Who Are Right Carter Heyward, In this theological resource for spiritual transformation and social change Carter Heyward rethinks the figure Jesus and his import for church academy and society Rather than focus on the endlessly variable pictures of Jesus in contemporary biblical scholarship and in radical opposition to the Jesus of the Christian Right Heyward presents Jesus as our brother infused with a sacred power and passion for embodying right mutual relation and ourselves with him in this commitment She goes on to explore concretely how we might live this way Saving Jesus from the Church Robin R.

Meyers,2009-02-24 Countless thoughtful people are now so disgusted with the marriage of bad theology and hypocritical behavior by the church that a new Reformation is required in which the purpose of religion itself is reimaged Meyers takes the best of biblical scholarship and recasts these core Christian concepts to exhort the church to pursue an alternative vision of the Christian life Jesus as Teacher not Savior Christianity as Compassion not Condemnation Prosperity as Dangerous not Divine Discipleship as Obedience not Control Religion as Relationship not Righteousness This is not a call to the church to move to the far left or to try something brand new Rather it is the recovery of something very old Saving Jesus from the Church shows us what it means to be a Christian and how to follow Jesus teachings today Jesus Christ for Contemporary

Life Don Schweitzer,2012-02-13 Jesus Christ for Contemporary Life is an understanding of Jesus as the Word of God grounded in what can be known historically of Jesus and informed by subsequent reflection upon him which hopes to help shape a Christian identity characterized by bounded openness Don Schweitzer moves from the historical Jesus to the present in three parts In the first part Schweitzer develops an understanding of Jesus as the Word of God who became incarnate to give the goodness and beauty of God further expression in time and space Second he explores how various atonement theories articulate ways in which Jesus empowers people to further express this beauty and goodness in their own lives And finally Schweitzer explores how Jesus relates to people in the church to the events and movements in history to other religions and to Christians in their dialogue with God in prayer The Complete Works of Thomas Brooks Thomas

Brooks,1866 From Anti-Judaism to Anti-Semitism Robert Chazan,2016-12-24 From its earliest days Christianity has viewed Judaism and Jews ambiguously Given its roots within the Jewish community of first century Palestine there was much in Judaism that demanded Church admiration and praise however as Jews continued to resist Christian truth there was also much that had to be condemned Major Christian thinkers of antiquity while disparaging their Jewish contemporaries for rejecting Christian truth depicted the Jewish past and future in balanced terms identifying both positives and negatives Beginning at the end of the first millennium an increasingly large Jewish community started to coalesce across rapidly developing northern Europe becoming the object of intense popular animosity and radically negative popular imagery The portrayals of the broad trajectory of Jewish history offered by major medieval European intellectual leaders became increasingly negative as well The popular animosity and the negative intellectual formulations were bequeathed to the modern West which had tragic consequences in the twentieth century In this book Robert Chazan traces the path that began as anti Judaism evolved into heightened medieval hatred and fear of Jews and culminated in modern anti-Semitism

Salvation Accomplished by the Son Robert A. Peterson, 2024-06-17 In this unique and insightful work Robert Peterson insists that we look afresh at all that the Bible teaches about who our Savior is and what he has accomplished with the conviction that a careful examination of this teaching will lead us to adoration and worship Peterson explains the saving work of Christ both his deeds and the biblical pictures illustrating them and thereby points to the magnitude of what Jesus did to save sinners Offered here is a substantive significant and enduring treatise on a key Christian doctrine the work of Christ

Characters and Characterization in

Luke-Acts Frank Dicken, Julia Snyder, 2016-10-20 Like all skilful authors the composer of the biblical books of Luke and Acts understood that a good story requires more than a gripping plot a persuasive narrative also needs well portrayed plot enhancing characters This book brings together a set of new essays examining characters and characterization in those books from a variety of methodological perspectives The essays illustrate how narratological sociolinguistic reader response feminist redaction reception historical and comparative literature approaches can be fruitfully applied to the question of Luke's techniques of characterization Theoretical and methodological discussions are complemented with case studies of specific Lukan characters Together the essays reflect the understanding that while many of the literary techniques involved in characterization attest a certain universality each writer also brings his or her own unique perspective and talent to the portrayal and use of characters with the result that analysis of a writer's characters and style of characterization can enhance appreciation of that writer's work

