Babylonian Epics, Hymns, Omens, and Other Texts Albert T. Clay, 2005-09-14 The intention of Ancient Texts and Translations ATT is to make available a variety of ancient documents and document collections to a broad range of readers The series will include reprints of long out of print volumes revisions of earlier editions and completely new volumes The understanding of ancient societies depends upon our close reading of the documents however fragmentary that have survived K C Hanson Series Editor

Sargonic Akkadian Rebecca Hasselbach, 2005 Since the second edition of I J Gelb s Old Akkadian Writing and Grammar in 1961 which is still the standard grammar of Old Akkadian to this day a significant number of new texts from the Old Akkadian period has been discovered and important improvements have been made regarding the analysis of Old Akkadian and Early Semitic grammar particularly phonology and writing The present volume seeks to update our understanding of the syllabically written textual material from the Sargonic period 2350 2100 BCE which contains most of our evidence for the Akkadian used at this period It consists of a detailed investigation of the Sargonic Akkadian syllabary phonology and morphology with specific focus on geographical and dialectal variations that are noticeable in this text corpus but which have not yet been examined thoroughly The grammatical investigation further compares specific linguistic features of this period with the two later Akkadian dialects Babylonian and Assyrian in order to establish the position of the individual sub groups of Sargonic Akkadian within the dialect geography of Akkadian

Scribal Education in the Sargonic Period Nicholas L. Kraus, 2020-10-12 Scribal Education in the Sargonic Period is an in depth analysis of the process of education for scribes during the period of Sargonic hegemony in ancient Mesopotamia c 2335 2150 BCE The book provides a holistic study of the topic addressing the technology of writing the school texts used in education the languages of instruction and the social and historical context of scribal life and an education in cuneiform writing The topic of scribal education at such an early period of Mesopotamian history has never been addressed at length before Nicholas Kraus convincingly argues that scribal education during the Sargonic period was closely tied to the administrative institutions of the Sargonic Empire and prepared a scribe to become an effective administrator The Harvard Semitic Studies series publishes volumes from the Harvard Museum of the Ancient Near East Other series offered by Brill that publish volumes from the Museum include Studies in the Archaeology and History of the Levant and Harvard Semitic Monographs <https://hmane.harvard.edu/publications>

Mathematics in Ancient Iraq Eleanor Robson, 2020-06-30 This monumental book traces the origins and development of mathematics in the ancient Middle East from its earliest beginnings in the fourth millennium BCE to the end of indigenous intellectual culture in the second century BCE when cuneiform writing was gradually abandoned Eleanor Robson offers a history like no other examining ancient mathematics within its broader social political economic and religious contexts and showing that mathematics was not just an abstract discipline for elites but a key component in ordering society and understanding the world The region of modern day Iraq is uniquely rich in evidence for ancient mathematics because its prehistoric inhabitants wrote on clay tablets many hundreds of thousands of which have been archaeologically excavated deciphered and translated Drawing from these and a wealth of other textual and archaeological evidence Robson gives an extraordinarily detailed picture of how mathematical ideas and practices were conceived used and taught during this period She challenges the prevailing view that they were merely the simplistic precursors of classical Greek mathematics and explains how the prevailing view came to be Robson reveals the true sophistication and beauty of ancient Middle Eastern mathematics as it evolved over three thousand years from the earliest beginnings of recorded accounting to complex mathematical astronomy Every chapter provides detailed information on sources and the book includes an appendix on all mathematical cuneiform tablets published before 2007

Historical Genesis Richard James Fischer, 2008-01-28 The beginning chapters of Genesis come alive with characters places and events almost totally unknown outside of the Bible itself except when illuminated by the fascinating history of the ancient Near East Did a man we call Adam actually exist Was someone known to us as Noah warned of a cataclysmic flood and instructed to build an ark Could the Tower of Babel incident actually have happened When archaeological artifacts and literature began to surface from ancient Mesopotamia present day Iraq nearly 200 years ago only a handful of archaeologists dared to point out that there appeared to be a close relationship between Genesis and the ruminations of the Sumerians and Akkadians who once lived there Often enduring great personal hardships these archaeological pioneers produced copious translations and marvelous insights Cuneiform texts compiled from almost two centuries of exploration have added significantly to our understanding of the historical underpinnings of the Old Testament The reader will gain a new appreciation for the historical integrity of Genesis 2 11 and marvel at the evidence that the persons places and events depicted though long misunderstood could be real Please visit Richard J Fisher's web site at <http://www.historicalgenesis.com> mechanisms behind the development of this cultural innovation Weighing became the means of articulating the value of both imported and locally produced goods within a socioeconomic system that had reached an unprecedented level of complexity This study provides a comprehensive analysis of this cultural and economic phenomenon which simultaneously reflected and shaped the relationships between individuals and groups in Mesopotamia throughout the third millennium BCE Materials for the Assyrian Dictionary ,1952 The Book of Ezekiel and the Poem of Erra Daniel Bodi,1991 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
