conditions of the production of African literature Drawing on the archives of Heinemann's African Writers Series it highlights the procedures relationships demands ideologies and counterpressures engendered by the publication of three major authors Chinua Achebe Wole Soyinka and Ngugi wa Thiongo As a study of the history and techniques of African literary texts this book advances a theory of reciprocity of effects what it terms auto heteronomy to describe the dynamic of formalist activism by which texts anticipate and shape the forces of literary production in advance It serves as a departure from the death of the author thesis by reconsidering the role of the author in African literature and culture industry as well as the influence of African publics on writers aesthetic choices and on the overall processes of production This work is a major contribution to African literary history literary criticism and book history

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues

Against the Odds Mary Ndlovu, 2013-05-13 1978 In Rhodesia the Internal Settlement led to the creation of a coalition government Smith had however neither capitulated nor abandoned his belief in white superiority and thousands of people fled across the countrys borders In England a group of missionaries supported by the Catholic Institute for International Relations formed a steering group that was to become the Zimbabwe Project Originally an educational fund to support exiled young Zimbabweans it shifted focus toward humanitarian assistance to refugees in the region 1981 The Zimbabwe Project Trust a child of the war This lively book interrogates the African postcolonial condition with a focus on the thematics of liberation predicament and the long standing crisis of dependence epistemological cultural economic and political created by colonialism and coloniality A sophisticated deployment of historical philosophical and political knowledge in combination with the equi primordial concepts of coloniality of power coloniality of being and coloniality of knowledge yields a comprehensive and truly refreshing understanding of African realities of subalternity How global imperial designs and coloniality of power shaped the architecture of African social formations and disciplined the social forces towards a convoluted postcolonial neocolonized paralysis dominated by myths of decolonization and illusions of freedom emerges poignantly in this important book What distinguishes this book is its decolonial entry that enables a critical examination of the grammar of decolonization that is often wrongly conflated with that of emancipation bold engagement with the intractable question of what and who is an African systematic explication of the role of coloniality in sustaining Euro

American hegemony and unmasking of how the postcolonial is interlocked with the neocolonial paradoxically It is within this context that the postcolonial African state emerges as a leviathan and the postcolonial reality becomes a terrain of contradictions mediated by the logic of violence No doubt Sabelo Ndlovu Gatsheni's handling of complex concepts and difficult questions of the day is remarkable particularly the decoding and mixing of complex theoretical interventions from Africa and Latin America to enlighten the present without losing historical perspicacity To buttress the theoretical arguments detailed empirical case studies of South Africa Zimbabwe DRC and Namibia completes this timely contribution to African Studies

Civic Agency in Africa Ebenezer Obadare, Wendy Willems, 2014 Examines the variety of mostly unorganized and informal ways in which Africans exercise agency and resist state power in the 21st century through citizen action and popular culture and how the relationship between ruler and ruled is being reframed The recent eruption of popular protests across North Africa and the Middle East has reopened academic debate on the meaning and strategies of resistance in the 21st century This book argues that Western notions of state and civil society provide only a limited understanding of how power and resistance operate in the African context where informality is central to the way both state officials and citizens exercise agency With the principle of informality as a template the chapters in this volume collectively examine the various modes organised and unorganised formal and informal urban and rural embodied and discursive serious and ludic online and offline successful and failing through which Africans contend with power Resistance takes place against the backdrop of deep fractures in state sovereignty the remnants of colonial rule and the constraints of a global neoliberal economic system Ebenezer Obadare is Associate Professor Department of Sociology University of Kansas Wendy Willems is Assistant Professor Department of Media and Communications London School of Economics and Political Science LSE and Honorary Research Fellow Department of Media Studies University of the Witwatersrand Johannesburg South Africa

Imagining the United States of Africa E. Ike Udogu, 2015-02-10 This book frames the debates around the pressing desire for some form of unification that found expression in the pan Africanist movement and formation of the Organization of African Unity in Addis Ababa Ethiopia in 1963 following the advent of home rule for many former colonies of the Western powers Discussions in this volume address the following fundamental issues nationalism and political integration and how the contradictions between both philosophies can be resolved the amelioration of corruption in order to attract internal and external investments critical for developing the vast natural resources housed in the continent the need for Africa's adaptation to the ideology and practice of capitalism and liberal globalization to suit the character of African states in a projected federal United States of Africa solutions to ethnic conflicts that are bound to happen over clashes of competing group interests the indispensability and promotion of information communication technologies and urgent need to strengthen a network of regional electric power grids that would provide constant energy to the Union and lead to improvement in communication and economic growth and recommendation of social democracy as the genre of democracy suitable for a proposed United States of Africa

Land Reforms and Natural Resource Conflicts in Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo, 2015-10-16 This book is a critical examination of the place and role of land in Africa the role of land in political formation and national identification and the land as an economic resource within both national economic development and liberal globalization Colonial and post colonial conflicts have been rooted in four related claims the struggle over scarce resources especially access to land resources abundance of natural resources mismanaged or appropriated by both the states local power systems and multinationals weak or absent articulated land tenure policies leading to speculation or hybrid policy framework and the imperatives of the global liberalization based on the free market principles to regulate the land question and mineral appropriation issue The actualization of these combined claims have led to conflicts among ethnic groups or between them and governments This book is not only about conflicts but also about local policy achievements that have been produced on the land question It provides a critical understanding of the forces and claims related to land tenure systems as part of the state policy and its system of governance
