Sappho To Valry Poems In Translation:

Sappho to Valéry John Frederick Nims, 1990-07-01 Poems in original languages with English translations Sappho to Valéry (p), 1980 The Six-cornered Snowflake and Other Poems John Frederick Nims, 1990 As a preeminent modernist poet and translator of the classics John Frederick Nims's work is an elegant fusion of contemporary sensibility with formalist experimentation The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature Jodie Medd, 2015-12-10 The Cambridge Companion to Lesbian Literature examines literary representations of lesbian sexuality identities and communities from the medieval period to the present In addition to providing a helpful orientation to key literary historical periods critical concepts theoretical debates and literary genres this Companion considers the work of such well known authors as Virginia Woolf Adrienne Rich Audre Lorde Alison Bechdel and Sarah Waters Written by a host of leading critics and covering subjects as diverse as lesbian desire in the long eighteenth century and same sex love in a postcolonial context this Companion delivers insight into the variety of traditions that have shaped the present landscape of lesbian literature Fourteen on Form William Baer, 2009-06 When free verse and its many movements seemed to dominate poetry other writers worked steadfastly insistently and majestically in traditional forms of rhyme and meter Such poets as Anthony Hecht Donald Justice Derek Walcott and Richard Wilbur utilized sonnets villanelles blank verse and many other forms to create dazzling lasting work Their writing posed a counterpoint to free verse sustained a tradition in English language verse and eventually inspired the movement called New Formalism Fourteen on Form Conversations with Poets collects interviews with some of the most influential poets of the last fifty years William Baer editor of The Formalist asks incisive questions that allow writers to discuss in detail a wide range of topics related to their work methods of composition and the contemporary poetry scene Maxine Kumin reflects on being a woman poet during a period in which women were not encouraged to submit to journals With clarity and passion Walcott remembers the impetus of his famous Eulogy to W H Auden British poet Wendy Cope talks about the differences between how her barbed poems are received in England and abroad The conversations return continually to the serious matter of poetic craft especially the potential power of form in poetry These well paced conversations showcase poets discussing their creative lives with insight and candor The sum total of their forthright opinions in Fourteen on Form not only elucidates the current situation of the art form but it also serves as a primer for understanding the fundamental craft of poetics On Translation Di JIN, Eugene Albert NIDA, 2006-03-01 Following the theoretical framework Nida had developed over decades of work on translation and semiotics the two authors offer an easily comprehensible analysis of the complex problems involved in translation After a critical review of the historical development of translation theory in the light of modern information theory they elucidate the most fundamental principles of translation in accordance with the concept of dynamic equivalence The treatment is closely related to actual translation practice and the principles elucidated are applicable to all types of translation though most of the examples analyzed are taken from translations between Chinese and English This new and expanded edition has two main parts Part I is the complete text of the original work as published in the early 1980s Part II consists of six of Professor Jin s more recent essays which provide further insights into the principle of equivalent effect and its applications in literary translation Particular attention is paid to practical procedures and the extremely complex relationship between creative translation and real fidelity Published by City University of Hong Kong Press

Creative Classical Translation Paschalis Nikolaou,2023-12-07 This Element surveys transmissions of ancient Greek and Latin texts into anglophone literatures often straddling boundaries between translational responsibility and adaptive re creative textual practices Attention to manifestations of and reasons for versioning retranslation hybridity and translation as experiment compels an introductory discussion of evolving tendencies of classical reception with particular dispositions relating to a sociocultural context such as that of the United States observed in Section 3 The role paratexts play in the dialogue between scholarship literary art and performance is the focus of Section 4 while Section 2 presents readers with a range of English responses to Homer Creativity through sites and positions of translation is a defining feature of the workings of literary traditions and of antiquity and modernity in constant dialogue This Element explores numerous textual manifestations and reasons for invention along with integrations of thinking on classical translation over the centuries helping shape present day translation studies

Poems Rosal?a de Castro,1991-07-03 Translations from both Galician and Spanish of more than 100 poems by one of the outstanding poets of 19th century Spain De Castro s 1837 1885 poetry often compared to that of Emily Dickinson is characterized by an intimate lyricism simple diction and innovative prosody Includes a critical introduction notes to the translations and two of the poet s own autobiographical prologues Paper edition unseen 16 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
