Persian Literature as World Literature Mostafa Abedinifard, Omid Azadibougar, Amirhossein Vafa, 2021-07-15 Confronting nationalistic and nativist interpreting practices in Persianate literary scholarship Persian Literature as World Literature makes a case for reading these literatures as world literature as transnational worldly texts that expand beyond local and national penchants Working through an idea of world literature that is both cosmopolitan and critical of any monologic view on globalization the contributors to this volume revisit the early and contemporary circulation of Persianate literatures across neighboring and distant cultures and seek innovative ways of developing a transnational Persian literary studies engaging in constructive dialogues with the global forces surrounding and shaping Persianate societies and cultures

Qeshm: The History A Persian Gulf Island Floor Willem, Potts D.T., 2024-11-21 Located in the Straits of Hormuz the island of Qeshm has had a tumultuous history Qeshm The History of a Persian Gulf Island is the first serious book length study of the island's history From the fourteenth century onward the island was an important dependency of the Kingdom of Hormuz often providing drinking water to Hormuz The island remained critical as a source of water and foodstuffs for the Portuguese beginning in the early sixteenth century Throughout the seventeenth century Qeshm remained a bone of contention between Portugal the Dutch and the English East India Companies Later it was a coveted tile in the mosaic of Persian Gulf domination aspired to by the Sultans of Oman despite the pretensions of the Qajar court The natural resources of Qeshm include salt the purest in the Persian Gulf naphtha and firewood From Nader Shah's naval ambitions to the commercial competition of the early twentieth century Qeshm features in innumerable mini crises both local and international In 1935 the British abandoned their coaling station on the island at the insistence of Reza Shah Qeshm's history stands in stark contrast to the popular image of this staid somewhat sleepy island This book brilliantly researched by two of the foremost scholars of Iranian history is essential reading for anyone interested in a region whose strategic political economic and financial importance continues to grow Women of the Prologue Carolyn A. Nadeau, 2002 He strives to release both writing practices and female identity from a repressive ideology of the self and focuses on their transformative nature He presents ways for both writer and female character to define oneself by and for oneself and not in terms of an other And in both cases he stresses the importance of absence to distance himself from past tradition and to emphasize greater freedom and responsibilities for writer and reader and for women in seventeenth century Spain Jacket Burying the Beloved Amy Motlagh, 2011-12-14 Burying the Beloved traces the relationship between the law and literature in Iran to reveal the profound ambiguities at the heart of Iranian ideas of modernity regarding women's rights and social status The book reveals how novels mediate legal reforms and examines how authors have used realism to challenge and re-imagine notions of the real It examines seminal works that foreground acute anxieties about female subjectivity in an Iran negotiating its modernity from the Constitutional Revolution of 1905 up to and beyond the Islamic Revolution of 1979 By focusing on marriage as the central metaphor through which both law and fiction read gender Motlagh critically engages and highlights the difficulties that arise as gender norms and laws change over time She examines the recurrent foregrounding of marriage at five critical periods of legal reform documenting how texts were understood both at first publication and as their importance changed over time Contemporary World Fiction Juris Dilevko, Keren Dali, Glenda Garbutt, 2011-03-17 This much needed guide to translated literature offers readers the opportunity to hear from learn about and perhaps better understand our shrinking world from the perspective of insiders from many cultures and traditions In a globalized world knowledge about non North American societies and cultures is a must Contemporary World Fiction A Guide to Literature in Translation provides an overview of the tremendous range and scope of translated world fiction available in English In so doing it will help readers get a sense of the vast world beyond North America that is conveyed by fiction titles from dozens of countries and language traditions Within the guide approximately 1 000 contemporary non English language fiction titles are fully annotated and thousands of others are listed Organization is primarily by language as language often reflects cultural cohesion better than national borders or geographies but also by country and culture In addition to contemporary titles each chapter features a brief overview of earlier translated fiction from the group The guide also provides in depth bibliographic essays for each chapter that will enable librarians and library users to further explore the literature of numerous languages and cultural traditions An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951 Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil Twenty nine year old Ebrahim Golestan who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature encounters Dylan Thomas the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company s supposedly salutary role in the country But for a few hours Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry history philosophy and the perils of translation Published here for the first time is the English translation with facing pages in the original Persian of Golestan s unflinching portrayal of that encounter revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas s time in Iran written by Abbas Milani Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University together with Alina Utrata a Ph D candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar Based on the poet s letters journals and archival material in England and Wales it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan To mark the occasion Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan s life and work examining his pioneering approach to film and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times
