Thaksin Pasuk Phongpaichit, Chris Baker, 2009-08-01 He made a fortune of two billion US dollars in four years He won four elections by landslides He was overthrown by a coup and driven into exile His opponents and supporters dressed themselves in red and yellow and fought battles on the streets To some he is a visionary even a revolutionary To others he is greedy deceitful deluded dangerous This book was first published in 2004 Four new chapters provide a detailed account of the turmoil of Thai politics over the subsequent five years

The Politics of Uneven Development Richard F. Doner, 2009-02-09 Why do some middle income countries diversify their economies but fail to upgrade to produce world class products based on local inputs and technological capacities Why have the little tigers of Southeast Asia such as Thailand continued to lag behind the Newly Industrializing Countries of East Asia Richard Doner goes beyond political will by emphasizing institutional capacities and political pressures development challenges vary upgrading poses tough challenges that require robust institutional capacities Such strengths are political in origin They reflect pressures such as security threats and resource constraints which motivate political leaders to focus on efficiency more than clientelist payoffs Such pressures help to explain the political institutions veto players through which leaders operate Doner assesses this argument by analyzing Thai development historically in three sectors sugar textiles and autos and in comparison with both weaker and stronger competitors Philippines Indonesia Taiwan Brazil and South Korea Transforming Asian Governance M Ramesh, Scott Fritzen, 2009-01-13 There are a multitude of hazards that confront attempts to change institutional or political orders in pursuit of good governance Even seemingly technical prescriptions run up against local political and social realities which make their adoption difficult and if adopted require significant modification of the original prescriptions Moreover the technical rationalist and or normative language employed in the good governance discourse masks contests over power rights resources and actors conflicting interests There is a definite need to situate the good governance debate in the local context rather than reflexively adopting a universalistic positing of the fact or desirability of governance convergence across countries and sectors because the reality is that the world wide deployment of good governance rhetoric is not accompanied by convergence in thinking or practices across nations Transforming Asian Governance asks How do good governance principles translate into local settings How do local settings influence the conception of what is good governance and how the debate over good governance is deployed as a political or administrative strategy Using case studies in governance from Thailand the Philippines Pakistan Malaysia India Indonesia Korea and Japan this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the public and social policy of Asia and international and comparative governance more generally National Strategic Planning and Practice Liaquat Hossain, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2001 This text explores the relationship between telecommunications strategic planning process TSPP the organization and the environment for developing an understanding of the idea of a national TSPP NTSP in Thailand The overall aim is to explore an understanding of an NTSP by providing a detailed study of the strategic planning and practices of the Thai telecom regulators during the period from 1954 to 1996 It applies the strategic planning process principles to further the understanding of NTSP in Thailand By using the SPP framework the study develops a theoretical TSPP framework for analyzing the underlying TSPP strategies within the national telecom regulators in Thailand It also seeks to illustrate the limitations of the traditional strategic planning theory when applied to NTSP From a theoretical perspective this book illustrates that a lack of formalization and consensus in Thailand's NTSP is the fundamental backlog for the successful operation of its industry Priorities And Pathways In Services Reform: Part Ii - Political Economy Studies Christopher Findlay, 2013-10-10 Services markets remain highly regulated and international trade and investment is restricted Previous works have identified the scope for significant gains from trade yet those results are often debated and the progress on reform has been slow Parts I and II in Priorities and Pathways in Services Reform help fill the gap in the research around this debate Part I Quantitative Studies contains up to date assessment and evaluations of the impact of policy in a range of services markets in different countries through cross country modelling of the impacts of a reform program Part II Political Economy Studies builds on this to address the understanding of what makes a reform successful going beyond a quantification of the benefits of reform This book fills that gap by reporting and reviewing the experience of reform across different sectors and countries Ten key lessons are identified for successful reform Readers will find fresh insights into managing complex issues in services reform Southeast Asia's Chinese Businesses in an Era of Globalization Leo Suryadinata, 2006 Addresses the rise of China and its impacts on Southeast Asia's economies and businesses especially on those of ethnic Chinese Also discusses Southeast Asian government policies particularly their economic and business policies towards local Chinese and Southeast Asian Chinese businesses both conglomerates and SMEs in an era of globalization
