Congress. Senate. Interior and Insular Affairs Committee,1975 The Saints of Santa Ana Jonathan E. Calvillo,2020-10-29 Catholicism has long been the dominant religion among ethnic Mexicans in the U S Recent shifts however have challenged the traditional association between Mexican ethnicity and Catholicism Evangelical Protestantism has emerged as a notable alternative of ethnic identity expression for ethnic Mexicans This book takes readers into the thriving Mexican majority neighborhoods of Santa Ana California a city once dubbed the hardest place to live in the U S There Jonathan E Calvillo explores how religious practices permeate the fabric of everyday social interactions for Mexican immigrants How does faith shape these immigrants sense of ethnic identity To answer this question The Saints of Santa Ana compares the experiences of Catholic and Evangelical Mexican immigrants the two largest religious groupings in the city Drawing on five years of participant observation and in depth interviews this book argues that religious affiliations set Catholics and Evangelicals along diverging trajectories with regard to ethnic identity In particular Calvillo argues Catholics and Evangelicals have differing perspectives on collective memory and ethnic community The Saints of Santa Ana offers a rich portrait of a fascinating American community The Miraculous Flying House of Loreto Karin Vélez,2019 In 1295 a house fell from the evening sky onto an Italian coastal road by the Adriatic Sea Inside awestruck locals encountered the Virgin Mary who explained that this humble mud brick structure was her original residence newly arrived from Nazareth To keep it from the hands of Muslim invaders angels had flown it to Loreto stopping three times along the way This story of the house of Loreto has been read as an allegory of how Catholicism spread peacefully around the world by dropping miraculously from the heavens In this book Karin Vélez calls that interpretation into question by examining historical accounts of the movement of the Holy House across the Mediterranean in the thirteenth century and the Atlantic in the seventeenth century These records indicate vast and voluntary involvement in the project of formulating a branch of Catholic devotion Vélez surveys the efforts of European Jesuits Slavic migrants and indigenous peoples in Baja California Canada and Peru These individuals contributed to the expansion of Catholicism by acting as unofficial authors inadvertent pilgrims unlicensed architects unacknowledged artists and unsolicited cataloguers of Loreto Their participation in portaging Mary's house challenges traditional views of Christianity as a prepackaged European export and instead suggests that Christianity is the cumulative product of thousands of self appointed editors Vélez also demonstrates how miracle narratives can be treated seriously as historical sources that preserve traces of real events Drawing on rich archival materials The Miraculous Flying

House of Loreto illustrates how global Catholicism proliferated through independent initiatives of untrained laymen

Lorenzo Ghiberti's Gates of Paradise Amy R. Bloch, 2016-02-09 This book examines the heretofore unsuspected complexity of Lorenzo Ghiberti's sculpted representations of Old Testament narratives in his Gates of Paradise 1425-52 the second set of doors he made for the Florence Baptistery and a masterpiece of Italian Renaissance sculpture One of the most intellectually engaged and well-read artists of his age Ghiberti found inspiration in ancient and medieval texts many of which he and his contacts in Florence's humanist community shared read and discussed He was fascinated by the science of vision by the functioning of nature and above all by the origins and history of art These unusually well-defined intellectual interests reflected in his famous Commentaries shaped his approach in the Gates Through the selection imaginative interpretation and arrangement of biblical episodes Ghiberti fashioned multi-textured narratives that explore the human condition and express his ideas on a range of social political artistic and philosophical issues
