Contesting Chineseness Chang-Yau Hoon, Ying-kit Chan, 2021-03-15 Combining a historical approach of Chineseness and a contemporary perspective on the social construction of Chineseness this book provides comparative insights to understand the contingent complexities of ethnic and social formations in both China and among the Chinese diaspora in Southeast Asia This book focuses on the experiences and practices of these people who as mobile agents are free to embrace or reject being defined as Chinese by moving across borders and reinterpreting their own histories By historicizing the notion of Chineseness at local regional and global levels the book examines intersections of authenticity authority culture identity media power and international relations that support or undermine different instances of Chineseness and its representations It seeks to rescue the present from the past by presenting case studies of contingent encounters that produce the ideas practices and identities that become the categories nations need to justify their existence The dynamic fluid representations of Chineseness illustrate that it has never been an undifferentiated whole in both space and time Through physical movements and inherited knowledge agents of Chineseness have deployed various interpretive strategies to define and represent themselves vis vis the local regional and global in their respective temporal experiences This book will be relevant to students and scholars in Chinese studies and Asian studies more broadly with a focus on identity politics migration popular culture and international relations The Chinese overseas often saw themselves as caught between a rock and a hard place The collection of essays here highlights the variety of experiences in Southeast Asia and China that suggest that the rock can become a huge boulder with sharp edges and the hard places can have deadly spikes A must read for those who wonder whether Chineseness has ever been what it seems

Wang Gungwu University Professor National University of Singapore By including reflections on constructions of Chineseness in both China itself and in various Southeast Asian sites the book shows that being Chinese is by no means necessarily intertwined with China as a geopolitical concept while at the same time highlighting the incongruities and tensions in the escapable relationship with China that diasporic Chinese subjects variously embody expressed in a wide range of social phenomena such as language use popular culture architecture and family relations The book is a very welcome addition to the necessary ongoing conversation on Chineseness in the 21st century Ien Ang Distinguished Professor of Cultural Studies Western Sydney University The New Monthly Magazine and Universal Register ,1817 A Satchel Guide to Europe ,1907 New Monthly Magazine, and Universal Register ,1817 Electronic Hive Minds on Social Media: Emerging Research and Opportunities Hai-Jew, Shalin,2019-05-31 Researchers have harnessed the flood of personal information and opinions shared on social media platforms in a variety of ways People communicate not only what they imagine they are purposely sharing but also unintentionally leak information which allows others to glimpse a sense of the subconscious and unconscious at a macro level Electronic Hive Minds on Social Media Emerging Research and Opportunities explores various research techniques to profile the electronic hive mind around social topics as expressed on various modalities of social media from human bot and cyborg social media accounts and proposes new research methods for harnessing public data from social media platforms Highlighting topics such as knowledge sharing swarm intelligence and social psychology this publication is designed for researchers social psychologists practitioners and students in marketing communications mass media and similar fields Why Men Fall Out of Love Michael French,2007 The groundbreaking book that breaks the silence of the male code Why do men fall out of love It s rarely a simple issue of attraction sex or money trouble In this provocative no holds barred guide Michael French brings unparalleled insight into the male psyche and reveals why so many men feel trapped unhappy or unfulfilled and what women can do about it Based on interviews with men from all ages and walks of life this grippingly honest book illustrates why when it comes to relationships so many men feel outgunned and outmatched by women Discover The 4 relationship busters that lead couples to flounder and sink the loss of intimacy the quest for validation the perfection impulse the fading of attraction and strategies for dealing with them head on Six key reasons why men fall out of love from issues of identity power and fear to stereotypes about who they really are and what they want The truth about men and mis communication and ways for them to open up Three questions a woman needs to ask a man before she becomes emotionally involved The Relationship Audit how couples can figure out what is driving them apart and find ways to mend their relationship By finally bringing men s true feelings to the surface Michael French offers a dramatic new approach to understanding men and their hidden emotions This guide illuminates the deeper reasons why men fall out of love and more important shows how relationships can be healed An impressive insightful and completely accessible view deep into the heart s of men and their struggle with love Joel D Block Ph D author of Naked Intimacy Read
