Political Leadership In Africa:

Political Leadership in Africa Giovanni Carbone, Alessandro Pellegata, 2020-03-19 An innovative analysis of political leadership in Africa between 1960 and 2018 drawing on an entirely new dataset Trappings of Power Z. Allan Ntata, 2012 Why is it that by his death having solved the country's hunger problems and set an example for Africa on how to deal with foreign donors and international aid organisations such as the IMF and the World Bank Mutharika was regarded as a pariah both in Malawi and internationally Mutharika had overseen the expansion of the transport infrastructure presided as Chairman of the African Union and helped Malawi achieve rapid GDP growth How is it that he also left Malawi with serious economic problems particularly relating to nonexistent foreign exchange reserves and the inability of the country to import fuel Why is it that that when he died he had become the most hated man in Malawi at least aside from his staunch party followers This book analyses the presidency of Bingu wa Mutharika from the inside his love hate relationship with foreign donors and international aid agencies and his political successes and failures to show how power and political success in Africa is a trap that ensnares African leaders to easily forget their mission to serve the people The role of patronage and culture and the tendency of advisors in contributing to their leaders feelings of infallibility is also highlighted The book uncovers lessons on the inner dynamics of power and politics in Africa that will be enlightening to all interested in African politics specifically and third world political development in general Governance and Leadership in Africa Robert I. Rotberg, 2014-09-29 Many of the problems in Africa today including widespread poverty and civil unrest can be traced to the continents legacy of bad governance In the post independence period authoritarian strongmen took control of many countries enriching themselves and their cronies by exploiting the peoples labor and their countrys resources In recent years however a growing number of African states have embraced democratic principles and established transparent and open governments In this book the noted Africa scholar Dr Robert Rotberg examines the current state of governance and leadership in Africa He discusses the various types of government found in the continent clearly showing the correlation between the quality of a countrys leadership and the quality of life enjoyed by that countrys people Comparative Political Leadership in Africa Girma Yohannes Iyassu Menelik, 2014-07-25 The modern government structures owe their origins to Aristotle's six forms of government These classifications were out dated by the 18th century development of constitutional systems namely Constitutional republicanism established in the USA via the war of independence 1775 1783 democratic radicalism unleashed in France via the French Revolution of 1789 and the parliamentary government which emerged in the United Kingdom During the 20th century the above political systems were collapsed during the post World War II with capitalist communist second world and third world Lessons from Political Leadership in Africa Chris Jones, Pregala Pillay, Purshottama Reddy, Sakhile Zondi, 2022-02-17 The central message of this book is that leadership serves as a blueprint to transform Africa into a global powerhouse There is an urgent need to refocus our efforts on the African Continent and her people while at the same time forging ahead with democratic accountable people centred ethical and transparent governance and leadership Corruption has undoubtedly become a hostile enemy in robbing the poor violating the trust of the people and eroding the moral fibre of society Abuse of power position or office compounded by greed self enrichment and acts of dishonesty has dire consequences for mankind and as such each contribution in this book promotes Africa's vision to sustain humanity and its people away from social ills such as extreme poverty distinct inequalities and large scale unemployment What is needed is a new generation of bold passionate confident inspiring leaders to make a difference and leave an edible mark in the global arena This is the fundamental spirit of leadership for the Africa that this book wants and wishes to nurture We cannot go back and change the past but we can learn lessons both good and bad and change the future towards a bigger better and brighter tomorrow

