Critical Essays Jean-Paul Sartre, 2017 Critical Essays Situations I contains essays on literature and philosophy from a highly formative period of French philosopher and leading existentialist Jean Paul Sartre s life the years between 1938 and 1946 This period is particularly interesting because it is before Sartre published the magnum opus that would solidify his name as a philosopher Being and Nothingness Instead during this time Sartre was emerging as one of France s most promising young novelists and playwrights he had already published Nausea The Age of Reason The Flies and No Exit Not content however he was meanwhile consciously attempting to revive the form of the essay via detailed examinations of writers who were to become central to European cultural life in the immediate aftermath of World War II Collected here are Sartre s experiments in reimagining the idea and structure of the essay Among the distinguished writers he analyzes are Francis Ponge Georges Bataille Vladimir Nabokov Maurice Blanchot and of course Albert Camus whose novel The Stranger Sartre endeavours to explain in these pages Critical Essays Situations I also contains a famous attack on the Catholic novelist Fran ois Mauriac studies of the great American literary iconoclasts Faulkner and Dos Passos and brief but insightful essays on aspects of the philosophical writings of Husserl and Descartes This new translation by Chris Turner reinvigorates the original skill and voice of Sartre s work and will be essential reading for fans of Sartre and the many writers and works he explores For my generation he has always been one of the great intellectual heroes of the twentieth century a man whose insight and intellectual gifts were at the service of nearly every progressive cause of our time Edward Said Les mots Jean-Paul Sartre, 1969
