McCarthy, 1991 This excellent volume explores three forms of pluralist theory those based on historical doctrines of custom and tradition Catholic doctrines of natural law and subsidiarity and Calvinist doctrines of sphere sovereignty and creation and compares and evaluates each of these forms of pluralism within the context of American thought Faith and Order Harold J. Berman, 2000 This book argues that despite the tensions existing in all societies between religious faith and legal order they inevitably interact In the course of his discussion Berman traces the history of Western law exposes the fallacies of law theories that fail to take religion into account examines key theological prophetic and educational themes and looks at the role of religion in the Soviet and post Soviet state

Paeth, 2016-04-15 This book investigates the intersection of theology and social theory in the work of Jürgen Moltmann In particular it examines the way in which his concept of the Exodus Church can illuminate the importance of the idea of civil society for a Christian public theology The concept of civil society can aid in moving from the narrower category of political theology a term used frequently by Moltmann to emphasize the church's public commitment to a broader understanding of theology's public task which takes into account the plurality of ends and institutions within society The idea of the Exodus Church enables deeper understanding of Christian ethical participation within a complex modern society The Future of Creation Order Gerrit Glas, Jeroen de Ridder, 2018-01-12 This work provides an overview of attempts to assess the current condition of the concept of creation order within reformational philosophy compared to other perspectives Focusing on the natural and life sciences and theology this first volume of two examines the arguments for and against the beauty coherence and order shown in the natural world being related to the will or nature of a Creator It examines the decay of a Deist universe and the idea of the pre-giveness of norms laws and structures as challenged by evolutionary theory and social philosophy It describes the different responses to the collapse of order that given by Christian philosophy scholars who still argue for the idea of a pre given world order and that of other scholars who see this idea of stable creation order and or natural law as redundant and in need of a thorough rethinking It studies the particular role that reformational philosophy has played in the discussion It shows how ever since its inception almost a century ago the concepts of order and law principle structure have been at the heart of this philosophy and that one way to characterise this tradition is as a philosophy of creation order Reformational philosophers have maintained the notion of law as holding for reality This book discusses the questions that have arisen about the nature of such law is it a religious or philosophical concept does law just mean orderliness How does it relate to laws of nature Have they always existed or do they emerge during the process of evolution

Education Law and Policy in an Urban Society Piet Akkermans,Jan De Groof,Hilde Penneman,1999-05-27 Just how fascinating the discussion between the disciplines of education law and education policy can be was apparent at the Annual Congress of the European Education Law and Policy Association ELA in Rotterdam in December 1997 Although on this occasion the option was for an education policy subject a multidisciplinary approach is always to be preferred Policy makers interrogate lawyers lawyers question scientists from other fields of study and lines of practice It was at the same time a further illustration of how inspiring and productive in the context of the European Union at any rate comparative analyses can be for national and international education and social policy The theme of the 1997 Congress and consequently of this Yearbook was urban education policy and its legal form as the touchstone of the modern interpretation of individual and social rights This collection of thought provoking essays and country reports thus centres on the question what challenges for education do urban associations represent

Retrieving the Natural Law J. Daryl Charles,2008-04-14 J Daryl Charles argues that a traditional metaphysics of natural law lies at the heart of the present reconstructive project and that a revival in natural law thinking is of the highest priority for the Christian community as we contend in rather than abdicate the public square Nowhere is this more on display than in the realm of bioethics where the most basic moral questions human personhood human rights versus responsibilities the reality of moral evil the basis of civil society are being debated from publisher description
