Political Organization in Central Asia and Azerbaijan Vladimir Babak, Demian Vaisman, Aryeh

Wasserman, 2004-11-23 This work contains a selection of annotated documents including party platforms and declarations of the major political groupings in the Islamic republics of the former Soviet Union. The book covers primarily the period from 1991 to 1994 which can be characterized as the first stage in the formation of a pluralistic society in these emerging states. Two divergent trends of developments can be identified from the sources: the first is a tendency toward the creation of independent states based on traditional models; the other towards independent states with Western style democracies and pro Russian orientation.

Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins, 2023-06-06 In Politicizing Islam in Central Asia Kathleen Collins explores the causes, dynamics and variation in Islamist movements first within the USSR and then in the post Soviet states of Tajikistan, Uzbekistan and Kyrgyzstan. Drawing upon extensive ethnographic and historical research on Islamist mobilization across numerous post Soviet Central Asian countries she covers over a century and explains the strategies and relative success of each movement. Collins argues that in each case state repression of Islam and ideology motivated and enabled Islamist mobilization.

Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia Mariya Y. Omelicheva, 2014-12-17 More than two decades after the break up of the Soviet Union, Central Asian republics Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan continue to reexamine and debate whom and what they represent. Nationalism and Identity Construction in Central Asia explores the complex and controversial process of identity formation in the region using a 3D framework which stands for Dimensions, Dynamics and Directions of nation building. The first part of the framework, dimensions, underscores the new and complex ways in which nationalisms and identities manifest themselves in Central Asia. The second part, dynamics, is premised on the idea that nationalisms and identity construction in the Central Asian republics may indicate some continuities with the past but are more concerned with legitimation of the present power politics in these states. It calls for the identification of the main actors, strategies, tactics, interests and reactions to the processes of nationalism and identity construction. The third part of the framework, directions, addresses implications of nationalisms and identity construction in Central Asia for regional and international peace and cooperation. Jointly, the chapters of the volume address domestic and international level dimensions, dynamics and directions of identity formation in Central Asia. What unites these works is their shared modern and post modern understanding of nations, nationalisms and identities as discursive, strategic and tactical formations. They are viewed as constructed and imagined and therefore continuously changing but also fragmented and contested.

Critical Approaches to Security in Central Asia Edward Lemon, 2020-05-21 Central Asia remains on the periphery both spatially and in people's imaginations. When the region does attract international attention it is often related to security issues including terrorism, ethnic conflict and drug trafficking. This book brings together leading specialists from a range of disciplines including geography, anthropology, sociology and political science to discuss how citizens and governments within Central Asia think about and practise security The authors explore how governments use fears of instability to bolster their rule and how securitized populations cope with and resist being labelled threats through strategies that are rarely associated with security including marriage and changing their appearance This collection examines a wide range of security issues including Islamic extremism small arms interethnic relations and border regions While coverage of the region often departs from preconceived notions of the region as dangerous obscure and volatile the chapters in this book all place emphasis on the way local people understand security and harmony in their daily lives This book will be of interest to students and researchers of Central Asian Studies as well as Security Studies and Political Science The chapters were originally published in the journal Central Asian Survey

Semi-Presidentialism in the Caucasus and Central Asia Robert Elgie, Sophia Moestrup, 2016-05-14 This edited collection examines the politics of semi presidential countries in the Caucasus and Central Asia Semi presidentialism is the situation where there is both a directly elected fixed term president and a prime minister and cabinet that are collectively responsible for the legislature There are four countries with a semi presidential constitution in this region Armenia Azerbaijan Georgia and Kyrgyzstan The authors introduce the concept of semi presidentialism place the countries in a general post Soviet context and compare them with Kazakhstan They investigate the relationship between semi presidentialism in the formal constitution and the verticality of power in reality explore the extent to which semi presidentialism has been responsible for the relative performance of democracy in each country and chart the relationship within the executive both between the president prime minister and ministers and between the executive and the legislature

Islamic Republic of Iran's Foreign Policy in the South Caucasus Shabnam Dadparvar, 2023-10-09 This book delves into the connections between the Islamic Republic of Iran and the countries of the southern Caucasus region following the 1979 revolution It focuses on their political economic and cultural interactions and elaborates on Iran's foreign policy principles discourses and significant decision making institutions It also addresses the process of nation state building in the southern Caucasus the challenges involved and the geopolitical and strategic importance of this area for Iran Factors influencing the relations are scrutinised alongside an evaluation of the proposed accession of the Republic of Azerbaijan into Iran based on insights from Hashemi Rafsanjani's diary The work further investigates the legal framework of the Caspian Sea and Aras River examines the strategic implications of the 2020 Nagorno Karabakh conflict for Iran and other relevant actors and analyses the repercussions of the Ukraine war on transportation routes This book will help researchers of the Middle East and the Caucasus better understand Iran's relations with the region

The Heritage of Soviet Oriental Studies Michael Kemper, Stephan Conermann, 2011-02 The Western field of oriental studies and orientalism criticised by Edward Said among others for encouraging the orient to be viewed in a particular way has a counterpart in Russia and the Soviet Union This book examines this Russian Soviet intellectual tradition of oriental scholarship covering Islamic history and Muslim literatures of

,2012-08-24 This volume points to methodological innovations in social research and their potential for social scientific studies of religion Computerization has opened for both quantitative and qualitative systematic analyses of complex materials and the epistemological discourse after Positivism has opened for reconsidering the foundation of empirical social research Furthermore religion is changing and sociology of religion therefore widens its scope by including non institutional forms of religion This refocusing calls for new methodological considerations As the range of available methods expands it becomes more pressing to consider whether and how methods can be combined such as quantitative and qualitative methods Studying religion as a complex social phenomenon calls for a variety of methods but an integration of the empirical findings points back to the epistemological issue      Warlords and Coalition Politics in Post-Soviet States Jesse Driscoll,2015-07-02 This book presents an account of war settlement in Georgia and Tajikistan as local actors maneuvered in the shadow of a Russian led military intervention Combining ethnography and game theory and quantitative and qualitative methods this book presents a revisionist account of the post Soviet wars and their settlement      From Europeanisation to Diffusion Tanja A. Borzel,Thomas Risse,2020-11-25 This book provides a comprehensive account of the extent to which policies and institutions of the European Union EU spread across different contexts Are the EU s attempts to transfer its policies and institutions to accession and neighbourhood countries sustainable and effective To what degree do other regions of the world emulate the EU s institutional features what are the mechanisms of and conditions for their diffusion Chapters deal with Europeanization in the new EU member states particularly in Romania and Bulgaria in current accession candidates i e the Western Balkans and Turkey as well the Eastern Southern Caucasus and Southern Neighbourhood Israel and the Maghreb In addition authors investigate the diffusion of EU policies and institutions in Sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The authors place Europeanization studies in the wider context of research on transnational diffusion and examine the relevant mechanisms and processes including incentives and capacity building socialization and learning as well as functional and normative emulation Finally the book discusses what conditions lead to the successful diffusion of European institutions and policies such as domestic incentives degrees of limited statehood regime type and power a symmetries This book was originally published as a special issue of West European Politics
