Dictionary of Twentieth-Century British Philosophers Stuart Brown, 2005-06-01 This is a two volume work with entries on individuals who made some contribution to philosophy in the period 1900 to 1960 or soon after The entries deal with the whole philosophical work of an individual or in the case of philosophers still living their whole work to date Typically the individuals included have been born by 1935 and by now have made their main contributions Contributions to the subject typically take the form of books or journal articles but influential teachers and people otherwise important in the world of philosophy may also be included The dictionary includes amateurs as well as professional philosophers and where appropriate thinkers whose main discipline was outside philosophy There are special problems about the term British in the twentieth century partly because of human migration partly because of decolonialization and the changing denotation of the term The intention has been to include not only those who were British subjects at least for a significant part of their lives even if they mostly lived outside what is now the U K but also people who spent a significant part of their lives in Britain itself irrespective of their nationality or country of origin In the first category are included for instance a number of people who were born and educated in Britain but who subsequently taught in universities abroad In the second category are included those who were born elsewhere but who came to Britain and contributed to its philosophical culture The Routledge Dictionary of Twentieth-Century Political Thinkers Robert Benewick, Philip Green, 2002-09-11 This edition has been revised and extended to include eleven new entries on Berlin Chomsky Derrida Rorty and many others Comprising 169 entries it also includes non Western political thinkers German Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Julian Young, 2020-10-25 The course of German philosophy in the twentieth century is one of the most exciting and controversial in the history of human thought In this outstanding and engaging introduction a companion volume to his German Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Weber to Heidegger Julian Young examines and assesses the way in which some of the major German thinkers of the period reacted often in starkly contrasting ways to the challenges posed by the nature of modernity the failure of liberalism and the concept of decline Divided into two parts exploring major intellectual figures of the left and right respectively Young introduces and assesses the thought of the following figures Georg Lukacs the critique of capitalism alienation reification and false consciousness Ernst Bloch the Marxist utopia Walter Benjamin the confluence of phenomenology and left wing thought the Arcades Project aura and the technological reproduction of the artwork Oswald Spengler the pessimistic right and the concept of Western decline Max Scheler Catholic conservatism and the objective hierarchy of values Carl Schmitt the failure of liberalism dictatorship friends versus enemies Leo Strauss the rejection of moral relativism and the return to classical philosophy Highly relevant when the viability of liberal democracy is again called into question German Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Lukacs to Strauss is essential reading for students of German philosophy phenomenology and critical theory and will also be of interest to students in related fields such as literature religious studies and political theory

Columbia Companion to Twentieth-century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European Continental traditions The first section features Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science The volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by Constantin V Boundas not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and Continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Offering an unusually panoramic perspective the Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies enables readers to encounter foundational materials on their own terms The Cambridge History of Twentieth-Century Political Thought
