Her doubts are confirmed when the bloody corpse of Ralph Peterson is found on the floor in the rental manager's office. It appears that the call he had received was not a prank. Someone is upset that he was awarded the custodial position. But who and why? Important key members of the club become suspects, causing Sarah to wonder if one of her close friends is a cold-blooded murderer. Unnerving twists and turns occur. Danger mounts. Sarah is on edge because she needs to be constantly on her guard.

Mediated Maternity Linda Seidel, 2013-05-09 Mediated Maternity: Contemporary American Portrayals of Bad Mothers in Literature and Popular Culture by Linda Seidel explores the cultural construction of the bad mother in books, movies, and TV shows, arguing that these portrayals typically have the effect of cementing dominant assumptions about motherhood in place or less often of disrupting those assumptions, causing us to ask whether motherhood could be constructed differently. Portrayals of bad mothers not only help to establish what the good mother is by depicting her opposite but also serve to illustrate what the culture fears about women in general and mothers in particular. From the ancient horror of female power symbolized by Medea or more recently by Casey Anthony to the current worry that drug-addicted pregnant women are harming their fetuses, we see a social desire to monitor the reproductive capabilities of women, resulting in more formal and informal surveillance than in material or even moral support.