Political Leadership in Africa John R. Cartwright, 1983-01-01 The Oxford

Handbook of Political Leadership R. A. W. Rhodes, Paul 't Hart, 2014-05-29 Political leadership has made a comeback It was studied intensively not only by political scientists but also by political sociologists and psychologists Sovietologists political anthropologists and by scholars in comparative and development studies from the 1940s to the 1970s Thereafter the field lost its way with the rise of structuralism neo institutionalism and rational choice approaches to the study of politics government and governance Recently however students of politics have returned to studying the role of individual leaders and the exercise of leadership to explain political outcomes The list of topics is nigh endless elections conflict management public policy government popularity development governance networks and regional integration In the media age leaders are presented and stage managed spun DDLas the solution to almost every social problem Through the mass media and the Internet citizens and professional observers follow the rise impact and fall of senior political officeholders at closer quarters than ever before This Handbook encapsulates the resurgence by asking where are we today It orders the multidisciplinary field by identifying the distinct and distinctive contributions of the disciplines It meets the urgent need to take stock It brings together scholars from around the world encouraging a comparative perspective to provide a comprehensive coverage of all the major disciplines methods and regions It showcases both the normative and empirical traditions in political leadership studies and juxtaposes behavioural institutional and interpretive approaches It covers formal office based as well as informal emergent political leadership and in both democratic and undemocratic polities

Digitalization and Gender Equality in Political Leadership in Sub-Saharan Africa Diego B. P. Gomes, Carine Meyimdjui, 2023-06-09 We examine the impact of digitalization on people's perceptions of women as political leaders in 34 Sub Saharan African countries We find that being a social media or internet user is linked to a higher likelihood of people supporting gender equality in political leadership However the intensive margin of usage does not appear to be significant Furthermore women's perceptions of gender equality in political leadership are more sensitive to internet and social media use than men's The paper recommends policies for improving ICT infrastructure and investing in technological education

Law, Religion and Leadership in Africa F. Sibanda, E. Chitando, E.G. Konyana, B.P. Humbe, 2025-05-16 In Africa some heads of state sometimes prefer to take their oath on the Bible or the Quran rather than on an ancestral law or a fearsome fetish capable of causing misery in the event of a violation Thus in order to build credible institutions that can guarantee socio political and economic stability it is desirable to resort to certain ancestral practices in particular strict respect for customs At this level of our reflection it seems useless for Africans to reinvent the wheel rather we must look in the rearview mirror in order to exalt the pre colonial instruments capable of unravelling the invisible mystery of these societies In this same dynamic the ancestral law because of its historical and charismatic legitimacy imposes strict respect for the cosmic order Komo Guy Roland Kossonou Assistant Professor Legal Administrative and Management Sciences Training and Research Unit UFR SJAG Alassane Ouattara University Bouaké Côte d'Ivoire There is no way the church leadership can ignore such issues which affect their people daily and only talk about the future kingdom to come Both the sacred and the secular kingdoms are important matters in the life of people in every community hence religious and political leaders should strive to resolve their conflicts because people look up to them for spiritual and political leadership When political leaders tell religious leaders to stick to preaching the gospel and not involve themselves in the political affairs of the country it silences the church's ability to speak for the poor Upendo Mwakasenga Ordained minister United Church of Zambia Doctoral student in systematic theology University of Kwa Zulu Natal Even today religious cultural beliefs inform the way the youths are viewed within Zimbabwe's political circles Such beliefs infantilize young people and disempower them from effective political participation In most cases this role is postponed into the future The existing political structures and regimes exploit youth to expend their energies as political and military foot soldiers for the political elite but they are not being mentored to be prepared for positions of leadership It therefore becomes crucial to question the maxim the future is young which seems to procrastinate youth political leadership in Zimbabwe Molly Manyonganise Senior Lecturer Department of Religious Studies and Philosophy Zimbabwe Open University Ultimately God provides and heals but the fisherman must still cast his net the farmer must still till the soil and the doctor must still administer medication It is no different in matters of governance military warfare or institution building Personal piety is inconsequential to the empirical workings of the world but it may weigh on the scales in the hereafter The Brotherhood's fatalism blinds them to the worldly instruments needed to govern a nation Study and experience in economic policy and statecraft cannot be replaced with saintly endeavours such as worship and charity Nabil Yasien Mohamed Lecturer in Islamic Studies Department of Religion and Theology University of the Western Cape

Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general
