Saturday with Daddy Dan Andreasen, 2013-05-07 A young elephant and his Daddy spend Saturday running errands sipping lemonade and having a cookout The charming art and simple story make this a perfect summertime book for fathers and their preschoolers

The Weekend Dad Alison Walsh, 2018-01-04 As children Emmett and Daisy were inseparable Until Daisy announced that she'd seen her mum kissing Emmett's dad They haven't seen each other since but Emmett often thinks about her where she is what she's doing and if she ever thinks about him Now almost thirty Emmett has just begun a fresh chapter in London so he can spend weekends with his seven year old daughter whose existence he only recently discovered Things are off to a bumpy start he's not quite sure he's the father Misty expected but they're finding their way And then one day in a dusty local bookshop he sees her Daisy and the spark that never died brightens But it's not long before the situation becomes very complex indeed and Emmett is torn between telling the truth and risking a blossoming new relationship or two

The Weekend Dad is a heartwarming story of friendship parenthood love and what it is to be good enough

A Trick of the Light Kent R. Brown, 1996

Fletcher A. Manning Fletcher A. Manning, 2010-05 The number of living representatives of The Greatest Generation becomes fewer with each passing year and with their diminution comes the relegation of their extraordinary experiences to second and third hand recounting an inherited oral tradition more suitable to mythology than true history Rarely one of them creates a memoir of first hand recollections framing major events in history with personal perspective and eyewitness urgency Fletcher Manning's book is such a memoir tracing the extraordinary events in the first half of the Twentieth Century with a distinctly personal hand while reviewing the historical content of a bygone age with clarity and journalistic conciseness Fletcher Manning was born in the rural America of the early Twentieth Century The eldest son of North Carolinian farmers he was born at the height of the First World War grew up in The Great Depression and as a young man distinguished himself in the Second World War while forging a new more urbane kind of life for himself and his family While serving as an officer in the US Navy he became the first member of his family ever to earn a liberal arts degree and upon leaving the Navy after thirty years of service established himself in a second career as a teacher of history In everything he undertook he ascended to leadership always by merit never by ambition His life was defined by service to country to faith and to family
