Political Animal Why We Dont Like Politicians:

Political Animal David Marr, 2013-03-31 The essential work on Tony Abbott is now an expanded updated short book and a crucial election year companion Australians want to know what kind of man is Tony Abbott and how would he perform as prime minister In this dramatic portrait David Marr shows that as a young Catholic warrior at university Abbott was already a brutally effective politician He later led the way in defeating the republic and as the self proclaimed political love child of John Howard rose rapidly in the Liberal Party Marr shows that Abbott thrives on chaos and conflict Part fighter and part charmer he is deeply religious and deeply political What happens then when his values clash with his need to win This is the great puzzle of his career but the closer he is to taking power the more guarded he has become Political Animal s release as a Quarterly Essay in 2012 with its revelations of the punch triggered intense scrutiny of Abbott s character which culminated in Gillard s memorable speech accusing him of misogyny and soon after Abbott s worst ever public approval rating This significantly expanded and updated short book gives the clearest picture yet of the man Abbott is and the prime minister he would be Since witnessing the Hewson catastrophe at first hand Abbott has worn a mask He has grown and changed Life and politics have taught him a great deal But how this has shaped the fundamental Abbott is carefully obscured What has been abandoned What is merely hidden on the road to power What makes people so uneasy about Abbott is the sense that he is biding his time that there is a very hard operator somewhere behind that mask waiting for power David Marr Political Animal It s a more fair minded and more generous assessment than many people perhaps myself included had expected We have very different perspectives on the world but to his credit to some extent David Marr was able to step outside the standard leftist critique and appreciate that here was a more nuanced and complex character than perhaps many of the standard left leaning critics would concede Having said all of that I certainly don t think all of his judgments were fair and I don t think all of his interpretations were correct Tony Abbott Winner 2013 John Button Prize Quarterly Essay 47 Political Animal David Marr, 2012-09-01 Winner 2013 John Button Prize Tony Abbott is the most successful Opposition leader of the last forty years but he has never been popular Now Australians want to know what kind of man is he and how would he perform as prime minister In this dramatic portrait David Marr shows that as a young Catholic warrior at university Abbott was already a brutally effective politician He later led the way in defeating the republic and as the self proclaimed political love child of John Howard rose rapidly in the Liberal Party His reputation as a head kicker and hard liner made him an unlikely leader but when the time came his opposition to the emissions trading scheme proved decisive Marr shows that Abbott thrives on chaos and conflict Part fighter and part charmer he is deeply religious and deeply political What happens then when his values clash with his need to win This is the great puzzle of his career but the closer he is to taking power the more guarded he has become Since witnessing the Hewson catastrophe at first hand Abbott has worn a mask He has grown and changed Life and politics have taught him a great deal But how this has shaped the fundamental Abbott is carefully obscured What has been abandoned What is merely hidden on the road to power What makes people so uneasy about Abbott is the sense that he is biding his time that there is a very hard operator somewhere behind that mask waiting for power David Marr Political Animal This is no character assassination Marr is not afraid to praise Abbott in places and respects his political skills and intelligence Michael McGuire the Advertiser David Marr is as brilliant a biographer and journalist as this country has produced Peter Craven Australian Spectator If you want to hit a man where it hurts hit him in the groin David Marr doesn't miss in his Quarterly Essay profile Chris Wallace Canberra Times David Marr is the multi award winning author of Patrick White A Life Panic and The High Price of Heaven and co author with Marian Wilkinson of Dark Victory He has written for the Sydney Morning Herald the Age and the Monthly been editor of the National Times a reporter for Four Corners and presenter of ABC TV's Media Watch He is also the author of five bestselling biographical Quarterly Essays Man Is by Nature a Political Animal Peter K.
