A Light Unto My Path James J. Bacik, Kevin E. Anderson, 2006 There are many books available on creating a good effective homily This book unique in that it is the product of a long standing dialogue between James Bacik a pastor and theologian and Kevin Anderson a clinical psychologist and author offers those who preach theological perspectives and practical advice on proclaiming the word of God The authors move through the process of preparing and delivering a homily from its conception to delivery However they emphasize the focus and function of the homily rather than the theme and how this relates the message of the readings to the human or social concerns of the congregation Here is a one of a kind book that includes empirical data in the form of a survey to explore what works and does not work in preaching It will provide a fresh perspective to those in homiletics courses in seminaries as well as hands on advice for those who already preach

The Liturgical Year Adrien Nocent, 2013-11-07 When Adrien Nocent's The Liturgical Year was published in the 1970s it was the very first comprehensive commentary on the three year lectionary in relation to the Sacramentary Missal as these were revised following the Second Vatican Council Expressed on nearly every page was Nocent's conviction that the liturgy and the Word of God proclaimed within it have something important to say to real people of every culture and time He constantly returns to the question What does this passage have to say to us today Now this extraordinary work of applied postconciliar liturgical scholarship has been emended and annotated by one of today's leading liturgical scholars Paul Turner has provided