God's Inerrant Word John Warwick Montgomery, 2018-01-27 Editor John Warwick Montgomery b 1931 is one of the major philosophical apologists of the 20th century. He is also a trained lawyer which influenced his historical legal approach to Christian apologetics. He is perhaps best known as a writer for his books History and Christianity, How Do We Know There is a God, Faith Founded on Fact, Evidence for Faith, Where is History Going, The Shape of the Past, The Quest for Noah's Ark as well as for his debates with the infamous atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair 1967 with Joseph Fletcher reprinted in Situation Ethics, True or False with Death of God theologian Thomas Altizer reprinted in The Suicide of Christian Theology. R. C. Sproul wrote in the Foreword to this 1974 book: "The essays in this book were written as research articles for delivery at the Conference on the Inspiration and Authority of Scripture in the fall of 1976. The Conference was sponsored by the Ligonier Valley Study Center, a facility developed to make the resources of Christian scholarship available to today's laymen and pastors. The eleven essays comprising the text of this book were all publicly delivered at the Ligonier Conference." Pg 9 Essays are included by authors such as Montgomery, J. I. Packer, John Gerstner, Clark Pinnock, John Frame, Sproul, etc. Montgomery states in his own Introduction that "The Ligonier Conference was designed specifically to serve as an adrenal injection for the faint of heart who question the place of inerrancy in historic Christian theology or doubt that modern research is compatible with an errorless Bible. The essayists may differ from each other in a number of respects but they hold in common the historic Christian confidence in an entirely trustworthy Bible. They would impart that confidence to the readers of this volume." Pg 14 Montgomery states in his first essay "Embedded in the liberal evangelical's attempt to preserve an infallible Bible in spite of errors is a further and even more serious fallacy. We invariably find that the non-revelational areas are the areas of science and history, the areas of prime testability. The result if one carries this line of reasoning to its logical conclusion is: Where the Bible errs it is non-revelatory; when it is capable of being tested it is precariously revelatory; revelatory only until proven wrong; and where it cannot be tested it always remains revelatory and inerrant. This is just like believers in sea serpents claiming that they appear only when no scientists are present." Pg 31-32 Pinnock observes "If we say as Vatican II does that inspiration guarantees only those truths necessary for salvation, the question arises: how much do we need to know to be saved? The way is open for someone to come along with the opinion that he need know very little. Very little then is inerrantly taught in Scripture." Pg 150 Sproul says in an essay "Jesus' understanding of the Old Testament Scriptures casts a shadow over his own sinlessness. Jesus does not have to be omniscient to be infallible. But he must be infallible to be sinless. That is to say, if Jesus, claiming to be sent from God and invoking the authority of God in his teaching, errs in that teaching, he is guilty of sin. The one who claims to be the truth cannot err and be consistent with that claim. Anyone claiming absolute authority in his teaching must be absolutely trustworthy in what he teaches in order to merit absolute authority. In light of his claims, Jesus cannot plead invincible ignorance as an excuse for error." Pg 253 These essays

The Works of that Eminent Servant of Christ, Mr. John Bunyan: Grace abounding to the chief of sinners. A confession of my faith, and a reason of my practice. Differences in judgment about water-baptism, no bar to communion. Peaceable principles and true. The doctrine of the law and grace unfolded. The pilgrim's progress. The Jerusalem sinner saved. The heavenly footman. Solomon's temple spiritualized. The acceptable sacrifice. Sighs from hell. Come and welcome to Jesus Christ. A discourse upon the Pharisee and the publican. Of justification by an imputed righteousness. Paul's departure and crown. Of the Trinity and a Christian. Of the law and a Christian. Israel's hope encouraged. The life and death of Mr. Badman. The barren fig-tree. An exhortation to peace and unity. One thing is needful John Bunyan,1767 Christianity and Social Scientific Perspectives on Sport

Tom Gibbons,Stuart Braye,2020-06-29 There has been a dramatic increase in academic research activity and practical initiatives on the topic of sports and Christianity and its cultural significance during the past decade The Faculty of Health and Life Sciences at York St John University York UK hosted the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity IGCSC 24 28th August 2016 in collaboration with the Bible Society at which there were 180 delegates from 22 countries in attendance For the area of sports studies the social scientific study of sport there was a thematic strand at the congress titled Christian sociological perspectives on sport from which a special edition of the journal Sport in Society partially emanated This book is based upon this journal special edition The papers selected for inclusion in the special edition were purposely eclectic in order to demonstrate the diversity of current research occurring in the area of Christianity and social scientific perspectives on sport The goal was to bridge divisions between various social science disciplines and theology or religious studies through varied novel and interesting explorations of sport in its various forms We hope this collection inspires further studies into this area The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue in Sport in Society The Journal and Messenger ,1919

Randolph Richards,Brandon J. O'Brien,2012-07-31 Brandon O'Brien and Randy Richards shed light on the ways that Western readers often misunderstand the cultural dynamics of the Bible Identifying nine areas where commonplaces of modern Western thought diverge with the text the authors ask us to reconsider long held opinions about our most beloved book Tasty

Jesus Bryan Hurlbutt, 2013-10-28 Tasty Jesus deals with key cultural philosophical and theological representations of Christ that find expression in the North American church. Each of these respective cameos of Christ has colored the Christological understanding of many believers in the local assembly. We live in a society deeply embedded in a mindless individualism that is more concerned with a malleable Christ that suits their present taste than the Jesus of both the Bible and historic Christian orthodoxy. This book is at once a critique, a call, and a consideration. It is a critique of particular visions of Jesus that are embraced by specific subcultures, philosophical camps, and theological perspectives. It is a call to the local church, both its attendees and leadership, intended to awaken them to the problems with these various portraits in hope of stirring them to respond appropriately. It is a consideration of the primary ideological counterpoints to each view of Jesus and a postulation of the best manner in which to equip believers in the local assembly to respond to each distortion of Jesus and live under the lordship of the real Christ. It is time to get Jesus out from under the tyranny of our personal tastes.
