Lapidus,2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus s classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty first century Lapidus s history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam s worldwide diffusion to Africa Spain Turkey and the Balkans Central South and Southeast Asia and North America situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples Publisher information The Ottoman Scramble for Africa Mostafa Minawi,2016-06-15 The Ottoman Scramble for Africa is the first book to tell the story of the Ottoman Empire s expansionist efforts during the age of high imperialism Following key representatives of the sultan on their travels across Europe Africa and Arabia at the close of the nineteenth century it takes the reader from Istanbul to Berlin from Benghazi to Lake Chad Basin to the Hijaz and then back to Istanbul It turns the spotlight on the Ottoman Empire's expansionist strategies in Africa and its increasingly vulnerable African and Arabian frontiers Drawing on previously untapped Ottoman archival evidence Mostafa Minawi examines how the Ottoman participation in the Conference of Berlin and involvement in an aggressive competition for colonial possessions in Africa were part of a self reimagining of this once powerful global empire In so doing Minawi redefines the parameters of agency in late nineteenth century colonialism to include the Ottoman Empire and turns the typical framework of a European colonizer and a non European colonized on its head Most importantly Minawi offers a radical revision of nineteenth century Middle East history by providing a counternarrative to the Sick Man of Europe trope challenging the idea that the Ottomans were passive observers of the great European powers negotiations over solutions to the so called Eastern Question

Religion as Resistance Eileen Ryan, 2018-01-02 When Italian forces landed on the shores of Libya in 1911 many in Italy hailed it as an opportunity to embrace a Catholic national identity through imperial expansion After decades of acrimony between an intransigent Church and the Italian state enthusiasm for the imperial adventure helped incorporate Catholic interests in a new era of mass politics Others among Italian imperialists military officers and civil administrators were more concerned with the challenges of governing a Muslim society one in which the Sufi brotherhood of the Sanusiyya seemed dominant Eileen Ryan illustrates what Italian imperialists thought would be the best methods to govern in Muslim North Africa and in turn highlights the contentious connection between religious and political authority in Italy Telling this story requires an unraveling of the history of the Sanusiyya During the fall of Qaddafi Libyan protestors took up the flag of the Libyan Kingdom of Idris al Sanusi signaling an opportunity to reexamine Libya's colonial past After decades of historiography discounting the influence of Sanusi elites in Libyan nationalism the end of this regime opened up the possibility of reinterpreting the importance of religion resistance and Sanusi elites in Libya's colonial history Religion as Resistance provides new perspectives on the history of collaboration between the Italian state and Idris al Sanusi and questions the dichotomy between resistance and collaboration in the colonial world

Islamic Societies to the Nineteenth Century Ira M. Lapidus, 2012-10-29 First published in 1988 Ira Lapidus A History of Islamic Societies has become a classic in the field enlightening students scholars and others with a thirst for knowledge about one of the world's great civilizations This book based on fully revised and updated parts one and two of this monumental work describes the transformations of Islamic societies from their beginning in the seventh century through their diffusion across the globe into the challenges of the nineteenth century The story focuses on the organization of families and tribes religious groups and states showing how they were transformed by their interactions with other religious and political communities The book concludes with the European commercial and imperial interventions that initiated a new set of transformations in the Islamic world and the onset of the modern era Organized in narrative sections for the history of each major region with innovative analytic summary introductions and conclusions this book is a unique endeavour

Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN

SHILLINGTON.,2005 The Trans-Saharan Slave Trade John Wright,2007-04-03 This compelling text sheds light on the important but under studied trans Saharan slave trade The author uncovers and surveys this the least noticed of the slave trades out of Africa which from the seventh to the twentieth centuries quietly delivered almost as many black Africans into foreign servitude as did the far busier but much briefer Atlantic and East African trades Illuminating for the first time a significant but ignored subject the book supports and widens current scholarly examination of Africans essential role in the enslavement of fellow Africans and their delivery to internal Atlantic or trans Saharan markets The Making of Modern Libya Ali Abdullatif Ahmida,2011-03-23 The Making of Modern Libya is a thorough examination of the social cultural and historical background of modern Libya Ali Abdullatif Ahmida examines the reaction of the ordinary Libyan people to colonialism and nationalism from the early nineteenth century through the end of anticolonial resistance to the rise of the modern Libyan state in 1951 Weaving together insights drawn from Arabic French English and Italian sources he challenges Eurocentric theories of social change that ignore the internal dynamics of native social history Among other things he shows that Sufi Islam tribal military organization and oral traditions were crucial in the fight against colonialism The political and cultural legacy of the resistance has been powerful strengthening Libyan nationalism and leading to the revival of strong attachments to Islam The memory of this period has not yet faded and appreciation of this background is essential to understanding modern Libya This new edition also investigates Libya s postcolonial nationalist policies bringing the argument up to the present Sponsoring Sufism F. Muedini,2015-07-15 Sponsoring Sufism argues that governments are sponsoring Sufism not only because they see it as an apolitical movement that won t challenge their existing authority but also that ties to Sufi orders gives them religious credibility something they seek as they face the rise of Islamist parties Libya Ronald Bruce St John,2015-05-15 Retaining the conceptual framework of the first edition through emphasis on the dual themes of continuity and change the second edition of Libya is revised and updated to include discussion of key developments since 2010 including The February 17 Revolution and the death of Muammar al Qaddafi The political process which evolved in the course of the February 17 Revolution and led to General National Congress elections in July 2012 Constitutional Assembly elections in February 2014 and House of Representative elections in June 2014 Post Qaddafi economic policy from the National Transitional Council through successive interim transitional governments Post Qaddafi foreign policy The on going process of drafting a new constitution which will be followed by the election of a Parliament and a President Providing a comprehensive overview of the Libyan uprising seen to be the exception to the Arab Spring and highlighting the issues facing contemporary Libya this book is an important text for students and scholars of History North Africa and the Middle East as well as the non specialist with an interest in current affairs Libya, a Country Study American University (Washington, D.C.). Foreign Area Studies,1979
