cities in Asia and Europe that face this pressure With contributions considering history contemporary developments contacts between ports the representation of ports and the relations between port cities and their hinterlands This comparative study identifies many parallels between local histories and developments in the Asian and European port cities as well as new opportunities for sharing experiences and learning from the developments and decisions in similar situations in other port cities Hygienic Modernity Ruth

Rogaski, 2004 Placing meanings of health and disease at the center of modern Chinese consciousness Ruth Rogaski reveals how hygiene became a crucial element in the formulation of Chinese modernity in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Rogaski focuses on multiple manifestations across time of a single Chinese concept weisheng which has been rendered into English as hygiene sanitary health or public health as it emerged in the complex treaty port environment of Tianjin Before the late nineteenth century weisheng was associated with diverse regimens of diet meditation and self medication Hygienic Modernity reveals how meanings of weisheng with the arrival of violent imperialism shifted from Chinese cosmology to encompass such ideas as national sovereignty laboratory knowledge the cleanliness of bodies and the fitness of races categories in which the Chinese were often deemed lacking by foreign observers and Chinese elites alike Refugees from

Nazi Germany and the Liberal European States Frank Caestecker, Bob Moore, 2010 The exodus of refugees from Nazi Germany in the 1930s has received far more attention from historians social scientists and demographers than many other migrations and persecutions in Europe However as a result of the overwhelming attention that has been given to the Holocaust within the historiography of Europe and the Second World War the issues surrounding the flight of people from Nazi Germany prior to 1939 have been seen as Vorgeschichte pre history Based on a comparative analysis of national case studies this volume deals with the challenges that the pre 1939 movement of refugees from Germany and Austria posed to the immigration controls in the countries of interwar Europe Publisher's description China's Security State Xuezh

Guo, 2012-08-29 China's Security State describes the creation evolution and development of Chinese security and intelligence agencies as well as their role in influencing Chinese Communist Party politics throughout the party's history Xuezh Guo investigates patterns of leadership politics from the vantage point of security and intelligence organization and operation by providing new evidence and offering alternative interpretations of major events throughout Chinese Communist Party history This analysis promotes a better understanding of the CCP's mechanisms for control over both Party members and the general population This study specifies some of the broader implications for theory and research that can help clarify the nature of Chinese politics and potential future developments in the country's security and intelligence services Hong Kong's

Transitions, 1842-1997 Judith M. Brown, Rosemary Foot, 1997-06-12 The reversion of Hong Kong to China on 1 July 1997 is an event of major historical significance This volume examines this dramatic event from a long term perspective against the background of earlier turning points in Hong Kong's political economic and social history It also explores Hong Kong's links with China and Britain in this troubled last decade of colonial rule and offers a basis for assessing the territory's possible future as a part of the Chinese state The YWCA in China Elizabeth A. Littell-Lamb, 2023-11-15 The YWCA arrived in China as a cultural interloper in 1899 How did activist Christian Chinese women maintain their identity and social relevance through the tumultuous first half of the twentieth century The YWCA in China explores how the Young Women's Christian Association responded to the needs of Chinese women and society both before and after the 1949 revolution ushered in a communist state Western secretaries originally defined the Chinese YWCA movement but successive generations of Chinese leadership localized its Western defined organizational ethos Over time the Y became class conscious and progressive as Chinese women transformed it from a vehicle for moral and material uplift to an instrument for social action and an organizational citizen of China And after 1949 national YWCA leaders supported the Maoist regime because they believed the social goals of the YWCA aligned with Mao's revolutionary aims The YWCA in China is a fascinating investigation of the lives thinking and action of women whose varied forms of Christian and Chinese identity were buffeted by historical events that moulded their social philosophies Historical Perspectives on Contemporary East Asia Merle Goldman, Andrew

Gordon, 2000-08-15 In these original essays distinguished scholars of modern East Asia distill from long years of research interpretive accounts of late nineteenth and twentieth century China Japan and Korea All of the contributors describe particular features of the modern experience of East Asian countries while also addressing common themes
