M. A. Keens-Soper, Maurice Keens-Soper, 1996 Designed to give all students of political ideas a fuller appreciation of the great works which form the foundation of the subject The Political Classics provides a lively and informed introduction to the last four hundred years of political thinking covering twelve major figures and their most important texts from T H Green to Ronald Dworkin Besides giving a full analysis of the contents of each text The Political Classics also highlights what makes the works of central importance to an understanding of political philosophy The twelve chapters concentrate on the ideas contained in the texts rather than on the lives of their writers and each chapter is supplemented with useful suggestions for further reading The clear analysis and explanation contained in each essay allow the reader to study the original texts with new understanding and insight Catalogue of Works Relating to Political Economy & the Science of Government in the Library of Congress Library of Congress, 1869 Modern Political Thinkers and Ideas Tudor Jones, 2012-09-10 Modern Political Thinkers and Ideas is an exciting new text that provides students with a clearly presented introduction to some of the key areas of modern political thought Uniquely combining historical and philosophical approaches to the subject it describes the writings and ideas of the most influential thinkers of the modern era Modern Political Thinkers and Ideas features the main concepts in modern political theory such as the State and Sovereignty Political Obligation and Civil Disobedience Liberty Rights Equality

Classical Debates for the 21st Century Thomas Hueglin,2008-02-01
Classical Debates for the 21st Century distinctively reconsiders the canon of political thought in the context of current world events by presenting debates between the ideas of classical theorists It is through these debates that Thomas O Hueglin argues that exclusive state sovereignty individual citizenship and majority rule have become questionable categories of political theory and practice in a globalizing world To a large extent the classical canon of political thought has been constructed in order to give legitimacy to these categories but it is time to rethink the validity of that canon and to search for alternative voices and traditions that emphasize plurality shared sovereignty and complex patterns of representation and decision making This does not mean that the familiar names in the classical canon have to disappear But they should be examined more critically for their continued importance and additional theorists thus far neglected should complement them Each chapter is organized as a debate between two theorists with contrasting views and approaches At the end of each chapter there is a critical evaluation of these political theorists continued or renewed relevance
